PRATT ACCUSES BANK OFFICIALS

AFTER N W FLIGHT PRIZE

FIFTH EDITION

BOSTON AMERICAN

Weather Forecast Partly Cloudy.

VOL. 7—No. 74. d in Office. BOSTON, FRIDAY, JUNE 3, 1910. Copyright, 1910, by the New England Newspaper Publishing Company. PRICE ONE CENT.

TAFT OUT WITH WARNIN AGAINST SOCIA' ST PERIL

ADA, O., June 3.—President to-day sounded a warning against the trend toward Socialism in an ad ere before the graduating class of the Ohio Northern University. He aid a tribute to his predecessor, Colonel Roosevelt.

GREETED BY T ILITIA AND GOVERNOR.

A crowd of 15,000 greeted ith cheers upon his arrival shortly 11 o'clock. Governor Harmon and om-panies of the Ohio National cted as a guard of honor. Touchir Socialism in his address, which er consideration of the various profe which the graduates may elect to e d the problems which will confror the President said:

"The struggle which is co going on is toward a truer gover of the nation, of the State and cit ch has been accomplished in this in the National Government, less State Governments and still less nicipal governments.

World Moves Up

"But the movement for ings is evident everywhere, and wh seems to be some retrograde step time to time the whole movement i d. The activity of corporations in al matters has tended to corru ad this, even though the part the was in many cases forced upon But the result of the last six or ears has been to drive corporations politics, and it has been greatly enefit of politics and the public we

"The most discouraging n before us is that of municipal g t. It is said that systems have opted in some cities which make de to administer the municipal aff h greater honesty and effectiveness er before.

We have yet to be convinced upon that subject by accumulated evidence. Speaking generally of the issues which are likely to be presented to you in the future, I think the issue of most importance will be the question of the preservation of our institution of private property or its destruction and the substitution of a certain kind of co-operative joint enjoyment of everything which is the ideal of Socialism.

Wisdom of Private Property.

"The institution of private property in my judgment has done more to bring about the modern progress and civilization than any of our institutions except that of personal liberty. The development of modern industrialism, the concentration of capital and its abuses, the tendency toward monopoly and the suppression of competition may all justify a regulation and a greater restriction upon the use of private property than has been necessary heretofore. And it is in that direction that the needed reforms in my judgment lie.

"When, however, the right of private property is taken away, when the motive of enlightening selfishness disappears in modern society, and this is attempted to be substituted therefor, the motive of disinterested unselfishness on the part of every member of society toward every other as a practical force in the progress of civilization will be a failure and the result will be a substitution of a tyranny of governing committees in the distribution of theoretical rewards instead of a self-acting system in which the industrious and the prudent and the far-sighted are rewarded and the lazy and inattentive fall behind.

J. A. STEV S CRITICAL ILL AT N PORT

NEWPORT, June 3 Austin Stevens, founder and fi ident of the Sons of the Revolution is city's most distinguished citizen, ally ill.

Mr. Stevens was bo 27 and graduated from Harvard C the class of 1846. He married M A. Morris of the famous Morris f New York in 1855 and became a t of that city in 1862. For some was secretary of the New York of Commerce and later on acted ian of the New York Historical Sc He edited the Magazine of Amer story and was the author of the l records published by the New hamber of Commerce.

Mr. Stevens also the address at the laying of the ne for the Rochambeau monumen g's Park in this city.

If Y Vant
COM ENT
HE P
You Ca ure It
Quickly rough
AME CAN
WAN ADS
Read "S Wanted."
Use "He ."
PHONE " N 5180"
80-82 Su Street
264 Wash Street

DRAPER GREETS BRITISH SUNDAY SCHOOL PARTY

Governor Draper to-day let out the secret that he was once a Sunday school superintendent, and for seven years. The Governor divulged this information to day when he addressed the eighty-five British delegates who attended the World's Sunday School Convention at Washington a few days ago. The delegates were presented to the Governor in the executive chamber at the State House.

They were escorted to the State House by W. N. Hartshorn, George A. Penniman and Hamilton S. Conant of the Boston branch of the Massachusetts Sunday School Association. They were shown around the State House by Lieutenant Henry Weston, the State House guide, and Miss E. M. Burrill of the sergeant-at-arms department.

When they entered the executive chamber they were greeted by the Governor, who divered a short address, in which he said that he was himself a Sunday school superintendent for seven years. He also reviewed the occasion of the visit of the late King Edward to Boston fifty years ago and his reception in the executive chamber.

Chairman Hartshorn of the local committee responded and Rev. Carey Bonner of London thanked the Governor for the courtesy shown the delegates. The party sang "My Country 'Tis of Thee" and "God Save the King."

CIVIL SERVICE MEN ELECT OFFICERS

ALBANY, N. Y., June 3.—The third biennial meeting of the National Assembly of Civil Service Commissions ended to-day with the election of these officers: President, Joseph C. Mason, Springfield, Ill.; vice-presidents, Frank A. Spencer of New York city, C. E. Buell of Madison, Wis., and James W. S. Peters of Kansas City; secretary-treasurer, John T. Doyle, Washington, D. C.; executive committee, John C. Birdseye of Albany, Francis Almy of Buffalo and Chester D. Potter of Pittsburg.

CHAUFFEUR FREED OF DEATH CHARGE

Wilmer G. Tenney was discharged by Judge Bruce in the Malden District Court to-day when he appeared to answer to the charge of manslaughter. There was no prosecution. Tenney is chauffeur for Otis C. Brown of Cambridge and was driving an automobile slowly on Riverside avenue, Medford, about a week ago, when Wallace R. Phillips, seven years old, ran in front of the car and was killed.

BRITON WHO FLEW TWICE ACROSS THE ENGLISH CHANNEL

HON. CHARLES S. ROLLS.

ROLLS IS NOW AFTER $50,000 FLYING PRIZE

LONDON, June 3.—Charles Stewart Rolls, the Englishman who last evening regained for his native land the laurels she had lost to France, crossing the English Channel twice by aeroplane, will next attempt to capture the $50,000 prize offered by Lord Northcliffe for the 800-mile London-Edinburg-and-return flight.

While Rolls said to-day, when asked if he would compete for some of the great prizes offered in the last few days in the United States, "I have a good deal of work mapped out home," it is probable that he will be induced to compete across the Atlantic. He is one of the three Englishmen recently chosen by the Aero Club of the United Kingdom to represent Great Britain in the international tournament to be held near New York next October. Maurice E. Gorton and Lieutenant Moore-Brabazon are the others. Rolls has received hundreds of congratulatory telegrams.

He told the story of his flight to-day.

Could Have Gone Again.

"It was not at all difficult," he declared. "I could easily have gone back to France had I had sufficient fuel, and there was sufficient petrol left when I landed to take me half way across the channel. A flight across the Atlantic will soon be possible.

"I have flown an equal distance—fifty miles—over water before. From the time that I left my starting field, near the Duke of York's military school at Dover, till I landed in England again, after circling Dover Castle, I was never in serious difficulty.

"The mist bothered me, but at all times I was able to rise above it. I felt safer than if I were aboard one of the ships below me, for there was no danger of a collision where I was. The setting sun guided me on my homeward trip.

"My Wright plane worked well throughout. I found that the rear planes which I have added to the short Wright machine increased my stability in a most gratifying manner. On the way out, when up 1,000 feet, I hit a strong wind which compelled me to deviate from a straight course somewhat, but otherwise I went as I had planned."

Among those who sent congratulations to-day to Rolls were Louis Bleriot and Count DeLesseps, the Frenchmen who first flew across the Channel.

CENTRAL HAS FILED INCREASED TARIFFS

WASHINGTON, June 3.—The New York Central Railroad to-day filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission an [illegible] commodity rates from 2 to 13 per cent. from New York to St. Paul, the [illegible] ll, carlip, pitch, [illegible]

Julia Ward [illegible] Says:

There are some women who are like forgotten anchors that hold back the ship; do not be a forgotten anchor.

Read Mrs. Howe's message to American women, written expressly for the BOSTON SUNDAY AMERICAN on her ninety-first birthday. You will find it only in next Sunday's BOSTON SUNDAY AMERICAN.

SUICIDE UNDER 'L' EXPRESS

Ludwig H. Roseth committed suicide by diving in front of a North-bound elevated train in the State Street Station of the Washington street tunnel to-day.

Roseth is a carriage trimmer, twenty eight years old, and single. He lived at No. 52 Francis street, Roxbury.

The body was removed to North Grove street morgue and examined by Medical Examiner Magrath.

Watch Stopped at 8:15.

A gold watch in the vest pocket was smashed. The hands stopped at 8:15, the time when the man was struck by the train. In the pockets a little over $28 was found. The medical examiner found many injuries. Death was instantaneous.

Roseth worked for a carriage concern in Cambridge. His only relative is a niece in Troy, N. Y.

The tragedy occurred in full view of the crowd of passengers and created consternation among scores of women on the platform. The body was dragged 300 feet before the train could be stopped and was badly mangled.

Traffic was held up in the tunnel on the north-bound track for half an hour. The body was finally taken out from between the front and second coaches. The train was the one leaving Forest Hills at 7:50, bound for Sullivan square.

Acted Strangely Before Suicide.

According to persons who stood near the man, he acted queerly for some minutes before the train approached.

Within twenty feet of him were Albee S. Noyes of No. 5 Bellevue terrace, Medford, and William S. Fiske of the Commonwealth Hotel. Both told the police they were watching the man and noticed his strange conduct.

"The man stood at the far southern end of the platform," said Mr. Noyes. "I had my attention called to him by his queer actions. I thought there was something wrong with him."

BROOKLINE SENIORS IN CLASS DAY FETE

The senior class of the Brookline High School held its annual class day exercises on the high school grounds, Cypress avenue, Brookline, this afternoon. The exercises were in charge of Instructors H. C. Carrell and Miss Bessie L. Barnes. One of the features was the throwing of confetti by the marshals over the dancers. The marshals were Margaret Dow, Celia Burdett, Katherine Barnell, Allen Dexter, J. Metcalf, H. Collins, A. Jacobs, H. Cooley and W. Johnston. After the exercises on the lawn, the class day declamations were read in the assembly hall of the school.

PAYROLLS JUMPING UNDER FITZGERALD

The payrolls of the city of Boston have taken a jump in the first five months of the Fitzgerald administration over the corresponding five months a year ago of $342,098.26. The total amount of money paid by the city so far in salaries is $5,343,162.02. The payroll in the month of May this year was $25,914.57 higher than in the month of May, a year ago, when the payroll amounted to $1,066,434.52 as compared with $1,094,349.09 for the same month this year.

U. S. S. NEW ORLEANS READY FOR TROUBLE

WASHINGTON, D. C. June 3.—The U. S. cruiser New Orleans, co-operating with a Japanese and a British warship, is at Nankin, China, prepared to land sailors to protect the consulate and foreigners should the threatened riots occur. A dispatch from Minister Calhoun received today from Pekin states that Nankin has been posted with placards inciting natives to the destruction of foreign life and property.

ANOTHER BURGLARY IN CAMBRIDGE SERIES

When John F. Dennis started to dress to-day at his flat on the ground floor of No. 70 Norfolk street, Cambridgeport, he found all his clothing intact except his trousers. They were missing. To make matters all the more poignant, $210 was gone with the trousers also. Investigation showed that a burglar had entered the flat during the night. This makes one more to a series of burglaries in Cambridge within a fortnight.

THE WEATHER.

Partly cloudy to-day and Saturday. Light to moderate, variable winds.

Sun rises, 4:08 a.m.; sets, 7:15 p. m.
Moon rises, 1:48 a. m.
High tide, 7:12 a. m.; 7:38 p. m.

HARVEY H. PRATT, KELIHER ATTORNEY, OPENING DEFENCE

HARVEY H. PRATT

SOUTHBRIDGE BANK CASE TO FULL BENCH

There was an important hearing on the affairs of the Southbridge Savings Bank, which went to smash because of defalcations by Treasurer John A. Hall, who is now serving twelve years in Charlestown State prison, before Judge Rugg in the Supreme Court to-day. Attorney Charles F. Choate, Jr., argued in favor of a petition that the bank be allowed to pay depositors 85 per cent. of what is due them and resume business. Bank Commissioner Chapin and Attorney General Malone were at the hearing. Both favor granting the petition. Nobody appeared to oppose it.

Judge Rugg said he would refer the whole matter to the full bench, but he expressed doubt as to whether the court in equity proceedings could grant a decree requiring depositors to accept the proposed reduction.

When the bank failed there were 6,022 depositors, and it was disclosed in court today that 3,179 of them, representing claims amounting to $1,615,522, have signed papers accepting the reduction and loss to them of 15 per cent. The other depositors have not signed nor taken action, although the proposition has been presented to them. The 15 per cent. reduction plan would wipe out the bank's deficit of $425,000.

To-day Attorney Choate outlined to the court a plan whereby it is proposed to set aside a special fund, to be under the care of the bank commissioner, to eventually pay to depositors the 15 per cent. which, it is suggested, they are now to lose. When the bank resumes business the nucleus of this fund is to be the $20,000 recovered on Hall's bond, $28,000 or $30,000 in the form of property turned over to the bank by him and about $40,000 interest on the bank's assets.

HOCKING VALLEY R. R. INJUNCTION IS OFF

COLUMBUS, O., June 3.—Judge Rogers to-day dissolved the injunction as to the retirement of $15,000,000 preferred stock in the Hocking Valley railroad. The injunction as to the voting of the stock in the Konawha & Michigan by the Chesapeake & Ohio and the Lake Shore continues. The plaintiffs were given ten days in which to take depositions. The action was in a suit brought by David H. Gould and John M. Stanton for the appointment of a receiver.

CHELSEA MAN FINDS HORSE IS SLASHED

When Harry Ginsburg, an expressman, went to his stable at the rear of his home, No. 81 Summer street, Chelsea, to-day, he discovered that during the night some one had almost severed the tongue of his most valuable horse. The horse had almost bled to death. Ginsburg reported the case to the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. A veterinary is trying to save the horse.

STRADIVARIUS IS FOUND IN RUBBISH

What is said to be a Stradivarius violin, the history of which dates back to a sale in Rome 140 years ago, was unearthed to-day among a lot of old rubbish in the cellar at No. 409 Saratoga street, East Boston. Daniel McKenzie, who lives at the house and who made the discovery, said the violin disappeared fifty-five years ago while his great-grandfather, who bought the instrument in Rome, was living in Prince Edward Island.

KELIHER LAWYER TELLS COLEMAN'S STORY TO FATHER

Declares Bank Looter Said Heads of Institution Knew All About the Condition of Affairs.

"Father, for the last two months every officer in that bank knew what I was doing."

George W. Coleman made this statement to his father, Walter G. Coleman, in explaining his robbery of the National City Bank of Cambridge, shortly after the young man returned from Kansas City, it was declared to-day by Lawyer Harvey H. Pratt in outlining the defence of "Big Bill" Keliher in the Circit Court.

GOVERNMENT CLOSES CASE AGAINST KELIHER.

Keliher is on trial charged with aiding Coleman in robbing the bank. Mr. Pratt had not finished his opening when court adjourned until next Tuesday morning. The government finished its case at 11:30, and Mr. Pratt began his speech in a few minutes.

Mr. Pratt declared that unless Coleman fooled Cashier Frank L. Earl in his stealing, Keliher could not be convicted, and then the lawyer went on to say that the defence would prove that Earl knew all about what Coleman was doing.

A man named Lombard will be called, Mr. Pratt said, who called the attention of Cashier Earl to the life Coleman was living, and the diamonds he was wearing, and that Earl handed Lombard an unsigned note in which he stated that he had investigated the stories and Coleman had laughed at them.

"Coleman Running Wild."

Policeman Rowe, Mr. Pratt said, told the cashier that Coleman was "running wild" and the cashier retorted that they were "satisfied with him" and they wanted no comment.

Mr. Pratt declared that what the matter with Coleman was that he was suffering from "pure cussedness." Coleman is to be called as a witness for the defence. Cashier Earl was attacked by Mr. Pratt as not having done his duty.

Coleman told many persons, including his former counsel, Henry Winslow, that an aunt had left him $350,000, and that he was going to "spend it to the limit," the lawyer said in his speech.

In the course of his speech Mr. Pratt said:

Lawyer Pratt's Defence.

"Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen of the Jury: This is a remarkable case, and let me say in opening that much has been introduced with which the defendant has had nothing to do. We've been introduced in this case to Martin J. Walsh. We've heard of James Strausneider way out in New York, and we've been told much about John R. Marshall. We've been led from No. 30 Huntington avenue to No. 110 State street, from No. 6 Beacon street to New York, to Buffalo, to points in Vermont and all over the lot.

"We ask you to forget all about these outside issues dragged into the case by the government and to come back to the looted National City Bank in Cambridge, to the aged President Dresser, to Mrs. Cunningham and other depositors who trusted their savings in the vaults and to the officers of this institution and to George W. Coleman.

"George W. Coleman, the District Attorney has informed you, was troubled with a strange 'psychological phenomenon.' That is the way the District Attorney put it. Coleman has taken the stand, and he will take the stand again as our witness, summoned by us. Coleman, instead of being described, as the learned District Attorney puts it, as a 'psychological phenomenon,' might be more properly described, so far as

Continued on Page 8, Column 1.

DOVES BOUND TO WIN FROM CUBS TO-DAY

BATTING ORDER.

CHICAGO.	BOSTON.
Evers, 2b.	Collins, l.f.
Sheckard, l.f.	Herzog, 3b.
Schulte, r.f.	Sharpe, 1b.
Luderus, 1b.	Miller, r.f.
Steinfeldt, 3b.	Shean, 2b.
Hofman, c.f.	Beck, c.f.
Tinker, s.s.	Sweeney, s.s.
Kling, c.	Graham, c.
Cole, p.	Curtis, p.

SOUTH END GROUNDS, June 3.—For the third time the Doves went after the Cubs to stop them from cleaning up the series, as they had only one more chance at the husky crowd from the Windy City and the time was late to reverse some of the defeats the Cubs had plastered on while here.

After giving the Cubs a close run in the two games played the fans rather expected that some surprise was in store for the visitors as the home team had displayed constant improvement with no prospect of falling off in their game.

It was tough going to fight such a fine crowd of ball tossers that Chance directed, but as fighters they did not show much above Lake's Doves, peaceful in name but not when the flag went up.

As Cliff Curtis was billed to pitch the outlook was all the better for the Doves, as he had knocked down some hard games and was picked as the one best bet to give the Cubs a mortal wound.

PERU TO WITHDRAW FORCES ON FRONTIER

WASHINGTON, June 3. — Minister Coombs, at Lima, Peru, informed the State Department to-day that Peru has notified the representatives of the mediating powers, United States, Brazil and Argentina, that she will withdraw her forces on the Peruvian-Ecuadoran frontier to-morrow and cease warlike preparations. Ecuador continues silent on the proposition.

HEIKE, SUGAR TRUST DEFENDANT, WITNESS

NEW YORK, June 3.—Charles R. Heike, secretary of the American Sugar Refining Company, took the witness stand this afternoon in his trial before Judge Martin. He flatly denied that he had any part in the alleged conspiracy to defraud the government of customs. Following the outline of his defence my lawyers, he laid the blame for the cheating on the late H. O. Havemeyer.

Going on your vacation soon? If so, don't forget to leave your order for the daily and Sunday American. Mailed to you any place in the United States or Canada at the regular retail rate. We pay the postage.

RED SOX OUT TO GET SECOND FROM BROWNS

BATTING ORDER.

RED SOX.	ST. LOUIS.
Hooper, r.f.	Stone, l.f.
Lord, 3b.	Hartsell, 3b.
Bradley, 1b.	Wallace, s.s.
Speaker, c.f.	Griggs, 2b.
Wagner, s.s.	Newman, 1b.
Gardner, 2b.	Schweitzer, r.f.
Lewis, l.f.	Hoffman, c.f.
Carrigan, c.	Stephens, c.
Wood, p.	Pelty, p.

AMERICAN LEAGUE GROUNDS, St. Louis, June 4.—With one victory in the sack the Red Sox led the way for another triumph over the Browns, and a visiting team never showed more animation to put the clamps on a victim.

Winning that extra inning contest yesterday put the Reds in the right fettle for [illegible] more gore, while O'Connor's crowd [illegible] in the long melee, yet came to the scratch and were ready to [illegible] as they never did before, saying sufficiency.

Manager Donovan had some cripples that worried him, but they were game and coming around in good shape. Wood, the star pitcher, whose hand was hurt, and Cleotte's lame neck were mending nicely and he figured on using them shortly. Meanwhile he had Smith, Collins and Hall to throw into the breach. The Browns after using Bailey didn't see much in the pitching line that could stop the outsiders.

From next Sunday's Boston Sunday American.

I'M A DEMON AT THIS GAME, JEFF, IF YOU WATCH ME YOU MIGHT LEARN TO PLAY YOURSELF SOMETIME

Don't miss Mutt and Jeff playing golf in Sunday's American. Better order your paper in advance.

W. R earst or Roosevelt ☞ See Next Sunday's Boston American

PEACE TALK FROM JAPAN

NEW YORK, June 3.—"The relations between the United States and Japan are of the very best and will continue to be so in spite of the jingoes and other alarmists," said Prince Fushimi, who was the special ambassador of Japan at the funeral of King Edward when he landed here from the Lusitania to-day. "I believe that the United States makes the finest battleships in the world. I have been in many countries and have had a most educational and pleasant time. This is not my first visit here, as I passed through the United States in 1895."

The Prince, who is accompanied by the Princess, will remain here until June 7, sailing from San Francisco June 21, after visiting Philadelphia, Washington, Annapolis, Boston, Niagara Falls and Chicago. He has been travelling two years and a half. The Prince was one of the naval heroes of the Russian-Japanese war.

Business Notice.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

BOSTON AMERICAN

FLAG COUPON

Friday, June 3.

NOTICE! Absolutely Not Good as a HOUSEHOLD PREMIUM COUPON.

The omission of publication on May 30 (Decoration Day) does not affect the sequence of coupons for flags. Simply skip that date in collecting your seven coupons.

TAFT MAY DEDICATE PILGRIM SHAFT

PROVINCETOWN, June 3.—The Pilgrim monument on Town Hill, at the laying of the corner stone of which President Roosevelt made a memorable attack upon corporations, will be dedicated on August 5, the anniversary of the sailing of the Pilgrims from Delft Haven, Holland. It is expected that President Taft will make the trip across Massachusetts Bay from Beverly and attend the dedication.

AUGUST BELMONT HURT AT POLO

NEW YORK, June 3.—August Belmont was thrown from his horse while playing polo at the Meadowbrook Hunt Club. For a time there were rumors that he had been seriously injured, but at his house it was said that he had only been badly shaken up and that he would be about his business as usual in a day or so. At the Meadowbrook Club it was said that he had broken a wrist.

JORDAN WINS IN MILK CASE

The testimony of the several witnesses summoned before the Finance Commission at the final hearing of the charges brought by Dr. Frank B. Gullivan, former chemist of the Board of Health, against Milk Inspector Jordan was decidedly in the defendant's favor.

Inspector Jordan was practically exonerated from collusion with the contractors, as charged. The Finance Commission has closed the public hearings on the matter and is now waiting the report of the accountant, who is going over the records of the milk department, to make their final record.

George Albree, a Concord milk producer, stated that he was unable to secure prosecution of himself when his milk was found to be below the standard required by law. He also stated he believed there has been discrimination by the Board of Health when milk was not sent through certain milk contractors.

His testimony, however, was overshadowed by that of the witnesses that followed.

THREE FIREMAN HURT AT BLAZE

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Battalion Chief James Keliher and two firemen were seriously injured by a falling roof, and another was overcome by smoke while fighting a stubborn blaze in a bay and grain warehouse.

BOSTON AMERICAN

Household Premium Coupon

Friday, June 3.

Name____________________

Address____________________

City__________ State__________

NOTICE—A complete set consists of 30 coupons of consecutive dates. Only one coupon of each date will be accepted in each set.

FITZGERALD'S VIEWS ON LODGE SUCCESSION

More unlikely things might happen than to see the next Senator from Massachusetts a Democrat, but if that is not brought about we shall regard it as a victory if any Republican other than Mr. Lodge is sent to the Senate. Mr. Lodge stands for everything in the Republican party to which Democrats most strongly object and is a positive detriment to the State. His views on the tariff and his views on reciprocity with Canada are an injury to Massachusetts and New England.—Mayor Fitzgerald, in an interview in Washington.

A Want Advt. is often the road to fortune.

ELEVATED WINS $20,000 SUIT

The jury to-day found for the Boston Elevated in the suit brought against the road on behalf of Henry Taffe, eight years old, to recover $20,000 damages at East Cambridge.

The suit was brought because the boy had a foot injured, it is claimed, in a car accident about four years ago.

The case attracted some attention because two jurors yesterday told Judge Fox they had been approached in regard to the case, but had not been influenced. The Court made no remarks to-day when the verdict was returned.

The Cambridge police and District Attorney Higgins are investigating the stories told by the jurors.

ARMY SENDS MINE PLANTER HERE

Coming here to mine the waters near Forts Warren and Strong, which will require a month, the new submarine mine planter, General J. M. Schofield, lies off Commercial wharf. After her work here is completed she will go to New Bedford. The Schofield is one of several steamers built at Camden, N. J., last year for use by the army. During the Winter months she has been engaged planting submarine mines at Tampa, Charleston and Wilmington.

MARRY ME, FRANCES

And I'll buy the ring of the original and only Wilson Bros., who make Australian gold wedding rings in their own factory from $6 to $12; any special ring to order in two hours. Next to big tea kettle, Scollay square. Their only store.

WILSON BROS.

$3 GLASSES for $1
$5 GLASSES for $2

You can get a perfect fit in our first quality lenses for $1; sold elsewhere for $2 and $3. The real WILSON BROS., next to big kettle, Scollay square. This ad. will save you on a spasmodic

ALARM CLOCK 50c
Buy of Us. We Are Agents for ROGERS' SILVERWARE
WALTHAM WATCHES

Satisfaction guaranteed. The best in the world. We employ 10 skilled watch repairers. Only store.

DOUBLE STAMPS FORENOONS—MAIL ORDERS PROMPTLY FILLED

THE BALDWIN DOUBLE SERVICE DRESS

These new style garments have so many good points that they are rapidly taking the place of the old style House Dresses. You actually get the service of two dresses for the price of one. Ask to see our fine assortment. Special for this sale at 1.49 and 1.98

Houghton & Dutton Co.

It pays to pay Cash

NEW ENGLAND'S GREAT CASH HOUSE

THE FAMOUS W. T. "REDUCER" CORSET

will surely reduce your figure. We are sole agents for this wonderful corset in Boston and vicinity. It is positively the only corset at the price that will reduce the figure with certainty and comfort. Actually worth $2.00, for only 1.00

A Bargain Feast for Saturday

OUR GREAT THIRD FLOOR OVERFLOWS WITH MONEY-SAVING BARGAINS

Prices so low that they seem hardly credible. Come early and celebrate with us this record sale.

Corset Special

P. N. Corsets, 69c, new 1910 models, extra long back and hip, two pair hose supporters, every pair branded, and P. N. cork protectors, special at 69c

Odds and Ends, some corset girdles, all sizes, colors are white, pink and blue satin girdles and good length corsets, all in one great lot, at 25c

Petticoat Special

Black Mercerized Petticoats, made of good material, extra full, of good length, deep flounce, three rows of ruffle, a variety of pretty styles to choose from, special at 49c

Short Kimonos, in pretty red wing style, made of muslin, in a splendid assortment of colors and designs, special at 9c

For Men

A Manufacturer's surplus stock of Men's and Young Men's Suits, all-wool blue serge, sacrificed at half price for Saturday only, sizes in Men's 34 to 44, in Youths' sizes 15 to 21, special at.. 7.45

Waists, like cut, made of sheer lawn and crossbar muslin, short sleeves and Dutch collar, a regular 69c value, special at 39c

Colored House Waists, in stripes and fine pin dots in percale and lawn, special at 19c

Black Lawn Waists, tailored styles, with panel embroidery, long sleeves, button front, regular 50c value, special at 39c

House Dresses and Wrappers

—SPECIAL BARGAINS—

Long Kimonos, made of good quality lawn in a variety of pretty floral patterns and daintily finished with scalloped stitched edge. A wonderful bargain at 23c

Two-Piece House Dresses, made of fine percale in light and medium shades; some are slightly imperfect; these garments were made to sell from $1 to $1.50; while they last 69c

SIMPLY MARVELOUS

This Boys' Clothing You Must See To Appreciate

Boys' Knicker Suits

Blue Cheviot, grey and brown mixed Cassimeres, made very stylish with derby back effects, sizes 7 to 17, special at 1.98

Boys' Blue Serge Suits

Boys' Navy Blue Serge Suits, with derby back, pants with taped seams, sizes 7 to 17, some are Norfolk styles, sizes 6 to 10, special at.................. 2.98

Boys' Blue Serge Suits

Strictly all wool, derby or open vent back, pants lined, sizes 8 to 17, special at.. 3.98

Boys' Straw Hats

Special for this sale at

29c, 49c, 98c

Boys' Blue Serge Knicker Special Suits

Our handsome long Coat models for boys, made with full cut, lined knicker pants, sizes 10 to 17, special at......... 4.98

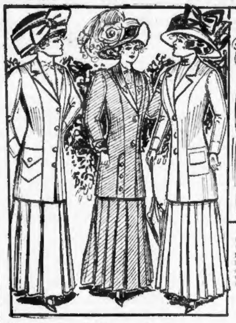
Extra Large Boys' Blue Serge Suits

Knicker Pants, sizes up to 18 years, special at... 7.50

Boys' Wash Suits

Blouse and Russian styles, sizes are 3 to 10, special at

49c, 98c, 1.98



Women's Silk Taffeta Coats, like cut, extra heavy taffeta, embroidered in scroll design and trimmed with silk braid, regular $7.50 value 3.98

Women's and Misses' Tub Suits, like cut, good quality of linon, well tailored, full plaited skirts, regular $4.50 value 1.98

Misses' and Small Women's Tailored Suits, like cut, mostly greys and blacks, only a limited quantity in the lot, value $7.50 3.98

Women's and Misses' Suits, guaranteed pure linen, well tailored, extra full plaited skirts, coat trimmed with smoke pearl buttons, value $8.50 4.98

Women's Linen Dresses, like cut, yoke and skirt embroidered with self colored braid, white and natural colors only, full plaited skirt, $6.50 value 2.98

Women's and Misses' Coats, full length, like cut, in rajahs and pongees, long roll shawl collar, regular $7.50 value 4.98

Women's and and Misses' Suits, like cut, of striped worsteds, other styles in white serge with hair line stripes, also Panamas, satin lined, $15 value 7.98

LADIES' TUB SKIRTS 69c

These Skirts are made of extra good quality of French linon, cut extra full, nobby, plaited styles, all sizes, regular $1.00 values, for only 69c

SILK TAFFETA SKIRTS 4.98

Made of elegant black silk taffeta, in the very newest plaited styles. This is a very dressy garment, well worth $7.50. Special for this sale 4.98

. . . MAIL ORDERS PROMPTLY FILLED . . .

Blue Cheviot Suit

Girls' White Dresses, of good quality muslin, lace trimmed, sizes 6 to 14 years, as cut, regular value $1.50, special at 98c

Girls' Dresses of percale, chambray and gingham, plaids, stripes, checks and solid colors, sizes 6 to 14 years, high and low neck models, regular value $1.50, special at 98c

Girls' Dresses of high grade seasonable materials in all the desirable shades, sizes 6 to 14 years, regular value $2.98, special at 1.98

Girls' Coats, all wool materials, in solid red and navy, black braid trimmed, sizes 6 to 14 years, regular price $1.98, special at 1.45

Girls' Coats, all wool mixtures and pongee models, sizes 6 to 14 years, regular value $3.98, special at 2.98

Children's Trimmed Straw Hats in an unusual large assortment at reduced prices. (Children's Department, 2d floor).

Children's White Skirts, cut full, with hamburg, extra good material, sizes 6 to 14 years, regular value 39c, special at..... 29c

Children's Dresses of gingham plaids, sizes 2 to 5 years, regular price 98c, special at........ 49c

Children's Bloomer Suits, styles for both boys and girls, sizes 2 to 5 years, neat striped patterns of percale and plain colors of linen, regular value 79c, special at 49c

Children's Bloomer Suits of striped gingham and galateen cloth, sizes 2 to 5 years, regular price $1.50, special at 98c

Children's Dresses of chambray, in plain colors, sizes 2 to 5 years, regular value 49c, special at 25c

Sheer Lawn Waists, like cut, with front of all-over eyelet embroidery, button back and front, special at 39c

Sailor Blouses, like cut, made of light weight linon, with navy collar, cuffs and tie, special at 66c

Tailored Waists, like cut, made of India lawn and linon, with embroidered collar and cuffs, other styles in this lot, special at 98c

Underwear Bargains

Mail orders filled.

Ladies' Long White Petticoats, deep flounce, rows of Val lace and insertion and edge, some embroideries, deep under-flounce, all lengths, mail orders filled while the lot lasts 49c

Corset Covers of nainsook and cambric, deep laces and embroideries, yoke back and front, at least fifteen dainty styles to choose from, special at 49c

Ladies' Drawers, elaborately trimmed with deep lace flounce and embroidery, yoke or French band, special at.... 49c

Short Kimonos, of lawn, in neat figures on white grounds, shirred full on yoke, back and front, trimmed with bands of plain colors to match, special at 17c

Petticoat Special

39c Gingham Petticoats 25c, full size, striped deep flounce, extra fine quality, special at 25c

Corset Special

Odds and Ends of all the popular makes, medium length and low bust, two pair hose supporters, deep lace trimmed, sizes 18 to 26, special at...... 45c

Petticoat Special

An odd lot of Black Petticoats, well made, good material, deep flounce, limited quantity, all lengths, special at 25c

Silk Petticoats 1.98

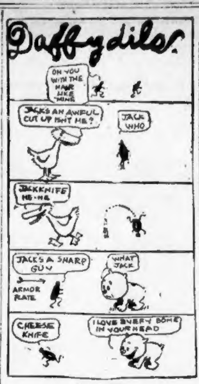
Silk Taffeta Petticoats, all shades, deep flounce and dust flounce, regular $3.49 value, no mail orders 1.98

RANCE THANKS AMERICAN FOR FLOOD FUNDS

NEW YORK, June 3.—French Consul-General Lanel received word of the receipt and acceptance of the Paris flood und raised by the AMERICAN when Paris was inundated. In a letter to the AMERICAN, the consul-general says:

> The minister of foreign affairs of the French Republic has informed me that he is in receipt of my check for 3822 francs and 31 centimes from the AMERICAN for the Paris flood sufferers.
>
> The French government has been deeply touched by this expression of sympathy and has requested me to express to you its most sincere thanks for your generous initiative.
>
> Yours sincerely,
> E. LANEL,
> French Consul-General.

The fund contributed by the readers of the AMERICAN was the first to be started in this country for the relief of the flood sufferers.



Daffydils.
OH YOU WITH THE HAIR LIKE MINE
JACK'S AN AWFUL CUT UP ISN'T HE?
JACK WHO
JACKKNIFE HE-HE JACK'S A SHARP GUY
ARMOR PLATE
WHAT JACK
CHEESE KNIFE
I LOVE EVERY BONE IN YOUR HEAD

By TAD.

Nothing succeeds like circulation. Advertise in the AMERICAN.

TO-DAY'S CABLE NEWS

Up to Midnight, London Time

Anarchists Stone a German Prince.

BERLIN—Prince Julius of Lippe was stoned and seriously injured by a group of Italian Anarchists, while he was driving with his brother, Prince Leopold, near Detmold, the capital of Leopold's principality, to-day. Prince Leopold escaped uninjured. The Anarchists were arrested.

Vanderbilt Swindled at Derby.

LONDON—In the smoking rooms of the West End hotels a crowd of irate Americans are confessing to having been swindled at the Derby by "welching" bookmakers. Chief among those swindled was A. G. Vanderbilt, whose "bookie" ran away with his money after the last race, on which most of the losses occurred.

King George Field Marshal.

LONDON—King George, who at the time of his father's death held ranks in the British army and navy inferior to several of his subjects and to the Kaiser, Czar and Emperor Francis Joseph, has assumed the highest rank in both branches of the service, making himself a Field Marshal and Admiral of the Fleet.

New Job for Lewis Pruger.

LONDON—Lewis Pruger, formerly manager of the Savoy Hotel here, who went to New York to run the Cafe de l'Opera, has been appointed house manager of the Royal Automobile Club, which will move into its magnificent new premises in Pall Mall about the end of the year.

Explorers Find Guinea Pygmies.

LONDON—The Times announces that the British scientific expedition to explore the Great Snow mountains in Dutch New Guinea discovered at an elevation of 2,000 feet a tribe of pygmy people whose average height is about four feet three inches.

Weyler's Memoirs Published.

MADRID—The first volume of General Weyler's long-promised memoirs has been published. The book is entitled "My Rule in Cuba, and the Captain-General is expected to make important revelations.

Prize Aviator Zosily Killed.

BUDAPEST—Zosily, who won a big aviation prize Wednesday, was killed while attempting another flight yesterday. His aeroplane was smashed.

No Salon Medal for Painting.

PARIS—The jury of the French Salon has awarded the grand medal for sculpture to M. Larche. No medal is awarded this year for painting.

Bean Thrower in Insane Asylum.

BERLIN—Abraham Elerweiss, who threw a can of beans at the Crown Prince, has been placed in an insane asylum at Dalldorf.

CONCESSION TO JEWS GRANTED BY RUSSIA

ST. PETERSBURG, June 3.—Concessions to the Jews in the Caucasus were announced to-day. Those actually in need of the medicinal baths in the district will be allowed to go to the health resorts this Summer, in spite of the general expulsion.

Mutt and Jeff Play Golf

See next Sunday's great Boston Sunday American.

EAST BOSTON MAN IS RAIL VICTIM

Word has reached here that George W. Thompson of East Boston was instantly killed in Rochester, N. Y., by a train. He was born in this city, living here until a few years ago.

MAN DIES IN FLAMES.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., June 3.—One man was burned to death and several injured when the home of Amzi Conkling was destroyed by fire early to-day. Fred Teets was suffocated in his room on the second floor while asleep and burned to a crisp. The injured are Mrs. Conkling, her two children and three firemen.

BALDWIN IS TALKED OF FOR GOVERNOR

NEW HAVEN, Ct., June 3.—Leading Democrats from all over the State met in conference here and decided to nominate ex-Chief Justice Simeon E. Baldwin for Governor. Chairman Charles W. Comstock spoke in favor of Judge Baldwin, who retired a few months ago on account of the age limit. Henry Bishop of Bridgeport, whose father was president of the New Haven road, is the only other candidate.

STRIKE OF 13,000 MINERS IS BROKEN

WILKESBARRE, June 3.—The first break in the strike of the 13,000 mine workers in this vicinity occurred to-day when 500 men returned to work at the Lackawanna colliery of the Temple Coal & Iron Company. At other mines strikers' pickets drove back men who wanted to go to work. The Penn Coal Company to-day swore in a force of special deputies to protect workmen.

TORONTO PARTY TO VISIT STATE FARM

TORONTO, Ont., June 3.—Toronto has taken up the question of jail reform in earnest, with particular reference to the treatment of inebriates.

The special committee appointed to investigate the conditions prevailing at Toronto jail will send a deputation to inspect the Boston jail farm at Bridgewater, Mass., to gain information on the working of the system there, so that a proper and hu-

GARDNER BACK TO WATCH POSTAL BILL

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Representative A. P. Gardner of Massachusetts, who has been at his home in Hamilton for some time on account of ill health, has returned to Washington. It was said at his office that he came to vote on the postal savings bank bill which will come up in the House next week.

R.H. WHITE CO.

SATURDAY in WHITE'S BARGAIN BASEMENT

MOST REMARKABLE MILLINERY VALUES

Keep our Bargain Basement Millinery Department crowded all the time.

Sample Ready-to-Wear Hats—All hand made on wire frames from expensive silk and peroxyline braids. Some trimmed with flowers others with wings, etc. Also a lot of small and medium black shapes of peroxyline braids, especially suitable for matrons. Values up to $4.98, at 98c

Children's Straw Shapes—Clean fresh goods in a dozen different shapes, mostly mushrooms in all colors and a variety of straws. We don't attempt to state their value, as they are practically given away at 19c

Beautiful French Flowers—Handsome roses in all colors. Large single or three in a bunch with foliage. Variety of styles of daisies for children's hats; natural geraniums and many other styles of flowers—also Rose Foliage Sprays, 24 leaves to spray. Values up to 75c, at...................... 9c

Malines—Suitable for many purposes, especially desirable for large hat bows at present so stylish; black, white and all desirable colors. Worth 19c and 25c. Per yard... 5c

Children's Parasols

A treat for the little ones; bring them in and let them select their own. An endless variety of dainty styles, plain colors, ruffled, tucked, with enameled handles to match.

Values Up to 79c, at 39c

Do you know we have a CANDY DEPARTMENT in our BARGAIN BASEMENT? All candies fresh daily.

What's this going to be?

Watch it Grow

Something New—and Good. Also—Something FREE. Nothing to pay. And delicious—Well! It'll just make your mouth water.

$5.00 Reward for each of the first two correct drawings of complete Symbol of this well known trade mark (as it will appear in this space next week) together with brief description and points of merit of article represented. Watch it grow—$1.00 each for the next fifty correct drawings received before Saturday, June 11, 1910, at 6 p.m., at Room 400, 378 Wabash Avenue, Chicago.

That Sun-Proof Serge Suit at $15

THERE has never been known such a thing as GUARANTEED Serge—one that could be absolutely warranted not to fade under any circumstances, or wrinkle, or pucker, or sag, or one that would not readily "shine."

But a serge that is proof against these common traits of serge has been perfected and it will be known as "SUN-PROOF" Serge.

"That Sun-Proof Serge Suit at $15" is made of ALL-AUSTRALIAN wool—a very fine yarn woven double and twisted both ways, that gives the fabric that soft, pliable finish which does not shine like others, tailors magnificently and dyes those deep, clear marine shades that are so cool-looking.

"Sun-Proof" Serge is dyed in pure indigo and cold-water shrunk. The front of the coat is re-inforced on a needle-moulded basis of shrunken linen canvas so that it will not sag or break, and the lapel and edge of coat is carefully taped so that it will not pucker or wrinkle.

We guarantee "That Sun-Proof Serge Suit at $15" to this extent: If it does not prove perfectly satisfactory in every respect your money will be refunded.

You can search the city over and you won't find a Serge Suit at $15 anywhere that will begin to compare with "That Sun-Proof Serge Suit at $15," nor will you find any in the $20 or $25 class that are given the same guarantee that we give with this Suit.

Before you buy, see "That Sun-Proof Serge Suit at $15."

Sale of $10 Young Men's Suits

This collection of suits offers a choice variety of finely tailored spring suits in the newest grays, olives, stone and taupe shades of the season—the kind that young men like so well. Broad, athletic shoulders, full chested effect; pants cut peg style with cuff bottom. Were $10 up to now; sale price $7.50. 7.50

Boys' $6.00 Knicker Suits

Here are 257 Fancy Mix Cassimere and Tweeds; all wool fabrics, cut in latest style, that we will close out this week at $3.95; every one of these suits is a bona fide $6.00 value; don't miss this great offer 3.95

Boys' $7.50 Confirmation Suits

For Confirmation and Graduation, in 16-oz. blue serge, cut Derby back or centre vent; coats have broad shoulders; made extra long; special for this occasion; sold everywhere at $7.50. Sale price 4.95

$1.50 Cooper's Union Suits

Genuine "Cooper's" Union Suits at less than wholesale cost; 86 doz. of the regular $1.50 kind; short sleeves in regulars and stouts; sizes to 50; made of highest grade Sea Island balbriggan yarn; special this week only 95c

29c Hose

Don't fail to take advantage of this great bargain. Whisper Lisle Hose, 29c quality; every pair guaranteed stainless and fast color; 24 colors; in newest Summer shadings. 3 for 50c 17c

Athletic Shirts
Sleeveless and quarter sleeves, in black & white 39c

Occupies An Entire Block
VORENBERG'S
Washington, Hanover and Elm Streets

$3 & $4 Sample Straw Hats
Sennits, Splits, Mackinaws and Milans $1.95

THREE COUPLES ARE MARRIED BY 'DOCK PARSON'

Three blushing young women, representatives of England, Scotland and Ireland, took their turn in standing before the "Dock parson," James A. Burns, in the waiting room of the immigration station to-day, and were married to the men whom they had traveled over 3,000 miles of sea to wed.

Sarah Quinn of Armagh County, Ireland, became the wife of John Prentice, who lives at the Hotel Eliot in this city; John Cookson, a Lowell mill operative, claimed Esther Butterworth of Lancashire, England, as his bride, and Annie Cameron, a Scotch lassie from Dundee, received congratulations following the words that made her Mrs. Andrew Fraser, her husband belonging in Franklin, N. H., where he maintains a farm.

The participants acted as witnesses for one another and were given all kinds of good wishes by the assembled immigrants. The young women arrived on the Ivernia yesterday, and were compelled to remain at the station over night, as their prospective husbands had failed to provide themselves with the proper documents when they called to claim them. After it was all over, carriages were taken, and they departed amid the cheers of the immigrants who remained.

JEWS TO HAVE NATIONAL FLAG

NEW YORK, June 3.—"The Jews are going to have a flag of their own within five years. I believe that they will eventually take over Palestine as a nation. They are progressing wonderfully all over the world, and are a great people."

This statement was made by the Rev. C. T. Russell of the Brooklyn Tabernacle, who arrived to-day on the steamship Lusitania from Europe, where he has been studying religious questions.

While abroad he held two evangelistic services in Albert Hall, London, and said that there were more than 8,000 persons at each service.

PRESIDENT TAFT'S IDEAS ON MARRIAGE

The companionship of married life is the chief charm and reason for its being, so far as it relates to the two persons concerned. The enjoyment of the home with children and the training of them are, of course, among the most important duties and pleasures of married life, and it certainly does not detract from the power of a woman to make a good companion or to teach and train her children up to high ideals that she should have the advantage of the higher education.—President Taft to the girl graduates at Bryn Mawr.

STRIKE PROTEST ON FERRYBOAT

The employment of non-union machinists, some of whom, it is claimed by labor men, are not citizens of the country, in effecting repairs on the City of Boston ferryboat Noddle Island at the Atlantic Works in East Boston, has aroused members of the Machinists' Union, 600 of whom are still on strike.

This is to-day's leading feature of the present difficulty involving several hundred men in Greater Boston, embracing besides the machinists, some 50 carpenters and about 225 building laborers, who yet remain out awaiting settlement of their troubles.

Frank Jennings, business agent of the Machinists' Union, stated to-day that he intended to bring the ferryboat matter before the Boston Central Labor Union at its meeting on Sunday.

The Atlantic Works, where the ferryboat is being overhauled, is numbered among the twelve shops which have been struck.

EDNA GOODRICH, WIFE NO. 4, CRIES ENOUGH AND LEAVES GOODWIN

PARIS, June 3.—Nat Goodwin, the actor, and his wife, who was Edna Goodrich, an actress, have mutually agreed to separate, according to their friends here.

Mrs. Goodwin who has just come to Paris from Carlsbad, announced to-day that she was never going to return to the constant worries of married life. Her friends say the separation is due to the incompatibility of the natures of the beautiful young woman and her much wedded husband. But they declare she added: "I have no intention of bringing any proceedings in divorce against Nat unless he shows some desire to try matrimony once again with some one else."

There is always the possibility, Mrs. Goodrich's friends point out, that Nat, hoping to find the soul mate his spirit craves (this will be soul mate No. 5) may wish for freedom to make another attempt.

Was Married Four Times.

They separated on the Pacific Coast several weeks ago, and Mrs. Goodwin and her mother made a hurried departure for Europe on the Mauretania as soon as they reached New York. Mrs. Goodwin, according to the "inside" gossip of theatredom, is the luckiest of Nat Goodwin's wives, for she is financially "fixed" on Nat's payroll, no matter what happens. This is the situation, quoting a theatrical manager who has always been one of the comedian's closest personal friends.

"You see, Nat had been married three times before he met Edna Goodrich—Eliza Wetherby, Nella Baker Pease and Maxine Elliott having been Miss Goodrich's predecessors to the title. Nat's reputation as a man of matrimony—and alimony—is well established. A census taker visited him recently, you know, and asked:

"'Mr. Goodwin, are you single, married or divorced?'

"'Yes,' answered Nat."

Anyhow, Edna Goodrich, being a wise young woman, didn't answer in the affirmative when Nat bade her become Mrs. Goodwin No. 4. She told him that she would first have to have some assurance that he would "stick"—that the mere title of Mrs. Goodwin wouldn't be of much value should this marriage turn out like all the rest.

"Well, Nan was pretty well off at the time. He had made money out of some mining ventures in the West as well as in his profession, and he said: 'Edna, I have about $400,000 worth of property. I will sign an agreement that you and I shall share this income, half and half, as long as we live, no matter what happens.'

Worth $2,500,000.

"They did that. They were married, as everyone remembers, in 1908. The marriage lasted not quite as long as Nat's marriages usually do, and a few weeks ago the new wife and her mother left Nat on the coast and went to Europe. But Mrs. Goodwin now, as always, is drawing down her fifty per cent. of the income. And very likely she is smiling and enjoying herself."

This part of the story was confirmed by Attorney Roth, who represents the actor. Only Mr. Roth made the sum larger. "It wasn't $400,000 that Nat shared up with his wife; it was $2,500,000. Yes, Edna is still receiving half of the income."

The lawyer, however, denied that any separation existed or any legal action was in prospect.

"There is no trouble," he said. "Mrs. Goodwin and her mother went abroad for the younger woman's health, and Mr. Goodwin is now on the high seas, headed for Carlsbad to join them."

Those close to Mr. Goodwin, despite this, said they believed Mr. Roth perhaps was misinformed. They were sure "Nat" was right here in town. But wherever he is, he probably isn't worrying about any divorce proceedings. He is used to them. One of the best beloved professional witticisms used to be:

"Why do men marry Lillian Russell?"

But that has within the past few years given way to this:

"Why do women marry Nat Goodwin?"

Now is Fifty-three Years Old.

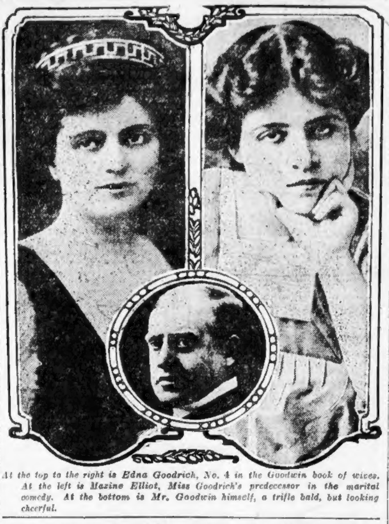
Nat (Nathaniel Carl, to give him his full list of prefixes) has passed out of his giddy boyhood, being now fifty-three years old. He was born in Boston and made his first hit impersonating well-known public men at private entertainments. He has done both very light comedy and very serious work—some of his most familiar parts having been in "Lend Me Five Shillings," "The Hunchback," "The Merchant of Venice," "The Gilded Fool," "In Mizzoura," "Nathan Hale," "The Cowboy and the Lady," "When We Were Twenty-one" and "The Nominee."

He married first Elizabeth Weatherbee, an English actress, who died in 1887. In 1888 he wedded Nella Baker Pease, who divorced him three years later. Then came—after a bachelor stretch of seven years—Maxine Elliott, the noted beauty, who became Mrs. Goodwin No. 3 in 1898. That marriage lasted ten years, the divorce coming in 1908. This time Nat did not have so long an interval between matrimonies. He wedded Miss Goodrich that same year.

She was one of the original "Florodora" Sextet girls, but she wasn't very noted for histrionic ability until she joined Goodwin's company and left the musical stage. Then she got all she wanted of notoriety during the first trial of Harry Thaw for killing Stanford White.

Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, in the dramatic story of her life, said it was Edna Goodrich who was responsible for her early meetings with White, and who invited her to some of White's so-called Bacchanalian dinner parties. All of this Miss Goodrich denied, although she was not called to the witness stand.

Two Mrs. Nat Goodwins and the Mutual Husband



At the top to the right is Edna Goodrich, No. 4 in the Goodwin book of wives. At the left is Maxine Elliot, Miss Goodrich's predecessor in the marital comedy. At the bottom is Mr. Goodwin himself, a trifle bald, but looking cheerful.

PARK ROW IS SINKING; FIVE MEN BURIED

NEW YORK, June 3.—Park Row, one of New York's most noted thoroughfares, at the point where pedestrian traffic is heaviest in New York, apparently is sinking as the result of a tremendous cave-in in the foundation of the new $8,000,000 municipal building in which five workmen were buried alive to-day. Three were dug out an hour later. They were still alive. The other two could not be reached and they are believed to be buried under some thousands of tons of earth and rock.

Within half an hour of the cave-in Park Row began to sag from the west side to the centre. The depression was fully four inches and slowly deepened.

Pedestrians and vehicles were immediately ordered off the street, traffic was stopped on the Third avenue elevated road, and steps were taken to brace the massive iron elevated structure, which began to sag.

The accident occurred when the morning crowds were pouring into the Row over the bridge, from Brooklyn, the East Side and the Bronx.

Thousands who heard the terrific rumble with which the earth tore away and partly filled the immense excavation, were thrown into a panic that taxed the resources of the police reserves who were hurriedly rushed to the scene.

The excavation in which the cave-in occurred covered an irregular area of 70,000 square feet in the two blocks bounded by Tryon row and Centre street, Duane street and Park row. The depth is from 35 to 40 feet with precipitous sides.

OLDEST PRIEST SAYS BROTHER'S REQUIEM

At the funeral in Beverly of John Field, aged eighty-seven, father of Thomas Field, an officer of the Boston Building Trades Council, the requiem service was said by the Rev. Thomas Field, aged eighty-four, of the order of St. Augustine, Philadelphia. The venerable priest was a brother of the deceased. They were both born in Kanturk, in the County of Cork, Ireland. Despite his great age, Father Field made the journey from Philadelphia to Beverly to say his brother's funeral mass. He is said to be the oldest Catholic priest in America.

Julia Ward Howe Says:

The legitimate claims of home and family are never to be neglected or postponed.

Read Mrs. Howe's message to American women, written expressly for the BOSTON SUNDAY AMERICAN on her ninety-first birthday. You will find it only in next Sunday's BOSTON SUNDAY AMERICAN.

NEW CLEW IS FOUND TO SLAYER SUSPECT

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 3.—The entire State is being searched for any trace of Joseph Wendling, former janitor of St. John's Church, who is wanted in connection with the murder of Alma Kellner. A man answering his description appeared at Horse Cave last week, secured a place as cook at the hotel there and worked two days. During that time he watched the papers closely and then suddenly disappeared. He was a Frenchman and said he had served in the French army.

FORT DEARBORN SITE IN CHICAGO SOLD

CHICAGO, June 3.—Fort Dearborn—or rather the site whereon it stood during the historic massacre by the Indians in 1812, has been sold by the W. M. Hoyt Company to Palmer C. Goble. The present building and tablet are one of the most familiar landmarks of Chicago. The tablet was presented by Mr. Hoyt in 1880. The building was erected in 1871-73, right on the ashes of the old fort.

Nothing succeeds like circulation. Advertise in the AMERICAN.

EXPOSE PLOT, ORDERS DENEEN

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 3.—Further interest has been added to the legislative corruption scandal in Illinois, which involves the right of William Lorimer to his seat in the United States Senate, by a statement signed by Governor Deneen, wherein he declares for a thorough investigation. Governor Deneen held a lengthy conference with State Attorney Burke and to-day a statement is published over the signature of the Governor wherein Mr. Burke is assured of all possible aid by State officials.

"The whole nefarious plot should be exposed," said the Governor. "The crime of bribery is one of the most insidious and dangerous. It makes a farce of parties and of elections."

One glint of humor is seen in the proceedings. It has been learned definitely that the "treasurer" of the corporation "jack pot" did not divide the spoils evenly and that he kept for himself more than the lion's share.

Nothing succeeds like circulation. Advertise in the AMERICAN.

MEYER URGES NAVY "SPIRIT"

ANNAPOLIS, June 3.—Following close on the recent plea of Assistant Secretary Winthrop for a navy that would keep the United States to the forefront as a sea power, Secretary Meyer, in his address to the graduating class of the United States Naval Academy to-day urged that the military spirit of the men who direct the battleships be kept at the highest point. Continuing, he said: "Such exhibitions as the voyage of the Oregon from San Francisco to Cuba, going at once into battle without any breakdown in its machinery, and likewise the late trip of the fleet around the world without an accident and on schedule time, speaks volumes for our naval officers, both as to the staunchness of ship construction and the ability of the engineer to maintain the machinery in a state of perfection."

MANILA HERO DEAD.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Another naval officer who held a responsible position in the battle of Manila Bay, Captain John A. Norris, is dead at Annapolis. Captain Norris was the executive officer of the cruiser Boston in that famous sea fight.

Filene's "Walk Through Every Day" Filene's
Wm FILENES SONS Co.
Tunnel Bargain Basement
Entrance from Washington and Winter streets and direct from Tunnel trains.

How Much Can YOU Save From YOUR Dress Bill?

The second of a series of illustrations of what it usually costs a woman to dress—and how much can be saved by taking advantage of the Tunnel Bargain Basement opportunities. (Actual instances on sale to-morrow!)

Example 2—Watch for other examples

A Summer Outfit:

Regular Price		Tunnel Bargain Basement Price
5.95	White Lingerie Dresses	3.95
16.50	Light weight Coats	10.95
45c	Corset Covers	29c
29c	Drawers	19c
1.50	White Skirts	1.09
1.50	Princess Corsets	95c
3.00	White Lingerie Waists	1.95
50c	Light Colored Stockings	25c

29.69 ← Actual Saving—10.07 → 19.62

Saturday!

5.95 Lingerie Dresses—Bodice and sleeves trimmed with open and blind embroidery; deep flounce with open embroidery trimming. 3.95

15.00 to 18.00 White Lingerie Dresses—Many sample and odd dresses included, hardly any two alike, so that we cannot describe them here. ALL at 9.85

22.50 to 29.50 White Lingerie Dresses—About 40 dresses, slightly soiled, mostly in size 36; these dresses are show-room samples. 14.75

A Sale of Heavy White Linon Skirts

In 2 Styles—One like illustration, with all button front; the other made with 11 gores, plaited back and front. 1.50 values. 71c

Hundreds of Other Lots Not Advertised—Saturday

This Superb Refrigerator At Factory Price

You simply cannot afford to buy a refrigerator until you have seen the Wickes Refrigerator. It's the ONE BIG refrigerator value of the season. You buy the Wickes Refrigerator direct from the factory at actual factory prices. You save all dealers', jobbers' and department store profits.

Wickes Refrigerator embodies the most advanced principles. No other refrigerator so beautiful in design. None so perfect in operation. Absolutely sanitary.

Wickes Refrigerator

Dont fail to see our complete line of refrigerators. A refrigerator for every purpose, at every price. Don't wait for the hot weather. Come in to-day. Phone or write for catalogue and all particulars.

THE BRUNSWICK-BALKE-COLLENDER CO.
86 Washington Street, Boston, Mass.

Week-End Millinery Sale

For the benefit of thousands of women shoppers, who find it impossible to get to our store on Mondays or Tuesdays, we have decided to inaugurate a series of Week-End Sales. There is no reason why Monday should be a bargain day any more than Friday. The sale for today and tomorrow will be devoted to millinery. We want to see you in our store—to get acquainted. The millinery department is right on the street floor. If you call today or tomorrow, you will never need another invitation.

UNTRIMMED HATS

Just for this Week-End Sale—Two big lots of untrimmed hats of every seasonable shape—large or medium—worth at wholesale anywhere from $1.50 to $2.50.

Lot No. 1 consists of Chips and Jap Braid Shapes, in an endless variety of skilled hat-making designs. These hats have been very popular and possess every ear-mark of quality and style. Have sold this season at $1.50....Your choice, THIS SALE 25c

Lot No. 2 is a choice assortment of Black Chip Shapes—some large—some medium—but every hat a fine piece of millinery shaping. Have sold for the summer season at $2.00 and $2.50....Your choice, THIS SALE 50c

TRIMMED HATS

All those beautiful Trimmed Hats that attracted so much favorable comment in this department, but which still remain unplaced, must be sold at once. They have been held by us as worth $10.00 and $12.00, but the season is advancing, and besides that we wish to make this first End-Week Sale a most unusual event. Therefore, any one of these hats that pleases you....THIS SALE 2.00

50 dozen Sailors—Rough straw, with black, white or burnt ribbon bands—very natty—were $1.00, $1.50, $2.00....Choice, THIS SALE 50c

FLOWERS

About 1,000 dozen of beautiful French Flowers—comprising clusters of roses, daisies, lilacs, violets, maple leaves, foliage and every natural effect you can imagine. Many milliners have bought these goods at 50c and 75c....Choice, per bunch, THIS SALE 15c

NOTE—This advertisement will not appear tomorrow, but this first Week-End Sale is for today and tomorrow.

J. G. SMALL COMPANY
The Smart Style Shop
523 and 525 Washington Street

MONEY CHEERFULLY REFUNDED

HARRISON'S STORE IS WELL KNOWN FOR UNDERSELLING ALL OTHER STORES AT ALL TIMES

Satisfaction Guaranteed or Your Money Cheerfully Refunded

HARRISON'S
662 672 WASHINGTON ST.
COR. BEACH

See the New Straw Hats Big Bargains at $1.50 & $2

EXTRA! Summer Clothing AT LESS THAN HALF PRICE!

WHAT need of saying more! Isn't it a well-known fact that Brown, Lewis Co.'s garments are celebrated the country over for their clever styles, choice fabrics, fine tailoring and immense values, even at regular prices. Now think what it means to buy such famous clothes at a positive saving of more than 50%! The Brown, Lewis Co.'s name is a guarantee, such as no other make ever surpasses!

You Can Buy a Suit of Clothes in this Sale at Less Than End-of-Summer Prices! Ask to see the Beautiful Serges, in Plain and Fancy Effects!

Brown, Lewis Co.'s $10 SUMMER SUITS at $4.85
Brown, Lewis Co.'s $12 SUMMER SUITS at $6.00
Brown, Lewis Co.'s $16 SUMMER SUITS at $7.50
Brown, Lewis Co.'s $18 SUMMER SUITS at $8.50
Brown, Lewis Co.'s $20 SUMMER SUITS at $10.00
Brown, Lewis Co.'s $25 SUMMER SUITS at $12.50
Brown, Lewis Co.'s $30 SUMMER SUITS at $15.00

EXTRA! Blue Serges
Guaranteed All Wool and Fast Color
We are able to offer the best value in Blue Serge Suits in the city of Boston. Compare these 500 choice suits with any at double the price. Choice, $10.00

HARRISON'S STORE IS WELL KNOWN FOR UNDERSELLING ALL OTHER STORES AT ALL TIMES

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED

BANISH CATS ADVISES JUDGE

WORCESTER, May 3.—After a three days' hearing in the petition for separate support of Rachel S. W. vs. Robert A. Pierce, a Worcester dentist, Judge F. H. Chamberlain, in the Probate Court, suggested that the parties try to live together again. He also suggested that the dentist pay a certain sum for clothing for his wife and other things, and that she give up her cats, of which the husband complained. The judge said there ought to be a reconciliation.

The wife charged cruelty, which the husband denied. Dr. Pierce was cross-examined by John B. Scott, counsel for the wife, and said that his wife was in the habit of fondling her pet cat at the dinner table. He also said he objected to his wife doing dressmaking in his office, although she owned a part of the dental business. He said he never told her at their Grafton house to get a man to put bricks in the cellar, and if she couldn't get one to put them in herself. He denied she sifted nine barrels of ashes a day, but admitted she might have chopped some wood.

GRAFTERS FLEE JURY REPORT

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., June 3.—The graft probe into the financial affairs of this county, which were commenced about two years ago by the State Comptroller's office, came to a surprising close when the special grand jury in connection with the extraordinary term of the Supreme Court called by Governor Hughes, made its final report and was discharged. Although over fifty indictments were placed against twenty-seven persons, but sixteen have been arrested to-day.

All apprehended thus far are interested in county affairs or are business men, and when arraigned before Justice Van Kirk, entered pleas of not guilty and were released on bail of from $500 to $2,000.

As soon as the report reached the streets that bench warrants had been issued by Justice Van Kirk for the arrest of the alleged grafters and that Sheriff Hathaway was scouring the county with them, it is learned that several persons expecting arrest suddenly left for parts unknown.

BOOMER SAYS SOUTH BOSTON BEST KNOWN OUTSIDE BIG CITY

We ought to have the testimony of some of the "big" men, the men of affairs, in this "Boom South Boston" movement.

Are they "too busy?"

"Too busy" to give an hour to the hopes and aspirations and needs of an important section of Boston, having a population of 70,000 people?

One of the big men of financial Boston said yesterday—but didn't have time to write:

"South Boston is appreciated far better by people from out of town than by Bostonians, as a class. I don't know why this is so, but its truth will hardly be denied. I have relatives in New York who come to Boston every Summer. The favorite resort of my sister-in-law, when she wants to take the children out for a day, or an afternoon, is City Point. She says there is no other beautiful Summer place quite like it; so accessible, and yet so free from every sort of annoyance.

"I have heard things of the same sort from the young people in my office, who say they go to the concerts over there for much the same reason. It might not be a bad plan to run 'Getting Acquainted' excursions to South Boston from the city proper."

Do You Know the Place?

What testimony have you to offer, in the Boom South Boston symposium? Do YOU know South Boston? Like the place? How would you go about booming it?

For a few days longer the BOSTON AMERICAN will continue to ask the question:

How would you Boom South Boston?

One hundred dollars in gold is offered by this newspaper for answers to this question. These prizes are really a small portion of the reward that may be gained, however, by those who meet the problem with knowledge and imagination and foresight. Such a one may win the everlasting praise of a fine people and a splendid community.

Fifty dollars will be paid for the suggestion deemed best by the Boom South Boston Committee, of which Mayor Fitzgerald is chairman, twenty dollars for the answer deemed second best, ten dollars for the third best, and five dollars for each of the four next in merit.

How would you Boom South Boston?

Supply Modern Homes.

Every mail brings many answers to the question. Most of them are good. Many of them should be helpful. Mrs. M. A. Horigan of No. 11 Buttonwood street, Dorchester, writes to-day.

Gentlemen:

I would offer the following suggestions to "Boom South Boston":

Organize a competent Board, to be composed of representative men of South Boston, for the purpose of making and considering suggestions relative to a "Bigger, Better and Busier" South Boston

The splendid natural advantages of South Boston for manufacturing, its facilities for shipping, both by boat and by rail, should be advertised.

Additional car lines should run to South Boston, as follows: Through Southampton street, from Albany street to Andrews square, thereby bringing that section of South Boston fifteen minutes closer to the South End of the city.

Over L street bridge to City Point, eliminating fifteen minutes from the present running time, and doing away with overcrowding.

A tunnel should be built from the South Station to Dorchester, with stations in South Boston at Dorchester avenue and Broadway, and at Andrews square.

Old Colony avenue should be extended from Dorchester street to Columbia road. The old houses abutting on Old Colony avenue should be raised, and houses of modern design built in their places.

The property bounded by Old Colony avenue, D street and Dorchester avenue contains at the present time a bone-rendering plant and numerous old-fashioned and dilapidated buildings. These should give way to modern homes.

With these improvements as a starter, and with the Board acting on suggestions as they come up, South Boston should boom.

The exodus from South Boston (especially the lower end, or part nearest the City) was caused by the lack of modern homes. If these improvements were made, South Boston would get back a great number of its former residents.

Respectfully submitted,
(Signed) MRS. M. A. HORIGAN.

SEVENTY THOUSAND PEOPLE would appreciate a suggestion. How would you BOOM SOUTH BOSTON To-day's the day to write to "Boom South Boston," Care of Boston American.

Make it the Landing Port.

Mr. C. R. Lawrence of No. 6 Greenville street, Roxbury, is another who offers suggestions to-day. Says Mr. Lowrence:

How to Boom South Boston:

Make the Commonwealth Docks at South Boston the terminus of the Boston & Albany Railroad as well as the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad.

Petition the United States Government to see that through rates and service between the West and the coast are not differentiated in favor of New York and other ports.

Dredge from the docks to the main channel of the harbor, so that vessels of the deepest draft may dock here.

Make Castle Island a beautiful landing and embarking place for ocean tourists.

Offer special inducements to the fastest ocean lines to use the docks at South Boston. Boston is nearer than New York to Europe by at least half a day. In ocean travel this counts. With this same steamer leaving Boston or New York, not one passenger in a thousand would choose sailing from New York in preference to Boston.

Let local capital, in making investments, buy the stocks and bonds of the Boston & Albany and the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroads that they may have something to say in the affairs of those companies, so vitally related to the interests of the community.

Improve the approaches to South Boston.

Run a loop of the Elevated system from Castle street branch over Broadway and back over Dorchester street, conecting with the main line at Dudley street.

(Signed) C. R. LAWRENCE.

Now, the question is, how would YOU Boom South Boston? Write to-day—time is fleeting—to "Boom South Boston," care of the BOSTON AMERICAN.

CITES BOSTON HATE AS DIVORCE CAUSE

The preference shown by Mrs. Mary McCullough Pettinger for New York as a place of residence, rather than Boston, has led to divorce proceedings by her husband, Lee Ross Pittinger, a well known Brookline dentist.

The husband maintains that his wife became disgusted with life in Boston, insisting on going to New York to live, and charges desertion in the papers filed.

MRS. ISELIN'S GIFT ARRIVES AT BROWN

PROVIDENCE, June 3.—The wrought metal gates given as a memorial to the late William Goddard to Brown University by his daughter, Mrs. C. Oliver Iselin of New York, have arrived from Italy. They were the last work of the famous Italian artist, Michellucci.

Julia Ward Howe Says:

I myself did not learn Greek till I was fifty years old, so let no girl think that it is too late for her to begin this study.

Read Mrs. Howe's message to American women, written expressly for the BOSTON SUNDAY AMERICAN on her ninety-first birthday. You will find it only in next Sunday's BOSTON SUNDAY AMERICAN.

TRAINMEN INITIATE THIRTY ON SUNDAY

Thirty candidates are to be initiated as members of Tri-Mountain Lodge, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, in Odd Fellows' Hall, Allston, Sunday afternoon. A full report on the new wage scale and working conditions on the Boston & Albany system will be made.

PONY COSTLY IF BOUGHT BY POUND

DERRY, N. H., June 3.—John W. Moore, a well-to-do farmer, has just purchased a Shetland pony, for which he paid a greater price per pound than was ever before paid for a piece of horseflesh, so far as is known. The pony weighs 130 pounds and Moore paid $2,000.

COST $1 TO GET BACK TWO CENTS

The conscience of some Buffalo person who had used a cancelled two-cent stamp caused him to send two cents in stamps to the Post Office Department. The red tape necessary to add the amount to the conscience fund cost the Government about $1.

Our June Clearance Sale

Of Seasonable Clothing

Presents the greatest bargain opportunities of the year. We select a few items that will convey to a small degree a conception of the extraordinary values offered at this sale. Our offerings no person can resist unless they are bargain proof.

"A Charge Account"

—We open accounts with all trustworthy pople. It enables them to have such clothing as they and their families need when they need it, to be paid for in easy partial payments as they earn the money. If you are honest we will trust you. THAT'S ALL.

Ladies' Suits
New stylish Spring Suits, in fancy serge and panama. All colors. Sale price 9.90

Men's Suits
Well made stylish Spring Suits in cassimeres and fancy suitings. Fit and quality right. Price... 9.90

Ladies' Suits
In fine French Serge, fancy suitings and diagonals, man tailored. Satin lined. Sale price 12.50

Men's Suits
In fine quality of all-wool serge and worsted, splendid fitting, well tailored. Sale price 16.50

Silk Dresses
In Taffeta and Messaline, all colors, suitable for street or evening wear. Sale price 14.90

Youths' Suits
The right style, quality and finish, in cassimeres and fancy suitings. Sale price 7.90

Linen Suits
Made of pure linen; coats cut with shawl or notched collar; plaited skirt. Sale price 5.98

Youths' Suits
In blue serge and fancy worsteds. Swell garments that will appeal to the young man. Sale price 14.98

Graduation Dresses
In lingerie, lawn and muslin, beautifully trimmed with embroidery and hamburg lace. Price 9.98

Boys' Suits
Boys' Suits in gray and brown mixtures, knickerbocker pants—the kind that wear right. Price 1.98

Pongee Coats
Cut 52 inches long, shawl collar, Persian trimmed, strictly man tailored. Sale price 5.98

Boys' Suits
In fine worsteds and black or blue serge, suitable for graduation or confirmation. Sale price.. 5.98

We are Complete Outfitters for Man, Woman and Child.

Joyce Bros. & Co.

HAVE YOUR PURCHASES CHARGED

733-735 Washington St., Boston

15 Granite St., Quincy, Mass. 8 and 10 Park Pl., Pawtucket, R. I.
1191 Elm St., Manchester, N. H. 479-83 Westminster St., Prov., R. I.

MURRAY'S

The Best Gargle Ever Used

MURRAY'S LOTION is an ever ready gargle, always at hand to cure or prevent Sore Throat and Diphtheria. Unlike other gargles, it contains no alcohol, opiums or peroxide

Murray's Lotion Cures Sore Throat in 24 Hours

The Murray Chemical Co.:

Gentlemen:—My sixteen-year-old son, Eugene, had an ulcerated sore throat for ten days, which greatly frightened us. We tried peroxide and four other supposed "cures" which did not help him.

A friend, who had used Murray's Lotion, told me about it, and I bought a bottle. Eugene used it as a gargle, and in three hours his throat was almost clear.

Thankfully yours,
Mrs. John Welch,
No. 3621 23d street, San Francisco, Cal.

The Popular Home Remedy

For Sale at All Druggists

Two Sizes 25 & 50c

LOTION

Substitutes Are Dangerous

A PURE HEALTHFUL STIMULANT
THE DUFFY MALT WHISKEY COMPANY
ROCHESTER, N.Y. U.S.A.
DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY
DUFFY MALT WHISKEY COMPANY

Facsimile 1-3 regular size

Beware of Imitations, Substitutes and "Just as good as."

Unscrupulous dealers, mindful only of their profit and caring nothing for the health of their patrons, are offering for sale low grade mixtures, which they tell you are "as good as Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey."

Some go so far as to try to make you believe it is Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. These cheap concoctions are foisted on the people with the intent to deceive.

When a remedy has been before the public for more than half a century, has been prescribed and used by the best doctors and in prominent hospitals, and has carried the blessing of health into so many thousands of homes as Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has, imitations are bound to arise. They may imitate the bottle and label only—no one can imitate the contents.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

has been used with remarkable results in the treatment and cure of all throat, lung and stomach troubles and all wasting and diseased conditions.

It is sold in sealed bottles only. The Old Chemist's Head is on the label and over the cork is an engraved seal. Be certain this seal is unbroken. Sold by druggists, grocers, dealers or direct, $1.00 a large bottle.

Write The Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y., if you are offered substitutes when you ask for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

Double S. & H. Green Trading Stamps Until One O'Clock

Store Open 8:30 to 5:30 Music in Restaurant 12 to 2

HENRY SIEGEL CO.

Washington and Essex Sts., Boston, Mass.

Bicycle and Tires Guaranteed for One Year

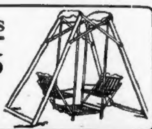
Rex Bicycle, sold under another name for $25 all over America. Our price $18.95 Third Floor

New 1910 models for Men, Women, Boys and Girls. Smooth, easy riding; made by one of the leading bicycle manufacturers of the country. You'll never regret buying the Rex. Pays for itself in the carfare it saves you in 32 weeks and gives you unlimited pleasure on Sundays, holidays and every day. It's worth $18.95 to your health.

Sale of Lawn Swings

50 of these $5 Swings, while they last, Special. $3.95

Made of selected hardwood and guaranteed in every respect. This swing seats 4 adults or 6 children.



Baseball

Boys' $2.00 Baseball Suits, 4-piece, color gray, heavy flannel	1.19
25c Junior League Baseballs	19c
25c Baseball Bats, Juniors..	19c
Boys' 25c Masks	19c
Men's $2.00 Fielder's Gloves	1.45
Men's $2.00 First Base Laced Mitts	1.28
Men's $3.50 Catcher's Mitts..	2.65
Men's $3.00 Masks and Patent Chin Piece	2.65

Croquet Sets

We make a specialty of the best $1.50 8-ball set in Boston, at 95c

Others up to.............$8.00

Men's Sweater Bathing Suits

This is bound to be the leading suit of the season, and right at the very beginning we will have them for Saturday in all sizes and a variety of colors at $1.19

Tents $10.45

We place on sale Saturday a 9½x9½ Wall Tent, made of 8 oz. duck, height of walls 4 feet, height of tent 9½ ft., at the extra special price of $10.45

COUCH HAMMOCK

With wind shield and made of good material, with tufted mattress.

$7.50

HAMMOCKS

Westbrook pattern, made of heavy tapestry weave, Jacquard design—concealed spreader at head, throw back pillow, continuous stringing, double size. Value $8.00 .... $5.95

Other Swinging Hammocks from 95c to $5.00.

Boys' Suits for Confirmation and Graduation

Boys' $7.50 Blue Serge Suits

Double breasted style with Knickerbocker Pants. Every Suit guaranteed fast color and to wear and fit perfectly. They are cut very stylish and full. For ages 9 to 17 years.

$4.95 Third Floor

Boys' $5 Blue Serge Suits

Double breasted Suits in derby back coats, cut full, Knickerbocker Pants. Every Suit is guaranteed as to fit and wear. Ages 9 to 16 years.

$3.75

EXTRA SPECIALS

Boys' $4 and $5 Double Breasted Suits

With 2 pairs of Knickerbocker pants, for ages 8 to 17 years. In neat Scotches and worsteds.

Also — Boys' Russian and sailor suits in serges, worsteds and Scotches. There are a dozen or so of new, neat patterns for ages 2½ to 10 years.

Choice of Either Style Saturday $2.65

$10 and $12 Blue Serge Suits

Extremely fine tailored Suits—all alpaca lined and all suits guaranteed in every way—for fit, style, wear, etc. These are really the best suits of the kind in Boston. Come in Double-Breasted style with Knickerbocker pants. Ages 9 to 16 years. $7.45

Sir Henri Tans at $2

Smartest Low Cuts of the Season at the Price

Sir Henri is the well-known shoe at $2 that gives you the style and comfort of the $3 shoe.

It is made near Boston by Manufacturers of one of the oldest and best known shoes on the market, and is practically of the same quality and construction with another name.

When the maker is not busy with his own brand he keeps the factory going on Sir Henri for the Siegel chain of stores. That's why the price is low. Several stylish lasts.

Tan Calf or Tan Vici $2.00 For Women and Growing Girls

L I N E N
C O L L A RS

25c Collars, Finely Embroidered 12½c

We wish to make it plain to every woman that these are not the same collars usually sold at 12½c. They are 25c collars and are sold for 25c all over Boston. We secured this lot from one of the largest manufacturers in Troy, N. Y., and you will find many new designs in both open and close work embroidery, also high and low styles

89c Chiffon Cloth Veils

40 in. wide, in all the up-to-date shades, for large hats, traveling purposes and auto hats

48c yd.

95c Irish Crochet Jabots

In double and single tabs. There are several new different patterns to choose from. Saturday,

50c

$1.25 New Sample Veils

There is quite a choice in this lot. Either 2 yd. and 3 yd. Veils or square Veils in colors.

59c

50c New Sample Neckwear

In all the most up-to-date leading styles—including Muslin Dutch Collars, Muslin Jabots in dainty long and short effect, Rabats, Stocks, Bows, etc. 25c

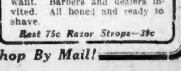
Free Demonstration

Mr. Ralph Drew, one of Boston's favorite baritones, accompanied by Mr. Al Harriman, pianist, and assisted by Ralph Cordingly, will feature all the latest sheet music in our Music Room, 3d Floor.

Razors 39c

Final clean-up sale today of an importer's entire stock. There are razors in this lot made to sell for as high as $3.50

Main Floor



Genuine German steel razors—made of the finest tempered steel. No limit—buy as many as you want. Barbers and dealers invited. All honed and ready to shave.

Best 75c Razor Strops—39c

Henry Siegel Co., Boston—Why Not Shop By Mail!

HOW A COLLEGE PROFESSOR MAKES LOVE

Letters Written by Professor Harry Thurston Peck to Boston Girl Made Public.

Amid tears, her words breathing the deepest affection for the man who for eleven years, she says, she has idolized, Miss Esther Quinn at her Cambridge home to-day told a BOSTON AMERICAN reporter of her suit for $50,000 for alleged breach of promise she has brought against Professor Harry Thurston Peck, writer, lecturer and teacher, who now holds the chair of Latin at Columbia University.

By MISS ESTHER QUINN.

My romance with the professor was a case of love at first sight. Love's channel deepened with the passing years, until the learned professor became my "all in all," absorbing my every thought.

My life was simply wrapped up in him, until I learned Professor Peck was married, a year and a half after I first met him. But love won out, and in September, 1908, we became engaged, the wedding to take place as soon as the professor was made a free man by divorce from his first wife.

It was on February 3 last that my heart strings were snapped. On that day I met Professor Peck in his office at Columbia University. I asked an explanation of the apparent change in his affections. "I'm married now," he replied. I was overcome. My heart was broken. I have not been myself since that time.

I am not vindictive at all in entering suit against Dr. Peck. I have no wish to harm him. The man I idolized and set up on my pedestal, though he proved faithless to his promise, I still admire.

He is the ideal man, possessed of great magnetism, who always has seemed to have a fascination for me. I love him deeply, sincerely, as a woman can love but once in her lifetime.

Now my hopes are shattered. Life is not the same any more. My faith is broken. And yet there are times when I think Dr. Peck must have been right in telling me his second marriage to another when he was engaged to me, was "an impulse."

I can scarcely believe he has forgotten all the fervor of his love as he showed it during those eleven happy but fateful years.

I want to impress upon you the fact that I am actuated by no spirit of trying to get even, in my suit. Dr. Peck's action—his strange, almost inexplicable action—has brought an indignity upon me.

In the world we have to suffer the consequences of our own acts. I have suffered. If he suffers from now on, it will be the result of things he did and no blame can be laid to me.

Love at First Sight on the Part of Both.

It was in 1899, when I went to work on the staff of the New York Commercial Advertiser, that I first saw Dr. Peck. He was writing special articles Saturdays. It was a case of love at first sight with both of us. I know this on my part, and I was always led to believe that it was the same with Dr. Peck. He is a sincere man. I believed what he said.

But though we were in love, it was some time before we went out togther. I believed him to be a single man, and never dreamed he had a wife, much less a daughter. It was a year and a half after we met that I learned he was married. That was through a letter he wrote me. He wrote me lots, but most often spoke his sentiment over the telephone.

He wrote once referring to his "home." I had always believed he lived entirely at the Century association. When I asked him to explain, he said he was married, but was not living with his wife. Had I known he was a married man, I never in the world would have gone out with him that first time. Unfortunately for me, Dr. Peck did not tell me the truth.

I can't say he deliberately deceived me, though it does look that way. I have to think the best of him, for I have idolized and idealized him, until he has become perfection. He is my ideal of manhood.

Promise to Marry After Divorce.

After staying with the Commercial Advertiser a while, I went with the Smart Set, on the editorial end, doing work also as manuscript reader. During the years that followed we met continually. Finally, a divorce was in sight, Dr. Peck's first wife having entered suit, September, 1908. In that same month we became engaged, with the understanding that we would marry as soon as he became free.

Dr. Peck had told me, "If I were not married now, I would marry you." I believed him implicitly. He had the truest manner—actual truth and not the sentimental manner.

He was so much the ideal man that association with him leads only to the finest and noblest thoughts. But I never knew he had a daughter until his wife got the divorce.

It was last Summer that the first change came over our love. I did not notice it then. Dr. Peck became busy; we did not see each other so often. Dr. Peck had an explanation. One month it was the heat, and this brings to mind something he told me. He had been complaining of the effect the heat had on him. He told me the Summer heat always affected him, and explained it in this way:

Loved Too Truly To Even Doubt.

When he was about twenty-one years old, he said he was overcome by the heat. Ever since that time the heat went to his head. Last Summer he had to cool himself by packing ice around his head, he told me. Another month and his reasons would differ.

Finally August came, when we were supposed to marry. He then explained that he was terribly busy mornings and nights, getting ready to begin his vacation. He had gotten a leave of absence. He suggested afternoons as the time we should be together. I did not see him again for some time.

In October, last, I went to Columbia to his office, and was shocked and surprised to see across his door a sign, "Absent on leave until February."

But love was uppermost. I had never doubted him. I loved him too truly. The early Fall and late Summer I myself had spent in the Adirondacks, so that is why I lost touch of him then. I came to Cambridge in January.

I explained Dr. Peck's silence by believing he was having some trouble with his accounts, or in difficulty that would take up all his time.

I buoyed myself up with the hope he would set things straight and come to me. You know that vacation of his we had talked over and had planned it as ours to spend together, the first months of our married life. It was to be our honeymoon.

On February 2, last, I determined to go to New York. I called at his office and saw him. Dr. Peck told me to come again the next day. I did so.

I asked him why he had not seen or written me. He finally replied: "I am married."

Naturally, I was overcome. "I married on an impulse," he said. "But didn't you think about me?" I said. "Yes, I did," he replied. After a few minutes of silence and great grief on my part, I said: "What did you expect?" He replied: "I thought you were going to make a fuss, but you are better than that." This last he said in a softened tone of voice, as if caressingly.

He must have married on impulse. I cannot explain his act otherwise. But I know this much, that his wife is an old swetheart of his. His marriage to her was a renewed romance that had been broken off since their early lives. But that does not lessen his action towards me. He broke his word to me.

My heart is broken now. I am not suing Dr. Peck to show a vindictive spirit. Dr. Peck has made one mistake—the one mistake of his life. I loved him and he made me believe he loved me. He broke his troth.

For that mistake there is one penalty—suffering. He will have to suffer as I have suffered and am suffering now. But this is not so because I wish it to be so. I would it could be otherwise.

Esther Quinn, beautiful Boston girl, who has sued Professor Harry Thurston Peck of Columbia for $50,000 for breach of promise.

Miss Quinn is a beautiful woman, with a bewitching manner. Her eyes are blue, and her hair dark. She is just twenty-five years the junior of Professor Peck, who is now fifty-four. The professor, who is well known all over the country, is something more than a teacher. As poet, scholar, literateur, magazine writer, author, essayist, he has become one of the leading lights in America.

Professor Peck now holds the chair in Latin at Columbia University, with degrees of A. M., Ph. D., L. H. D., LL. D., and is president of the Latin Club of America, and member of many prominent literary clubs and associations.

Features of Miss Quinn's suit are a series of letters claimed to have been written by her scholarly sweetheart, in which the Cambridge girl is referred to in the most endearing terms.

PROF. PECK'S LOVE LETTERS REVEALED

Here are the love letters of Professor Harry Thurston Peck, of the chair of Latin at Columbia University, editor of "The Bookman." He is especially well known among the literary men of Boston. The missives are most remarkable and form a complete collection, with dates running from 1900 to 1909. The letters follow:

Dear Tessie—It was a little hard to be called a vampire. Yet, after all, I can understand how you feel. There are some things which you have never mentioned—out of tact—but which, if you had mentioned, would have perhaps made things clearer and less strange, apparently. I won't add any more, but I don't believe that I'm a vampire. Life is very complex. Yours always, H.

"Just a Line of Love."

Darling Esther—You were so heavenly last night. I can feel you still near me and I can scarcely wait till Monday. Dearest, I am never going to vex you any more or to let any long separation happen. Your little studio up there is too dear for anything and I should like to stay there all the time. Dearest, if you have not written me, send me just a line of love so that I can get it on Monday before I come to you and carry it about with me.

I adore you always.

Your very own, HARRY.

A letter calculated to dispel doubts of the steadfastness of his devotion that she declares she received is as follows:

Dear Esther—I return your letter, as you wish it. In doing so I want to say that you have attributed to me thoughts that never before entered my mind. It never occurred to me to accuse you of selfishness and heartlessness; nor do I think that I could ever have said the things you believe me to have said the last time we met. What I wrote you long ago I can write you now with perfect sincerity—that I think of you only as you would wish to have me—as good and true and honorable.

But it seemed to me the last time we were together, as it has seemed before, that you really did not care, although you fancied that you did; and that I pleased you more when absent than when present. That was my misfortune, but it was better to know it first rather than last—better for us both. I think we might have been very dear friends if we had begun as friends only, but it did not happen so.

Yours never more sincerely, H.

From Mereland, which is the name of Professor Peck's place, was mailed this note:

My Darling—If I come to town on Monday I will telephone you before 3 o'clock. If you don't hear from me you will know that I am kept out in the country to look after the haying. I love you. HARRY.

Also from Mereland:

My Darling—The warm weather of two weeks ago was too much for me and I went away on a yacht—a sudden impulse and a hasty invitation. Your last two letters were unlike any of the others. There was something new in them, and very sweet and fine. I can't quite describe, but it shows you as I always wanted you to be and as you never quite let yourself be until now. I am looking forward to our next time very expectantly. Yet not in an exacting or unreasonable way. I want to be what you wish, for you do really love me now, I am sure. Yours devotedly always, HARRY.

From the Hotel Bristol, Fifth avenue and Forty-second street, New York, a letter was sent which reads:

My Darling—I thought of you so lovingly all night and I am thinking of you in the same way now. You were very beautiful and lovable. Dearest, don't forget me. You want me to come to you again and again. I kiss your little hands and adore you.

HARRY.

Another in these early days—the first year of the alleged affair—is as follows:

My Darling—I send you just a line to say what I said to you before—that I think of you always in just the way that you would wish me to and that I shall never fail you. Will you not send me back a little word to tell me that you believe me?

Yours always devotedly, H.

"You Gave Me So Much Hope."

On a letterhead of the Century Association was written:

Dear Esther—If my letter made your blood run cold, what do you imagine I felt in reading yours? It is evident that you think me everything that is low. How could you suppose that I had in mind what would repel you, or that, if I had, I would write of it in that way? I merely thought that as so much has happened since we have met, and as we both would have so much to say that could not very well be said in a public place, we might go away by ourselves and talk everything over in a very dear, nice way. All this misunderstanding of yours came from the fact of our really not knowing one another at all. But you ought to assume that I have too much respect and affection for you to do or say or write anything that would shock you, especially now that you have been so frank with me and given me so much hope.

If you do not trust me as much as that you ought not to trust me at all, nor will I ask you to do so any more. Only please to remember that you have read into my letter something that had never entered my mind. H.

There was no cooling in the ardor of the letters in the year 1902. One from Stamford, Ct., reads:

My Darling Esther: I am so glad you called me up yesterday, for the sound of your voice was very sweet, and even your last letter did not take away the impression made by the other. If you MUST scold me, why don't you do it when we are together? Then it would be all right, and I would not mull over it so much. Heart, I hope to see you this week and then you must be very good to me, so as to make up for it all.

Your own H.

Her Letter Marvelous!

Short but sweet this one:

Dear Love: Your letter of Sunday was so marvelous! Will you meet me at 6 on Thursday and have dinner with me? I am writing this in great haste, but with all the devotion in the world. Yours always, H.

From Atlantic City the following was sent:

Dearest Esther: Both of your wonderful letters were forwarded to me and read by me last evening. Don't wonder whether I understood them, for they are just the kind of letters from you that I DO understand and love, very, very much. It was the sort of letter that you used to write which puzzled me and made me doubt.

With love always, H.

There is a letter of this year that invites the recipient into a flight of the imagination regarding the delights of the writer's society:

Dearest Esther: Your two letters were such as you have never before written me, and I feel them just as you wrote them. No; I shall not be distrustful any more, and I shall know that you are always just as I wish you to be, quite unchangeable. I have been very busy this week, dear but after Wednesday next a good part of my work will be ended for the Summer and then—

Remember always yours lovingly, H.

Called Her "Heart."

Quite frequently Miss Quinn is addressed as "heart," as for instance in this letter:

Darling—Why do you feel any mistrust or doubt? You have no reason to do so any more. Yes, it is all different now. I did not feel vexed about your not staying, for I knew how hard it was for you. And you must not think about moods after this, for there will be only one mood and that one the mood you like. I was very glad to get your letter, for I was doubtful how you would feel about everything. But it is all right, isn't it, heart? Yours always devotedly, H.

There is a touch of flippancy and even a suggestion of schoolboy romance in a letter sent by special delivery—many of them were sent by special delivery, as a matter of fact—in 1902:

Dearest—I don't like to think that we may be interrupted by callers, do you? I must be uptown until after 6 and don't know any very good place to meet there; but if you were to stroll into the drug store at One Hundred and Fourth street and Columbus avenue at 7 o'clock to the minute you would find me there to-morrow (Friday). I would treat you to a postage stamp and then we could do whatever we might think best. If I don't hear to the contrary I shall be there. Yours always, H.

There was no cooling of devotion in 1903, according to the reading of the letters. From the Hotel Cadillac the following was sent to Miss Quinn.

"Keep Your Kisses."

Tessie, darling, don't think I have forgotten. I loved your letters. I am going away on Monday to a college up the State, where I have to deliver an address and have some sort of a degree given me, but I will be back on Thursday or Friday, and you will hear from me then. Meanwhile, don't mull, but keep all your kisses for me, just as always. With love, your very own H.

And in the same year this was written:

Dearest, why do you worry? You make me feel that I cannot be frank with you and trust you. What I told you ought to show you how utterly the past 18 and how dear the present is by contrast. Now be a good girl and tell me that you are not going to grieve over ghosts—ghosts that no longer walk.

Yours devotedly, HARRY.

From the Century Club, New York, was written:

Dearest Esther: Your letter was such a good one—just like hearing you speak—and I loved it. Dear, I have not received the Lady Bountiful drawing, because of the stupidity of the porter at the club, who had put it away and forgotten to give it to me. Now I have it, and I thank you very much for it. It stands near my "Foxy Grandpa" drawing. There are so many things in your letter that I love to recall—dear little intimate things. Tell me some more to last me until the time when I see you again, which will be very soon.

Yours lovingly, H.

The romance was apparently in full flower in 1904. In February of that month is the following letter:

My Darling Tessie: It was very sweet of you to write me so soon and so long and so lovingly. Yes, heart, it will be different now and you will find it so. Just think of all the little things that WE know and I will see that you do not have reason to mull any more.

Your own H.

TAFT COMFORT FOR RAILROADS

WASHINGTON, June 3.—It was reported to-day that President Taft will issue a statement shortly in which he will reassure the railroads throughout the country that there is no intention on the part of the government to treat them otherwise than fairly in the proceedings that have been brought against them or which may be instituted later.

It is also said that a number of the presidents of the more important railroads of the country are to visit President Taft here next week for the purpose of discussing with him the attitude of the government toward the railroads in the matter of the increase of rates by the roads. At the White House Acting Secretary Forster said that he had heard nothing of the intention of the President to issue this statement. He thought it extremely unlikely that there is any truth in the report. He added, however, that it was "more than probable that some railroad presidents would call on President Taft next week."

E. P. Grosvenor, assistant to the Attorney-General, who this week filed the injunction suit in Hannibal, Missouri, against twenty-five Western railroads, to-day announced that the Eastern railways will escape the big stick.

TAXATION BILL AGAIN DOWNED

The Senate to-day refused to bring the State income tax bill to life again, by a vote of 12 to 14, with four pairs. The measure was killed yesterday by a tie vote, 16 to 16, with one pair. To-day's vote was on reconsidering.

The bill provided for a State tax on all incomes not now reached by law. The present law taxes only incomes derived from trades and professions. The vote was:

For the bill—Blanchard of Somerville, Bunting of Methuen, Harvey of Waltham, Nash of Hanover, Nason of Haverhill, and Turner of Fall River, Republicans; and Doyle of Boston, Mahoney of Holyoke, Malley of Springfield, Meaney of Blackstone, O'Connor of South Boston, and Teeling of Charlestown, Democrats.—12.

Against the bill—Bennett of Saugus, Bray of Beverly, Burnham of East Boston, Crosby of Arlington, Denny of Worcester, Greenwood of Gardner, Hibbard of Lowell, Mellen of Brookfield, Mulligan of Natick, Parker of Roxbury, Pickford of Worcester, Tinkham of Boston, Tolman of Gloucester, White of Tisbury, Republicans—14.

Paired for the bill—Hultman of Quincy, Rankin of Taunton and Newhall of Lynn, Republicans, and Lomasney of Boston, Democrat—4.

Paired against the bill—Rockwood of Franklin, Farley of Erving, Evans of Everett, Turtle of Pittsfield, Republicans—4.

Valuable Advice to Sufferers from Skin Diseases.

Under no circumstances should medicated or plain soap or any preparation containing alcohol or water be used by sufferers from eczema and similar skin troubles. Those things aggravate the trouble and make it impossible for the skin to heal. The new medical compound called Cadum is the best and surest remedy, as it contains neither water nor alcohol. When applied, it excludes the air and other irritating agents, stops the itching at once and sets up the healing process immediately. Most wonderful cures are reported from all sections. Cadum is just as effective in the treatment of psoriasis, ringworm, pimples, blotches, rash, eruptions, chafings, itching piles, rough, scaly skin, sores, acne, herpes etc. 10c and 25c. All druggists.

BICYCLES

$20.00 $25.00

OVERLAND & BLACK DIAMOND

BICYCLES

$30.00 $35.00

Fifty Different Models to Select from

ALL NEW AND UP-TO-DATE GOODS.

Bi-Motor Equipment Co

177—179 PORTLAND STREET

One Minute from North Station.

REMOVE YOUR

FRECKLES

Dainty Cream That Is a Wonderful Treatment for This Trouble

If you want to remove your freckles, use a remedy that is made specially for this trouble. Freckles are really a special disease of the skin and can be removed only by treatment that is especially designed to remove them.

There is one remedy that never fails to remove freckles, Kintho Beauty Cream, a dainty preparation that is used by society women in New York as well as in this city, and without a single failure reported.

We have sold it to our best trade and with infallible success, so that we gladly recommend it for removing freckles. Get a box at the toilet goods department of Houghton & Dutton Co. or Jordan Marsh Co. and see how quickly it removes your freckles. Full treatment $1.00. Sufficient quantity for minor cases of summer freckles, 60c.

Wolf's, "My Clothier," corner Hanover and Portland streets, is most easily reached from the Haymarket Square, Adams Square, Scollay Square and Friend-Union street stations of the subways.

ROYAL Baking Powder renders the food more digestible and wholesome

Royal BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure

Highest Scientific Authority

Has demonstrated that of two loaves of bread, one raised with Royal Baking Powder, and the other with alum baking powder, the Royal raised loaf is 32 per cent. more digestible than the other.

Avoid Alum

¼ OFF SALE

Choose Your Suit from Hilton's Magnificent Stock at One-Quarter Off the Regular Price

Bostonians do not need to be told that Hilton Clothes are the finest ready-for-service garments made in America—that at regular prices they are values beyond competition.

And now that these superb garments have been reduced a full quarter, it is no wonder that the store is crowded with buyers from opening till closing time.

Every style, every fabric, every color and pattern which fashion recognizes is represented—selection is all-satisfying and satisfaction guaranteed.

The regular prices at which these suits have sold all season are still on the tickets. Simply choose and pay a quarter less than the price tag calls for.

$15.00 Hilton Suits, now . $11.25
$18.00 Hilton Suits, now . $13.50
$20.00 Hilton Suits, now . $15.00
$22.50 Hilton Suits, now . $16.50
$25.00 Hilton Suits, now . $18.75
$28.00 Hilton Suits, now . $21.00
$30.00 Hilton Suits, now . $22.50
$35.00 Hilton Suits, now . $25.00

The HILTON Co.

OPEN SATURDAY EVENINGS UNTIL 10:30

OTHER STORES
Newark—Broad and Market Sts.
Philadelphia—1327-1329 Chestnut St.
New York (Downtown)—219-221 Broadway.
New York (Uptown)—Broadway and 37th St.

Cor. Washington Street and Temple Place
BLAKE BUILDING

BURMAN OUT OF AUTO HILL CLIMBING TEST

By J. C. KERRISON.

Robert Burman, one of the star drivers of the Buick camp, will not compete in the Worcester Hill Climb to-morrow, his entry having been withdrawn owing to his sudden illness by a severe attack of bronchitis.

The other Buick drivers have been entered for events in other cities, and it was found impossible to secure a suitable driver to take the place of the daring Burman.

There is, however, no reason to doubt but what the hill climb at Worcester will be a most successful affair.

Grant, the winner of the Vanderbilt, will be forced to drive his Alco against Bragg's Fiat, a 100 horsepower Marquett, the Houpt Rockwell and several other cars of high horsepower and known ability.

It is perhaps interesting to note that but one electric has been entered for the electric event, that being a Babcock Gentlemen's Roadster, entered by the Waitte-Robbins Motor Company.

The list of known entries in addition to the above include a Cole "30," Buick, Warren-Detroit, two Maxwells, an Okland, three Camerons, Atlas, Laucier, an Apperson and an Indian motor-cycle.

One other entry is that of John L. Kingsley, who will drive a big Thomas car in the amateur events, and who feels pretty confident of capturing high honors from all the "simon pure" motor drivers.

It looks as though the record of the hill will go to smash, as in practice early this morning all cars showed excellent speed and ability to get to the top of the hill in close to the best on record.

The course was never in better condition than it is to-day, and with fair weather conditions some unusually fast work should be witnessed.

Harry G. Mansfield of Ferncroft Inn played the part of host to a select party of genial spirits on the pilotage of J. J. McNamara. The party left Boston early in the afternoon, going to Middleton by the North Shore route and arriving at Ferncroft in ample season to enjoy the view from the "heights" before sitting down to a thorough discussion of the good things produced by their host.

It was just a nice, quiet, little party, every one enjoying himself to the utmost, and voting Harry Mansfield a "prince of good fellows."

WIFE'S ILLNESS CAUSED SUICIDE

BANGOR, Me., June 3.—Ansel L. White, retired New York merchant, who has made his home in Belfast and who had been for several days the guest of relatives here, was found hanging in a storehouse of the Penobscot Chemical Fibre Company, at Great Works, twelve miles from here. All indications pointed to suicide and Coroner Rackliff deemed an inquest unnecessary. It is believed that the serious illness of his wife, who is in the Eastern Maine Insane Hospital here, unsettled his mind. He had knotted two handkerchiefs together, with which he hanged himself.

Julia Ward Howe Says:

I do not think it lessens a girl's chance to marry if she goes to college.

Read Mrs. Howe's message to American women, written expressly for the BOSTON SUNDAY AMERICAN on her ninety-first birthday. You will find it only in next Sunday's BOSTON SUNDAY AMERICAN.

HARRIMAN'S DAUGHTER IS A MOOSE HUNTER

LENOX, Mass., June 3.—Charles Cary Rumsey and his bride, formerly Miss Harriman, will help the game wardens on October Mountain round up a bull moose which escaped from the game preserve and has been sighted in the town of Becket. The gamekeepers and Mr. and Mrs. Rumsey will surround the big fellow on horseback. The moose has been six years in captivity and broke out in a weakened spot in the ten-foot fence surrounding a square mile which was used for his range.

ECZEMA ALL OVER CHILD'S BODY

All Red and Blistery—Itched So She Could Not Sleep and Scratched Till She Bled—Many Treatments Failed—Cake of Cuticura Soap and

HALF A BOX OF CUTICURA CURED HER PERFECTLY

"My little girl had eczema and was cured by Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. It first started with sores and blisters and was all over her body. She was just red all over and would scratch until it would bleed. It itched so that she could not sleep. I used different medicines but without effect. I washed her with Cuticura Soap and then applied Cuticura Ointment, which resulted in a perfect cure. I used one cake of Cuticura Soap and half a box of Ointment. Also, as a toilet soap, there is nothing better for pimples. My face was covered with pimples and now it is absolutely free from them since I used Cuticura Soap. So I am never without Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Etienne Barbè, Plaucheville, Avoyelles Parish, La., Oct. 8, '09."

SKIN PURITY

Is Best Promoted by Cuticura Soap and Ointment.

The constant use of Cuticura Soap, assisted when necessary by Cuticura Ointment, not only preserves, purifies and beautifies the skin, scalp, hair and hands of infants, children and adults, but tends to prevent clogging of the pores, the common cause of pimples, blackheads, inflammation, irritation, redness and roughness, and other unsightly and annoying conditions. In the treatment of eczema, rashes and other skin affections that torture and disfigure infants, children and adults, Cuticura Soap and Ointment are unrivaled.

Cuticura Soap (25c.) to Cleanse the Skin, Cuticura Ointment (50c.) to Heal the Skin and Cuticura Resolvent (50c.), (or in the form of Chocolate Coated Pills, 25c. per vial of 60) to Purify the Blood, are sold throughout the world. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., 135 Columbus Ave., Boston, Mass. ☞Mailed Free, 32-page Cuticura Book, a complete Guide to the Speedy, Economical Treatment of Skin and Scalp Affections.

Our Men's Store This newly remodeled section, located on the street floor, Main Building, is separated from the rest of the store. Entrances on Summer and Avon Streets.

Jordan Marsh Company

Remember: The satisfaction of our customers is assured. If any article purchased here—whether advertised or not—is at all disappointing, it may be returned and money will be refunded.

Men's Outing Apparel

From Our Great Separate Men's Store

There is a certain snap and style in our clothes not usually found elsewhere.

Stylish clothing and furnishings for Vacation Days and Summer Outings are shown here in New England's most varied assortment.

Men's Summer Clothing of the Most Dependable Quality.

This section of the store presents for your approval a complete assortment of high-grade clothing in the latest designs and fabrics, as authorized for this season. We have a variety to suit everyone, and our prices are just as low as the quality of our goods will permit. There is satisfaction in securing your clothing needs from this house, as we feature only the most reliable goods, in advanced styles, and your expenditure is reduced to a minimum.

New Outing Suits—New patterns in crash, flannel, serges, worsteds and homespuns, made on new models; coats half or quarter lined; trousers made with full hips and finished with belt straps and cuff bottoms. Price range. 15.00 to 30.00

Men's Thin Coats—Alpacas, mohairs, sicilians, serges and silks; a large and comprehensive assortment of patterns and colorings, in all sizes and prices..... 1.50 to 8.50

Men's Summer Trousers—Flannels, worsteds, serges, ducks and khakis; trousers made on models designed for outing wear and tailored to insure lasting service. Price range. 1.00 to 10.00

Men's Golf Suits—Homespuns and tweeds, made in Norfolk styles, designed to give greatest freedom and comfort. 20.00 and 25.00

Golfing Knickerbockers—In a variety of tweeds, good colorings; tailored to withstand the strain of vigorous outing wear .... 4.00 to 6.50

Men's Blue Serge Suits—The best suits to be bought anywhere at the prices; made of pure worsted serges of guaranteed weight and color; tailored to retain their shape and give satisfactory service to the wearer. 15.00, 18.00 and 20.00

Men's Summer Outing Hats

Your every hat demand can be supplied here. We carry all the different styles, materials and colors that can be found in any hat store. Only the best-known and most reliable grades are carried, and all are marked at the lowest prevailing prices.

Soft Hats, brown and gray	2.00 to 3.50
Wool Hats, in gray	1.00 to 2.00
White Felt Hats, for yachting	1.00 to 3.00
English Golf Caps	1.00 to 1.50
Outing Caps, in pretty patterns	50¢ to 3.00
Khaki and White Duck Hats	50¢
Blue Yachting Caps	1.00 to 2.00
Rough Straw Hats	2.00 to 4.00
Genuine Panamas	5.00 to 15.00

Men's Correct Summer Furnishings

The wonderful scope of this section can hardly be realized. The very newest effects, secured both from Europe and the leading manufacturers of this country, are shown in a profusion that cannot be approached by any other New England store. With our large outlet everything is kept right up to the minute, and large quantities of new goods arrive daily. Our prices are at the lowest possible mark, and our policy of featuring "Jordan Marsh Company Quality" is fully upheld. We mention only a few seasonable suggestions below.

Outing Shirts—A plain and soft, yet dressy shirt without collar. Prices.................. 1.00 to 3.50

Flannel Shirts—A most demanded style for summer outing wear. Prices.................. 1.50 to 3.50

Silk Outing Shirts—These are with or without collars and French turn-back cuffs. Prices. 3.50 to 6.50

Soft Collars—Made to wear with soft outing shirts, all sizes. Prices.................. 25c

Sweaters—Fine, all-wool Sweaters in all colors and many weights. Prices.............. 3.00 to 6.50

Belts—All the newest leathers, styles and colors. Prices. 25c to 2.50

Outing Flannel Pajamas—The finest possible sleeping garment for summer.............. 1.00 to 1.50

Bathing Suits—All sizes and colors, in practical two-piece styles. Prices .... 1.00 to 4.50

Cool, well fitting underwear for Summer days add much to a man's comfort.

Men's Summer Underwear

Every known style and fabric find representation in our Men's Underwear Section, which is one of the largest and most completely stocked underwear stores in the country. Below are a few items from this extensive assortment.

Men's Union Suits—Extra fine gauze white cotton union suits, ankle and ¾ lengths. Special at... 1.50

Men's Union Suits—Extra light weight gauze lisle and mercerized union suits, short sleeve and ankle length. Special at.... 2.50

Men's Shirts and Drawers—Fine mercerized shirts and drawers in plain blue and white, Special at..... 1.25

Men's Shirts and Drawers—Mauchauffee's French lisle shirts and drawers. Regular 1.25 values. Special at.............. 79c

Men's Shirts and Drawers—Combed Egyptian balbriggan shirts and drawers, long and short sleeves. Special at............ 59c

Men's Shirts and Drawers—Men's balbriggan shirts and drawers, in silk stripes and basket weave. Regular 50c quality........ 39c

An Unequalled Showing of Men's Underwear from 39c to 15.00

Men's Summer Hosiery

Particular men are very careful as to their hosiery. A perfect combination of color and material are greatly desired by correctly dressed men, and our complete assortment offers every satisfaction in regard to selection. Our buyer goes abroad twice each year, procuring the finest foreign hose, and when coupled with the best that the United States offers—there is reason that we can supply your every hosiery demand in a proper way. Our prices speak for themselves. A few of the most popular grades are told of below.

Men's Half Hose—Plain black and fancy lisle and cottons. Special price.. 17c

3 for 50c

Men's Imported Hose — In black, tan and fancies; mostly 50c values. Special price 25c

Men's Lisle and Silk Lisle Hose—Plain black and 25 different colors; also, with hand-embroidered insteps. Special price.......... 50c

Men's Silk Half Hose—Made with a heavy cotton heel and toe; black, tan, slate and navy. Special price 50c

Hundreds of Other Styles in Men's Half Hose from 12½c to 6.75 a pair

Men's Summer Bathrobes

No man's wardrobe is complete without a bathrobe—in fact, you cannot fully enjoy all the comforts of home or beach without one. If you do not own one our assortment should prove attractive, because the patterns and qualities are superior and the prices more moderate than elsewhere.

Terry Cloth Robes 1.95 to 18.00

In a splendid choice of popular styles and patterns, of both domestic and imported fabrics. Made on generous lines and beautifully trimmed. Very popular robe—light and serviceable.

Blanket Robes—Our Blanket Robes are all new, in next season's patterns and designs. Not so many bought now, but splendid in case of illness, or lounging about on chilly days. Prices, 2.50 to 15.00

Beach Robes — These are really elegant robes, made of fine cottons, mercerized materials, Viyella flannels and pongees, in a wide choice of desirable patterns and styles, with sizes to fit all. Prices, 2.50 to 15.00

A Complete Sporting Goods Store

On the Fourth Floor—Main Building

Everything is here pertaining to summer sports—and the prices are always kept down to the lowest notch. Full assortment of golfers' goods, fishing tackle, baseball goods, tennis goods, canoe needs, etc., of the best makes. A stroll through this section will prove interesting to every sportsman.

Men's Summer Outing Shoes

For Tennis, Golf and Baseball

We are specializing in this branch of footwear for outdoor sports and carry a comprehensive line of the most reliable Outing Shoes of the highest quality at the most moderate prices in the city.

Golf Shoes—High and low cut, made of tan Russia calf and tan buckskin; with high-grade rubber soles and heels; complete with spike tipped soles and arch-supporting shanks; regulation shapes. Prices, 6.00 to 7.00

Tennis Sneakers—Men's, boys' and youths' first quality, Goodyear rubber soles, in black, tan and white canvas. Prices, 90c to 1.60

Tennis Shoes—High and low cut, made on foot form spring heel lasts; highest grade flexible rubber soles, combining comfort and appearance; made in tan Russia calf. Price 4.00

Made of canvas. Price.............. 3.50

Men's White Buck Tennis Oxfords—Three rows of stitching on vamp; double welt, extra heavy; first quality rubber soles, spring heels. Price.............. 6.50

Baseball Shoes—Regulation style, made of durable black chrome leather with first quality soles, with metal running cleats on ball and heels.

Boys' sizes 2½ to 5½. Price .... 2.00 | Men's sizes 6 to 10. Price........... 2.50

Men's Gray Horsehide Tennis Oxfords—Arch supporting shank, spring heels, Goodyear sewed double welt, best quality rubber soles, toes with tips, but not with boxes. Price 6.50

Men's English Regulation Golf Shoes—Tan Russia calf oxfords and low cut boots with short spikes in soles and heels; welt soles and strapped vamps; the official shoe used in all match games in England.

Seamless Oxfords 6.00 Low Cut Boots 7.00

LAWYER PRATT OUTLINES KELIHER DEFENCE

Continued from First Page.

his actions are concerned, in two plain, simple, homely words, "pure cussedness."

"Let us go back to the looted bank and see what was the condition of that bank in November, 1907. We will show you that it was then that George W. Coleman first commenced to loot that institution. Then it was a prosperous bank, having deposits of $400,000. The president alone had an account there then of from $35,000 to $70,000 in his own name. He also had large accounts in the name of the Standard Diary Company, with which he was connected. Large sums were there to the account of the Standard Action Company, which he owned and controlled.

Cashier Earl's Account.

"There were also large sums there from the Cambridgeport and the Cambridge Savings Banks. The president never thought at that time that there would come a time when the bank would not be able to draw out every cent that was due everyone. Coleman was then nineteen. He was the bookkeeper there. We will show you that it was his duty, not alone to receive the clearing house letter and its contents, but to truly record what information that letter and the enclosed slips contained on the customer's ledger.

"It is true, as the government has claimed, that his particular duty was to place those figures upon the customer's books after putting them upon the individual ledger. We will go back to 1906 and we will show you that on August 20 of that year, the account of no less a person that Cashier Earl, one of the officers of the bank, was overdrawn and stayed overdrawn for a full month.

"We will show that that is a fact, and we will ask you to say that it is significant. Not only was it the duty of Cashier Earl to go through the individual ledger from time to time and see that accounts were or were not overdrawn, but we will show you that he did see that accounts were overdrawn in 1907, 1908 and 1909, when accounts were being changed by a single stroke of the pen of George W. Coleman, who was suffering from some 'psychological phenomenon.'

"Knew What Was Going On."

It was during that time while Coleman was going through the stage of that strange 'psychological phenomenon,' and while every one of the officials of the bank was neglecting to do his duty, that the accounts of these poor depositors were being wiped out. And this same cashier, and, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen, I dislike to point my finger at a man, but I want to say now that Frank Lyman Earl knew what was going on in that bank, but as an officer of that bank he did not do his duty.

"We will show you that in December, late in the month, I think, Frank Lyman Earl's individual deposits had been drawn down to $1.61, but before the bank closed and the notice of a receivership had been posted on its doors, he had drawn out even that mere pittance, not even allowing that much for the depositors of that institution.

"For three days you have been listening to evidences of fake wire tapping and handwriting. So remote are they that my brother could have spent his time better elsewhere. There are ten allegations, as I remember, in this case, and if on the eve of the opening of the defence you are still wondering with my brother that there was a gang of faro bank men, I ask you to come down to solid concrete. We are surrounded by rules of law and we are to be governed by them. You take the evidence and use it as the court instructs you. Because my brother has something against Strausneider, Walsh and John R. Marshall, you should not follow the District Attorney in all the realms to which his fancy leads him. You are here to try the defendant, charged with aiding and abetting George W. Coleman in wrecking the bank of Cambridge.

What the Indictment Charges.

"Let me read to you the direct charge in the indictment. This indictment in ten counts charges, and these are the exact words, that George W. Coleman did, on December 6, 1909, fail and neglect to inform the officials of the National City Bank that his account was not sufficient to pay a check for $3,500 which he had drawn the day before and which, cashed in an outside bank and having passed the clearing house, was presented at the National City Bank for payment. And in nine additional counts the same allegation against George W. Coleman is made. And in ten counts, the Grand Jurors say that William J. Keliher, well knowing the premises, did aid and abet George W. Coleman in the misapplication of the funds and the credit of the National City Bank.

"I ask you to examine closely the evidence in this case and to judge of the falsity of evidence. I ask you to examine the facts in this case so that you will not believe, simply because the District Attorney believes there is a gang of faro swindlers and wire tappers around us, that William J. Kelliher has everything to do with them.

"Far From the Issue."

"It is far from the issue here. We expect you to hold us up to the same legal proof as you will the government. If the government has failed to satisfy you, have the courage of your convictions and pronounce a verdict accordingly, whether or not it pleases a community which has been inflamed by stories in the newspapers. If in what follows I appear technical, I can't help it. It is the law which accuses the individual, it is the law which establishes the rule by which we are governed. In order to find Kelliher guilty, you must find that Coleman was able to extract funds from the National City Bank in the exact manner which the government alleges he did, namely, by knowingly and willingly failing to notify Cashier Earl that his, Coleman's account, was overdrawn. If you find upon the proof which the government has offered and which we will offer, that Earl was not misled, that he knew it, winked at it, connived at it, you will have to find that the charge of the government is not supported. In order to find Keliher guilty you must find him guilty in the exact, precise way in which the government charges.

Must Be a Reasonable Doubt.

"The liberty of the defendant here is as dear to him as to anybody else. Before you find a man guilty you must find him guilty on the evidence adduced by the Government beyond a reasonable doubt. The law has humanely thrown about him the presumption of innocence like a cloak, and until the Government has smashed that by a fair preponderance of the evidence, he stands before you an innocent man. The evidence must satisfy you beyond a reasonable doubt.

"The best way for me to illustrate what a reasonable doubt means is for me to call your attention to the handwriting expert, Mr. Hingston, who was on the stand to-day. You remember his testimony. Would any one of you on an important affair in life act upon testimony of the nature given here by him?

"Three weeks before the National City Bank went under, I have already told you, Earl drew out his money. We will show you that Lombard, who had an account there and who was one of the trustees, went to Earl and said to him: 'Do you know what the bookkeeper is doing? Do you see the diamonds he is wearing? Do you see the life that he is living?'

The Lombard Stories.

"We will also show you how Lombard came into the bank to deposit some more money; that there was put through the wicket a note in writing. The note was put out by Earl. It was unsigned. The note was something like this:

"'I have investigated the stories you tell me about Coleman. He laughed at them. I don't care what you say, but it might hurt the bank. I ask you that if you hear these stories repeated you will say that they were untrue.'

"This little note was unsigned. We will present you evidence from an officer named Rowe, a police officer of Cambridge. This officer goes into the bank, and from something that he sees of Coleman he tells Earl that Coleman is running wild and keeps company with women of poor reputation. We will introduce evidence to show that Earl said, 'We are satisfied with him, and if so, we want no comment.' With that, the officer left the bank."

At this point Mr. French objected to the line of argument offered by Mr. Pratt, but Judge Hall allowed Pratt to continue.

"We will further tell you of a conversation between Coleman and his father after Coleman had returned from Kansas City. This was before his father went to New York with him. He had a talk with his father, and he said to him at that time:

"'Father, for the last two months every officer in that bank knew what I was doing.'

Reviews the Accusation.

"The allegation against the defendant is that William J. Keliher, well knowing the premises, did aid and abet George W. Coleman with intent to defraud. If you find by a preponderance of evidence that he well knew those premises and you find that he aided and abetted Coleman to take $3,000 at different times from the bank, you will be warranted in finding him guilty; but I say now that you cannot do so on the testimony of George W. Coleman alone. George W. Coleman, self accusee, comes here and you hear his testimony. His Honor will instruct you that you could convict Kelliher after the testimony of Coleman had been corroborated on some material point which would in and of itself be proof of such a part as he is alleged to have taken in the crime. You cannot say, 'I believe that he was in the hands of bad men, that he was their tool; therefore I convict the man charged with aiding and abetting him.' You cannot convict on his testimony alone. It must be strong corroboration. You would not look to Wilson W. Lockhart for corroboration, because if his story is true he is an accomplice, too.

"Coleman determined not to go away for good, but to visit his sweetheart and then return. The idea of making so much of that $200 sent on by Keliher, if it was sent on to him by Keliher. Why, $200 wouldn't last Coleman over night.

Coleman Didn't Blame "Bill."

"We shall show you that long before Coleman met the United States officers, except the marshals who placed him under arrest, he gave out an interview at his home in Cambridge with his lawyer, Mr. Winslow, present and with a stenographer to take down what he said. When he was asked the question, 'did Keliher know you were taking money from the bank?' he said 'No, Keliher might have guessed it, but he never let me know that he knew, and he never let me suspect that he did know.'

"We shall show you that Coleman said repeatedly that a rich relative had died and left him $300,000; that some of it was already available and that the remainder would be soon. We will show you, referring to this alleged legacy, that Coleman said that he was going to 'spend it to the limit.' He told this in the presence of Keliher not once, but many times, and he told it in the presence of the gentleman who was then his counsel, Henry Winslow.

"Coleman went before the Suffolk Grand Jury and we will show you that George W. Coleman, with the name of God upon his lips, swore before that body to what he knew to be false. We will have that testimony before you and you will see that he told the Suffolk Grand Jury an entirely different story than he told you here.

"He went down to see Keliher and he told Keliher, 'French thinks I'm lying.' French had a keen insight of human nature."

At this point Judge Hale interrupted Mr. Pratt and court adjourned until 9:30 o'clock Tuesday. It was then 12:30 o'clock.

Clash About Marshall.

The trial opened to-day with a clash between Mr. French and Mr. Coakley over the admission of the book from the Election Commissioners' office, in which the latter declared the real John R. Marshall had signed his name. Mr. French declared that the book was extraneous evidence, and that the rule of the United States Court was against its admission.

Judge Hale—I do not consider this signature extraneous.

French—The rule of the United States Court is against it.

Coakley—Why the book is already in evidence, isn't it, Judge?

Judge Hale—Yes.

French—You should reverse your decision and remove it.

Coakley—I will be ready later to show that it is the genuine signature of John R. Marshall.

Judge Hale—I admit the book.

Coakley—I desire the jury to examine the book.

French—Will you produce the real John R. Marshall in court, Mr. Coakley?

Coakley—Why don't you produce him?

French—Because he is your witness.

Jury Examines Signature.

Coakley—He is not, he's your witness.

The jury, with Mr. French's spyglass, take a good look at the signature.

Mr. Hingston, the expert on handwriting, had testified that Keliher had signed the name John R. Marshall to all of the contracts of the firm and then admitted that the writing in the election book was the same as the name signed to the contracts. Later Hingston changed his mind.

Expert Hingston was further cross-examined by Mr. Coakley when court opened.

Q.—I show you a paper marked "City Trust Company," with the name of John R. Marshall upon it. Did the same person who wrote Exhibit 66, which is an application for a Western Union money order for $200, also write the name which appears on the paper I have handed you? A.—I have not seen this before. I would not care to give an opinion now.

Other Handwriting Offered.

Q.—I hand you a blank book with the name Charles E. Stockbridge written on the outside of it. I call your attention to the name John Marshall, Hamilton Hotel, Bermuda, in this book, and also to the name John Marshall, Quincy House, Boston, and I ask you if the man who wrote those two entries is the same who wrote the application for a Western Union money order? A.—I would not want to express an opinion without examining them first.

Charles F. Ames, superintendent of the Western Union's main office on State street, testified that the Marshall office slips headed: "Boston Bureau, Western Union Telegraph Company, Racing Department," were fakes.

Coleman Again in Court.

Coleman was then brought in from the marshal's office. He spoke with Miss Hightower and his mother and remained with them during a recess ordered.

Elmer Chickering, the photographer, was called. He identified exhibits as photographs of Martin J. Walsh taken in his place. He showed the negative and said he knew Walsh personally. The sitting was on December 26, 1909.

Coleman was then recalled and questioned by the District Attorney.

Q.—Did Keliher ever mention the name of Martin J. Walsh to you? A.—No.

Q.—Did he ever tell you that he had been in communication by telephone with Martin J. Walsh, the telephone calls being sent from Boston to Buffalo and from North Scituate to Vermont and other points? A.—No.

Q.—I hand you exhibits E, F and G, and ask you if they are telegrams which you sent to Keliher in care of D. J. McGillicudy? A.—Yes.

Q.—Are they all in your handwriting? A.—Yes, sir.

Identifies His Telegrams.

The telegrams were then offered in evidence. They were allowed and were read as follows:

February 22, 1910.
William J. Keliher, care of D. J. McGillicudy, 149 Charles street, Boston:
Meet me Thursday, 1 o'clock train from Chicago.
GEORGE.

February 23, 1910.
William J. Keliher, care of D. J. McGillicudy, 149 Charles street, Boston:
Missed connections. Will arrive in Boston Friday. Will be at Hotel Essex.
GEORGE.

February 24, 1910.
William J. Keliher, care of D. J. McGillicuddy, No. 149 Charles street, Boston:
Have Coakley see me at Cambridge Friday sure.
GEORGE.

Mr. Coakley did not wish to examine him at this time. Coleman resumed his seat, not far from Keliher.

Walter G. Coleman, his father, was called. He testified to finding checks in George's room in February, three for $3,000 and the other for $2,500. He said his son in 1908 borrowed $2,000 from him.

Mr. French closed.

Expert Hingston was again called to the stand. He was questioned by French.

Q.—I hand you the register of the Hotel Lafayette in Buffalo and ask you if the signatures of William J. Keliher on this register were made by the same man who wrote the John R. Marshall signatures? A.—Yes.

He was cross-examined by Coakley at length as to signatures of John R. Marshall, or those purporting to be his.

JOHN R. MARSHALL, REAL ESTATE, LIVED IN WARREN AVENUE

A man who said that his name was John R. Marshall roomed for five years at the boarding house at No. 125 Warren avenue. This place is kept by Mrs. A. Le Favre. To-day she told a reporter that the John R. Marshall who had roomed in her house so long was in the real estate business. She said she thought his place of business was No. 6 Beacon street.

This man came to Mrs. Le Favre's place five years ago, secured a room and remained there until last September, when he told her he was going to be married. He gave her two weeks' notice and paid her in advance all the time he was there. She said he always appeared to have money.

The woman describes this Marshall as a man 5 feet 10 or 11 inches in height. He weighed about 190 pounds, had scanty brown hair and was somewhat bald.

This man was an immaculate dresser, not flashy. He would wear a suit for nearly a year, but would always have it well pressed. He was accustomed to leave the house at 8.30 and return about 5:30 p. m., when he would dress and go out to dinner. He would usually come home between 9 and 10 at night. He had but few and infrequent callers. She knew that he went with a young woman and was not surprised when he said that he was going to get married.

She looked at "Big Bill" Keliher's portrait and told the reporter that the John R. Marshall she knew didn't look anything like the picture.

Mrs. Le Favre said that he never talked much about himself. He was very well liked in her house.

Mutt and Jeff Play Golf

See next Sunday's great Boston Sunday American.

RUSH THROUGH BILL TO AID EMPLOYES

The Legislative Committee on Judiciary to-day reported in the House a resolve providing for the appointment of a commission of five by the Governor to determine upon a plan of compensating employes for injuries received at work. Rules were suspended and the resolve was given its several readings and sent to the Senate. The reason given for rushing the resolve through both branches is that similar commissions from other States are to have a conference a week from to-day, and it is planned to have the Massachusetts commission appointed in time to attend the conference. An appropriation of $10,000 for expenses goes with the resolve.

CLARK HAS TYPHOID.

CLEVELAND, June 3.—Catcher Jay Clark's illness has been diagnosed as typhoid fever, and he will be unable to play with the Naps until September 1. His condition is serious.

CALLS GOVERNMENT FOR ALL GREAT ISSUE

The great issue before the people of this country is, shall there be government for a class, or government by the people for all. This is a question within parties, as well as between parties. The Republican party is dominated by special interests, and operates with them upon a profit sharing basis. We should not be oblivious to the fact, however, that we have Aldriches and Cannons in our own party, and it is the duty of Democrats to lessen their influence as much as possible. We cannot prevent some of them being in the party, but we should keep them from running the party.—Ex-Gov. Joseph W. Folk of Missouri to Democrats of his State.

ROSEDROP HANDILY WINS THE OAKS RACE

EPSOM, England, June 3.—The Oaks stakes of $24,750 over the Derby distance was won to-day by Rosedrop. Evolution was second, Parnell third and Thalia fourth. Waldorf Astor's Winkipop was one of the favorites, but was unplaced, as was P. Nelke's Yellow Slave. There were twelve starters. A great crowd was at the track, the weather being warm and sunny. Women predominated, as usual. Rosedrop, who was a minor favorite, won in a canter, beating Evolution, an outsider, by four lengths. Evolution led Parnell by a neck. The starting odds were 7 to 1 on Rosedrop and 4 to 1 on both Evolution and Parnell.

HIGH SCHOOL BOYS WIN HARVARD COURSE

Five High School boys, coming from various sections of Greater Boston, have just been awarded scholarships of $200 each by the Boston Harvard Club. The fortunate youths are: Timothy Dwight Boot, Cambridge Latin School; Charles Edward Brickley, Everett High School; James Bryant Conant, Roxbury Latin School; Paul Hurlburt Smart, Newton High School, and Philip Henry Stafford, Melrose High School. The Charles Sumner Bird scholarship has been awarded to Donald Rea Hanson of the Melrose High School.

A Want Advt. is often the road to fortune.

UNION HAT CO.

Open Every Night Till 9:30; Saturdays Till 11:30

TODAY AND SATURDAY BARGAINS

Double Legal Stamps every day till noon.

Khaki PANTS SHIRTS

Special genuine KHAKI PANTS

Regular price 1.50 89c

SHIRTS of KHAKI Were 1.00 Now 47c

KHAKI COATS

Fine Khaki Coats, regular price $2.50, bargain price.......... 1.48

Caps of Khaki, special lot, regular price 50c, bargain price.......... 24c

AUTO DUSTER COATS

Duster Coats, entire $2.50 and $3.00 lines marked to.......... 1.48

AUTO GAUNTLET GLOVES and CAPS

Gauntlet Gloves, long, well made, regular price $2, bargain price.......... 98c

Auto Caps, very stylish ones, reg. price $2, bargain price 49c

NEGLIGEE SHIRTS

Latest styles in Negligee Coat Shirts in stripes and checks, all stores selling them for $1.00. Today and Saturday.......... 49c

UNDERWEAR FOR SUMMER

All Shirts and Drawers. We have bought the entire bankrupt stock of a big manufacturer. Here's some bargains. All 50c kinds marked down today and Saturday 29c

Union Suits, former price 79c, bargain price.......... 45c

Sleeveless Jerseys, were 50c, bargain price.......... 29c

Bathing Suits, regular price $1.50, bargain price.......... 79c

Suspenders, regular price 50c, bargain price.......... 23c

Stockings, summer weights, reg. price 25c, bargain price 13c

Straw Hats By the thousands. Buy at this sale

STRAW HATS

We made a lucky purchase of a large lot of fine Milan and Sennitt flat brim sailor straw hats. Get these bargains today and Saturday.

Sennitt Straws, were $2.00, bargain price.......... 97c

Milan Straws, were $3.00, bargain price.......... 1.47

Sennitt Straws, were $3.50, bargain price.......... 1.97

CURL BRIM STRAWS

These are genuine fine shansi straw. A jobber had 350 dozen. We took the lot. Friday and Saturday only:

All $1.00 hats now.......... 49c

All $2.00 hats now.......... 95c

All $3.00 hats now.......... 1.90

PANAMA HATS

A nobby $5.00 make Panama hat for.......... 2.98

Stylish $6.00 make Panama hat for.......... 3.98

The best $10.00 make Panama hat for.......... 4.98

Special Panama Bargain

Untrimmed genuine Panama hats, worth $3.50, bargain price.......... 1.48

Suits Cases

We never had such bargains in fine leather suits cases, all sizes.

$5.00 Suit Cases now marked to.......... 2.69

$7.50 Suit Cases now marked to.......... 4.29

$10.00 Suit Cases now marked to.......... 5.47

NECKTIES

We took a manufacturer's entire stock, including thousands of dozen of the latest shades and shapes of fashionable neckwear, all 25c values. Seldom does this chance come to get them for such a price as.......... 7c

SUMMER CLOTHING

Bought an entire stock of fine summer coats and pants at less than half price, and this sale you can get a

$2.00 Summer coat for.......... 97c

$3.00 Alpaca coat for.......... $1.48

$2.00 Crash pants for.......... 97c

$1.00 Satine coats for.......... 59c

$3.50 Alpaca coats for.......... $1.98

$2.00 Crash coats for.......... 97c

RAIN COATS Special Bargain

Latest style in Raincoats for both men and women, regular price $6.00. Bargain price.......... 2.98

Union Hat Co. 139 Hanover St. 49-51-53-55 Union St.

Open Saturday Evenings

Talbot Special Serge Suits

For Men and Young Men

We have sold over $20,000 of these suits—A sure indication that there is more than ordinary merit in them—don't you think so? The men who bought them were young business men—college men—professional men—men of taste—refinement and of keen discrimination—We want you for a customer—these suits will surely make you one—Let's get together today.

Made of rich, handsome blue fabric controlled exclusively by the Talbot Company—a very fine weave, absolutely pure worsted. Five separate models. Broad shouldered coats. Swell "Boston Made" styles with dip fronts. Trousers fitted with cuffs if desired. $20.00 couldn't buy any better in other stores . . $15

$20 The finest Blue Serge Suits in the land are the "Boston Made" suits at these prices, 3 distinct models. In various lengths, in order to fit the fancy of everyone. Fine, lustrous blue, absolutely fast in color. Built in a masterly fashion by experts. $25

TALBOT CO. 395 Washington St. 66-72 Hanover St. 395 Broadway, So. Boston

F. GRAY CO. WASHINGTON & HANOVER STS.

$50,000 ½ PRICE SALE

3,000 Blue Serge Suits

Guaranteed 14 ounces to the yard—These elegant serges are wool dyed and pure indigo—They are strictly hand made; four different models. No better suits in Boston at $20.00. Our price 9.90

2,000 Men's Suits . .

In five different models, made from pure all wool Scotches, fancy worsteds, in shadow stripes, waterlines, checks and plaids. Every suit is hand tailored; they include fancy blue serges, alpaca lined. Best $18.00 suit in Boston. Our price 9.90

$9.90

$9.90 $9.90

F. GRAY Co.

F. GRAY Co.

Best BLUE SERGE SUITS in the World at $8.90 F. GRAY CO.

Men's Black $10 Thibet Suits $5.90

All $10 Suits..... 5.90

All $12 Suits..... 6.90

All $15 Suits..... 7.90

All $18 Suits..... 9.90

All $20 Suits..... 11.90

All $22 Suits..... 12.90

All $25 Suits..... 14.90

MEN'S PANTS SALE

$4, $5 and $6 PANTS 1.98 and 2.49

BOYS' SUITS

Handsome knicker suits for boys, 8 to 17 years, in all colors; made from fine cheviots and worsteds. We have selected from our regular spring stock about 2,000 suits, ranging in price from .... 3.50 to 5.00

1.98 Your Choice 1.98

One Dollar and Ninety-Eight

5.00 Blue Serge Suits . . 2.98

6.00 Fancy Serge Suits . . 3.49

Boys' Handsome Russian Blouse and Sailor Suits at 1.98

Extra Pants Given Free With Every Suit

MALDEN SCHOOLS TO KEEP HERVEY

Henry D. Hervey, superintendent of Malden schools, who was offered a similar position at Elmira, N. Y., with a salary of $3,500, has decided to reject the offer and to remain in charge of the schools of Malden.

ARE OF SPECIAL VALUE TO WOMEN

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Are a Wonderful Tonic for Both Sexes but Most Women's Special Need of a Blood Builder Makes the Remedy Invaluable to Them.

Every woman at some time in her life needs a good tonic for the blood.

Most of the ills from which they suffer are due to impure or impoverished blood, for in addition to the cares, worries and work of her daily life, a woman must undergo unusual demands upon her strength at special times. Unless the blood is fortified to meet these added burdens, some form of weakness is certain to result.

One of the most common forms of weakness due to impoverished blood and a consequent run-down condition of the health is leucorrhœa. The fact that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have cured this disagreeable trouble will be welcome news to suffering women.

The pills thoroughly remove the cause of this and other forms of weakness by building up and purifying the blood. The health-bearing stream of pure blood which they furnish strengthens the entire body until health is restored.

Miss Eliza Richards, of No. 18 Wayne Lane, Wilkes Barre, Pa., who is manager of the McDowell School of Dressmaking, says:

"A few years ago I was troubled with leucorrhœa and had almost given up hope of getting well. I was engaged in dressmaking at the time and think this tended to keep me sick. I was generally run down, lost ten pounds in weight and later began to suffer from indigestion. I had severe pains in the stomach, became easily fatigued and was often dizzy.

"I was advised to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and did so. I used them just as directed and was greatly benefited after giving them a trial. A few boxes entirely cured me and I haven't had to take any medicine for the past five years. I have always recommended the pills whenever I have had the opportunity."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have been so successful in curing the characteristic ailments of womankind that they are justly regarded as a specific for anemia or bloodlessness, chlorosis or green sickness and weak nerves.

If you desire full information about this treatment, write for a copy of our free booklet, "Plain Talks to Women."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

BOSTON ASKS UNCLE SAM TO AID HER IN THE BIG 1915 SHOW

The Executive Committee of the Boston—1915 movement has written the House Committee on Foreign Affairs and to the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations at Washington, asking official recognition of the Federal Government for the Boston—1915 Exposition, and and also asking the two committees to interest foreign nations in it.

Recently James P. Munroe and Edward A. Filene of the Executive Committee appeared in person before the two committees and explained the nature of the Boston—1915 movement. In answer to requests of the committees, made at that time, a letter has been forwarded to Washington, detailing the purposes and needs of the Boston exposition. The letter is, in part:

"It should be distinctly understood at the outset that Boston does not enter into competition with either San Francisco or New Orleans for an international exposition in celebration of the completion of the Panama canal. As was properly pointed out at the hearing, if that event is to be marked by the holding of an exposition, such a world's fair should take place in some city nearer than is Boston to the canal itself. The Boston—1915 Exposition, for which we ask the official approval of Congress, is far different from the ordinary international exposition, is to our minds more important and more far-reaching in its effects, and, by its very nature, will supplement and enhance, rather than interfere with, a Panama Exposition to be held at San Franciscoc or New Orleans.

Boston Only the Nucleus.

"What Boston itself will have to show as the result of five years of co-ordinate activity will be but the nucleus of the proposed exposition. In addition, there will be shown, by buildings and other structures, by models, charts, pictures and other graphic means, what is being accomplished in municipal development throughout the United States and in foreign countries.

"It is proposed, therefore, not only to show at Boston in 1915 the industrial and commercial activities of this important centre, but to show them in active operation and in their true relation to all those social conditions of transportation, education, housing, recreation, etc., with which those material interests are so intimately connected. In addition, therefore, to a "live" exhibit of business and manufacturing, the exposition in 1915 purposes to show in every possible way the best that is being done, not only in the United States, but all over the world, in the development and promotion of transportation, sanitation, education, housing, recreation, welfare work, good relations between capital and labor and of all other phases of municipal activity in which there is to-day such widespread interest.

Boston First in Field.

"Boston—1915 asks that the honorable members of the committee recommend to the Congress that formal invitation be extended to governments of foreign nations to participate, directly or through their cities, in this unique and important exposition to be held in Boston in 1915. They ask this for the following reasons:

"(1) Boston—1915 was the first in the field in planning for such an exposition and is focussing the activities of a thousand or more organizations upon that event.

"(2) Boston and New England have not before come to the Federal Government for support for any project of this general character.

"(3) Boston has already held, in November, 1909, a preliminary exposition, attended by nearly 200,000 persons, which, although hastily prepared, showed the immense possibilities of such a type of exposition, proved our ability to carry out such a scheme and made a profound impression upon the entire country.

"(4) This exposition will be unique in emphasizing the most important problems of the day—those relating to the conservation of human resources; for it will deal with fundamental questions of city living which are vital to the future of the United States.

"(5) It will deal with those in that graphic way which is essential to make an impression upon the people at large, and it will do this so completely as to help not only Boston and New England, but also every city and town in the United States.

Government Approval Necessary.

"(6) By giving its formal approval to this exposition, the Federal Government will emphasize to this and to other nations its profound interest in civic development and its determination to lend its aid to all good endeavors in this important direction.

"(7) To make the exposition complete, there must be shown, by models, charts, pictures, etc., the best that is being done for industrial, civic and social welfare all over the world. To secure such exhibits it is essential for the exposition to have the approval and authority of the national government.

"We respectfully urge, therefore, that the Honorable Committee on Foreign Relations of the Senate of the United States recommend to the Congress the isuing of an invitation to foreign nations to participate in the "Boston—1915" Exposition to be held in this city in the year 1915."

JULIA MARLOWE WILL SPEAK A "GOODBY"

NEW YORK, June 3.—Miss Julia Marlowe, who will appear with E. H. Sothern in the one-night production of "Hamlet" at the Academy of Music for the benefit of the Actors' Fund on Monday, has consented to make a speech at the close of the performance. It will be a bit of ceremony to mark the change of the old Academy, so long under the management of the late E. G. Gilmore and Eugene Tompkins of Boston, into a stock house. Many prominent persons, both on and off the stage, have bought boxes or seats for the performance.

BEST SUMMER RECIPES—

Information that will save work and worry for the housewife during the heated season and add to the menu many palatable dishes suitable to hot weather, will be found in a special article in the

Sunday American

MAQUARRE NEW POP CONDUCTOR

Andre Maquarre, premier flautist of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, assumed the baton of conductor of the "Pops" orchestra last night according to the custom of having at least two conductors during the two months' of the "Pops." Mr. Strube was a German and leaned towards German works, although his musical outlook was so broad that delightful compositions of all nations figured in his programs. Mr. Maquarre is a Frenchman and believes in the modern French school of composers while he has a soft spot in his heart for the French comic opera builders of a generation or more ago. Last night's program, therefore, had a Gallic flavor. He led with enthusiasm, and the great orchestra responded magnificently.

SPLENDID SONG FREE—

Words and music of "The Big College" without cost with the

Sunday American

BLAMES SCHOOL FOR PRODUCING CRIMINALS

Forcing children in public schools, who are physically hampered, to do work which is therefore too much for them, produces criminals. Many children have defects in their sight, which necessitates their holding their books within six inches of their eyes.

In such cases, 75 per cent. of the energy of the child goes to waste; they become physically incapable of performing the tasks set to them. They consequently fall behind in their studies, and are pestered and punished by the teachers, who are ignorant of the real reason for their backwardness, with resultant unhappiness, discontent and finally truancy of the child.—Dr. John J. Cronin of New York to Medical School Inspection Association.

FASHIONS FOR DOGS—

The latest styles in clothes and decorations for dogs. What the faddists are doing. Read all about it in the

Sunday American

CAMPAIGN FOR CLEAN STREETS

PROVIDENCE, R. I., June 3.—This city will take the initiative in a movement for cleaner streets when, on June 29, some of the foremost authorities on street cleaning will gather in Manning Hall, Brown University, for a New England conference on street cleaning.

The conference will be the first ever held in the United States, and will be held under the auspices of the Bureau of Social Research.

Among those who have thus far declared their intention of attending are: William H. Edwards, commissioner of street cleaning in New York; E. T. Hartman, secretary of the Massachusetts Civic League, and Guy C. Emerson, former superintendent of streets, Boston.

A Want Advt. is often the road to fortune.

WOMEN ENTER B. U. CAMPAIGN

With a team of women friends of the institution into the field the ten days' campaign for an endowment fund of $400,000 for Boston University, now going on in Lorimer Hall, Tremont Temple, is at its height.

The captain of the new team is Mrs. H. P. Boyd, who is organizing a group of women and girls who are to canvass subscriptions that bid fair to exceed in amount the most encouraging results thus far reported by the other teams composed of men.

With another day's receipts of $8,472, the total now is $226,222, leaving a balance of $173,778 to be gathered within the next eight days.

A Want Advt. is often the road to fortune.

RAILROAD MEN WATCHES

21 JEWELED 15.95

Adjusted to temperature and 5 positions, in 20-year gold-filled cases.

Guaranteed to pass inspection on any railroad in the U. S.

For Friday and Saturday, June 3 and 4 only, we offer 100 of these watches. They will be sold with the understanding that the money will be refunded if they can be duplicated in any other store in this city for less than $30.

WALTHAM, ELGIN
ILLINOIS, HAMILTON and HOWARD WATCHES

At About ½ Trust Prices

Special Sale of Movements

Trust Price.		Our Price.
$13	17-Jewel with patent regulator	$5.35
$15	17-Jewel Adjusted, for Railroad Men........	$7.75
$28	19-Jewel Adjusted, for Railroad Men........	$12.75

Jason Weiler & Son

Mfg., Wholesale and Retail Jewelers, Direct Diamond Importers Since 1876.

384 Washington St.

Corner of Franklin. Up One Flight
Open Saturday Evenings

A CIRCUS

The B & B show isn't the only circus in town. There are many people having a circus with their corns or ingrowing nails — just because they will not have them treated at my rooms in the most scientific way.

Fees are nothing to speak of—25 cents for corns and 50 cents for ingrowing nails. Don't forget that I have been established in Boston 22 years—and that my rooms are the finest in America devoted to chiropody. Privacy—women attendants — everything sanitary. Open 8 to 6, week days only.

WATKINS

The Temple Place Chiropodist

29 Temple Place

POSLAM

THE NEW SKIN REMEDY,
Quickly Cures Eczema and All Skin Diseases. All Druggists.

KIDNEY TROUBLE Is a deceptive disease—thousands have it and don't know it. If you want good results you can make no mistake by using Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy. At druggists, in fifty cent and dollar sizes. Sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney trouble.

Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Double Legal Stamps will go given with every purchase mornings, until 12 o'clock noon, at Wolf's "My Clothier." Corner Hanover and Portland streets. Single stamps thereafter.

Men's Best Known STANDARD MAKES OF High Grade Clothes NOW ON CREDIT

By our credit arrangements men can buy at cash prices the recognized standard brands of high-class clothing on credit, such as Strouse & Bros.' "High Art Clothing" of Baltimore, Md., "Fashion Clothes" of Rochester, N. Y., the "Frankel System Clothes," New York; the "Character Clothes" of New York City, and other celebrated reputable lines. Heretofore a man desiring credit on clothing has been at the mercy of the credit houses that charged him an outrageously high price for unknown and inferior clothes.

Orders given for custom tailoring.

S. & H. GREEN TRADING STAMPS
Now Given With Our Famous Order Check

IN THE HEART OF THE CITY

USE OUR ORDER CHECK

PAY $1.00 PER WEEK
Nº 1549
Boston, Mass. June 1910
This Order Check Accepted Same as Cash by the Big Stores
Deliver to Mr. or Mrs. Anybody
Goods to the value of Twenty seven and 61/100 and charge to our account. $27.61
To Any Leading Cash Store in Boston
Peoples Credit Company 433 Washington St.
Cashier

THIS ORDER CHECK taken as money at the Big Cash Department stores and Specialty Shops, and goods delivered to you without question or delay.

It is no longer necessary to pay the exorbitant prices charged by other credit houses.

MEN'S CLOTHING, LADIES' GARMENTS, ETC.

PEOPLE'S CREDIT CO.

Corner Winter St. | 433 Washington Street "Different From the Rest" | Open Evenings

Foster Orthopedic Rubber Heel

The Plugs Prevent Slipping

Makes a firm, even tread

Extends down under the shank of your shoe to support the arch. Prevents the arch of the foot from falling, and relieves all jar in walking. Especially beneficial to people troubled with flat foot. Just the heel for policemen, letter carriers, firemen, motormen, conductors and any one who has to stand continually.

MADE IN MEN'S AND WOMEN'S SIZES.

75c per pair—put on
BY MAIL 50c PER PAIR.
(Give outlines of heel)

TRY A PAIR AND YOUR TROUBLES WILL BE OVER

Ask your shoeman for "Foster Orthopedic"

FOSTER RUBBER CO., 170 Summer St., Boston

Double Legal Stamps Mornings

Men's Oxfords $3.50 Values to Sell 2.75

Two eyelet ties, in Russia calf, gun metal and cadet calf. Four-button oxfords, with swing lasts and dome toes, in cadet and velour calf, tan vici, Russia calf.

"Your Money Back If You Want It"

WOLF'S

"MY CLOTHIER"

Hanover and Portland Streets

Women's Pumps And $3.00 Oxfords 2.00

The oxfords come in gun metal, Russia calf, two-eyelet Gibson ties, patent colt in 3-button effects. Ankle strap pumps in velour calf, patent colt, gun metal.

A Big Scoop

J. Matthes & Co., 17-19 Washington Pl., New York Closes Out Spring Stock At a Big Sacrifice

And still they come. We simply can't get away from them. Big manufacturers the country over have their eyes on Wolf's because of its tremendous outlet. Following so closely in the wake of our recent sale of the big wholesale stocks from A. Levy, 718-720 Broadway, N. Y., we should have turned this purchase down had it not embraced values even better than those offered then.

Now Read About The Suits—Then Come

This purchase embraces a broad series of models from the stylishly conservative to the most pronounced—a suit for every man, no matter what his taste or size may be. Each garment justifies a much greater price than we are asking—and in this fact will be found a concrete instance of the greater values that are bound to result from a store with such enormous purchasing power as ours. There are worsteds and cassimeres and the colorings include every shade that's popular—particularly strong are the new gray shadings, the browns, the fancy blue shadow stripes and some interwoven effects. These suits are in full size range for men and young men—divided into three lots and three prices, as follows:

J. Matthes & Co.'s $15 Suits	J. Matthes & Co.'s $18 Suits	J. Matthes & Co.'s $22 Suits
9.70	11.70	14.70

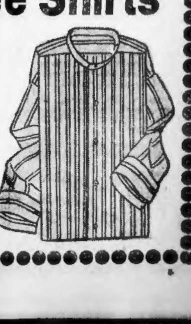
Communion Suit Sale Still On

Blue Serge Suits In $4.98 Values 3.45

Made of navy blue serge, in double breasted styles, with knickerbocker trousers, lined with Farmer's satin—seams are all taped and tailored in a first-class manner by men who do nothing else. These suits come for boys of all ages from eight years on up to seventeen.

Big Sale of Men's Negligee Shirts

Offering Regular $1.25 Shirts At 98c



Coat styles, cuffs attached or detached. Splendid quality madras and percales in light grounds with black stripes and figures. A special purchase price makes $1.25 values 98c.

Redeem Your Legal Stamp Books at Wolf's

MIGHTY POLE HERE TO-NIGHT IN FINAL BOUT IN AMERICA

BOSTON AMERICAN SPORTS

DOVES OUT TO-DAY
TO BEAT CUBS IN
THE THIRD GAME

JEFFRIES AND JOHNSON BRAND CHARGE OF FIGHT "FRAME-UP" AS FALSE

W. W. NAUGHTON.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 3.—The Chicago press despatch which has Governor Gillette, of California, denouncing the Jeffries-Johnson glove contest as a monumental "frame-up," did not cause as much commotion here as might have been expected.

The reason for this is that very few believe that Governor Gillette spoke in the manner described. Promoters Tex Rickard and Jack Gleason are among those who think Gillette has been misquoted. They say it will be necessary for them to have a verification of the Governor's alleged interview before they will bother about it in reply.

Jim Jeffries, when called up over the long distance telephone at his Rowardennan camp, said:

"I hardly think Governor Gillette talked that way. If he did, however, I want to say this much for myself. All my interest in the financial end of this contest will be willingly turned over to charity if it can be shown that I am a party to any conspiracy for the purpose of hoodwinking or victimizing the public.

Will Be Square Fight.

"Moreover I would not go into any contest if I had reason to believe that my opponent, or any one connected with him, contemplated jobbery. I have watched this thing pretty closely, and I do not believe that the Johnson side of it has any idea of faking.

"I am sure it will be a square fight, and it seems to me there is not a thing in connection with it which would warrant the suspicion that it is not to be a fair standup battle.

Jack Johnson, when he read the interview with Governor Gillette, said:

"I haven't the pleasure of Governor Gillette's acquaintance, but it appears to me that a gentleman in such a place as he occupies would not talk in that manner. There has certainly been lots of talk about faking, but those who indulge in it don't stop to think.

"My record will show that I have lost very few fights—just three out of seventy battles and two of those three decisions were unjust to me. Does that look as though I was given to framing up?

Johnson Defends Self.

"I tell you when they couldn't get me to do crooked business when I was poor, they can't now. I have a nice home and have money enough to live upon if I never fight again. I have had the hardest row to hoe of any man who ever reached the championship, and I certainly appreciate the position I have gained.

"There isn't money enough in all the mines in the world to tempt me to do anything dishonorable, and those who know Jack Johnson will vouch for what I say.

"Now just look at the financial side of it. If somebody wanted me to throw this fight, it would be for a price, wouldn't it? Well, how in the name of common sense could any one offer me a sum that would be a small percentage even of the money I can earn if I defeat Jeffries? If I wasn't sure of my ability I could understand such rumors cropping up, but I have felt for years that I am Jeffries's master, and no one knows how pleased I am to have an opportunity to show as much."

Georges
MODEL CLOTHES
14 Summer St.

44 W. 34th, NEW YORK. 15th & Chestnut, PHILA.

Georges Model Clothes are entirely distinctive from Readymades—and a year ahead in style. Built by finest Custom Tailors during their dull season. Our original idea, away back in 1879.

July Reductions NOW

Why should anybody wear Readymades?

Why, indeed, when George Clothes, the superb products of the highest class custom tailors in the country—regularly marked right down on the "Readymade" price level, are now subjected to the following July Reductions, that in other years are never made before the middle of July.

$15 Now $10.00
$18 Now $12.00
$20 Now $13.50
$25 Now $15.00
$28 Now $18.00
$30 Now $20.00
$35 Now $22.50
$40 Now $25.00

And when you stop to think that George Clothes are famous in three great cities—Boston, New York and Philadelphia—for being just a year ahead of readymades in style—is there indeed any reason why a sensible, wide-awake man should handicap his appearance and stretch his pocketbook for ordinary, hum-drum Ready-mades?

Everything in the store included: Sack Suits, Coats and Trousers, Walking Suits, Dress and Tuxedo Suits, Prince Alberts, Cravenettes, Spring Overcoats, etc., etc.,—in style, colors, patterns, shapes, etc.—positively not to be duplicated at the best Ready-made Store in Town. As for fit and tailoring, there's absolutely no comparison.

The selling is strong, the interest keen, the demand growing with every hour. Buy to-day for to-morrow.

In spite of these big reductions, alterations will be made FREE.

Open Daily till 6:30
Saturday Evenings till 10:30

Georges
14 Summer St.
NEAR WASHINGTON

RAWSON LICKS GEORGE MURRAY

Tommy Rawson of East Boston won the decision over George Murray of Lynn in the main bout at the American A. C. after eight rounds of fast fighting replete with surprises. Rawson was floored for the count in the first round, but came back, and in a whirlwind finish put it all over the Lynn boy.

Murray used his famous right-hand punch and when he connected it looked like certain defeat for Rawson. The East Boston boy displayed a shiftiness that bothered the Lynn man, and with left jabs that landed clean won on points.

Another good bout was that between Joe (Kid) Lee of Chelsea and Frankie Barrett of Cambridge, which ended in a six-round draw.

Next Monday night all of the bouts will be among the boys of Uncle Sam's fighting ships, the following appearing in matches: Bud Rose of the Vermont vs. Fred Merton of the Wabash; Billy Mahoney of the Vermont against Billy Yelkhe of the same ship; Jim Landers of the North Dakota against Billy Baskville of the same ship; Young Tierle of the North Dakota against Tom Vernon of the New Hampshire; Billy Morrison of the North Dakota against Tom Keefe of the Vermont, and the final bout between Billy Shevlin and the best local boy available.

SPALDING'S ATHLETIC STORE
141 FEDERAL STREET, BOSTON

GOLF

Superior points of Spalding Golf Balls—
Longest Flight
Greatest Durability
No Cracking

Spalding Red Dot, the most widely played ball ever made. Doz., $7.50
Glory, Glory Dimple, Black and White Dot, Black and White Dimple. Per doz., $9.00
Spalding Model R Clubs..........Each, $3.00
Spalding Gold Medal Wood Clubs, $2.00 to $2.50
Spalding Gold Medal Irons. Each $1.50 to $2.00
ASK FOR SPALDING'S NEW GOLF CATALOGUE
A. G. SPALDING & BROS.

BARTHOLOMAY
ROCHESTER
Rienzi Beer
IN BOTTLES ONLY
Bottled and Distributed by
WM. ALBRECHT
295-305 A ST.
Phone (75) Main
Free Delivery in Greater Boston

Watch the Wear
UNION MADE OVERALLS
SOLD BY EVERY DEALER
Mf'd. by Brattleboro Overall Co., Keene, N. H.
WHOLESALE OFFICE, 77 SUMMER ST., BOSTON

HOTEL HOLLIS
A Moderate Priced
Up-to-Date Hotel
European Plan Suites with Bath
$1.00 Single, $1.50 Double
247 TREMONT ST., BOSTON
Near Boston Common
Telephone Oxford 21259

RE-OPENING!!
Tom McCarthy will reopen Saturday, June 4, after extensive alterations and repairs.
603 WASHINGTON STREET

Standing and To-day's Play in Four Baseball Leagues

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

HOW THE CLUBS STAND.

	W.	L.	P.C.		W.	L.	P.C.
Ph'delphia	26	9	.743	Cleveland..	14	18	.437
New York	23	10	.697	Washington	16	22	.421
Detroit....	23	16	.590	Chicago.....	11	20	.355
BOSTON..	20	16	.556	St. Louis....	7	29	.194

TO-DAY'S GAMES.

Boston at St. Louis.
New York at Chicago.
Washington at Cleveland.
Philadelphia at Detroit.

YESTERDAY'S GAMES.

		R.	H.	E.
Red Sox..	0 0 0 0 5 0 3 0 1 0 1	10	14	2
St. Louis..	2 0 0 0 1 1 0 5 0 0 0	9	19	5

Batteries—Karger and Carrigan; Lake and Stephens.

Washington at Cleveland, postponed, rain.
New York at Chicago, postponed, rain.
Athletics at Detroit, postponed, rain.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

HOW THE CLUBS STAND.

	W.	L.	P.C.		W.	L.	P.C.
Chicago...	24	12	.667	St. Louis...	20	20	.500
New York	25	14	.641	Brooklyn...	15	20	.450
Pittsburg..	18	17	.514	Ph'delphia	16	24	.371
Cincinnati	18	18	.500	BOSTON...	14	25	.359

TO-DAY'S GAMES.

Chicago at Boston.
Cincinnati at New York.
Pittsburg at Brooklyn.
St. Louis at Philadelphia.

YESTERDAY'S GAMES.

		R.	H.	E.
Chicago........	0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 1	2	6	1
Doves..........	1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0	1	8	1

Batteries—McIntire and Kling; Frick, Mattern and Graham.

		R.	H.	E.
Pittsburg......	0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0	1	8	0
Brooklyn........	1 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 x	3	8	0

Batteries—Camnitz and Gibson; Rucker and Bergen.

		R.	H.	E.
St. Louis......	0 1 0 0 0 0 0 3 0	4	3	3
Philadelphia....	0 0 1 0 1 0 0 1 0	3	8	1

Batteries—Lush and Phelps; Shettler and Moran.

		R.	H.	E.
Cincinnati......	1 0 0 0 0 2 0 0 0	3	5	1
Giants.........	1 1 0 0 0 4 0 1 x	7	14	3

Batteries—Suggs and McLean; Dickson and Myers.

N. E. LEAGUE.

HOW THE CLUBS STAND.

	W.	L.	P.C.		W.	L.	P.C.
N. Bedford	19	11	.633	Fall River.	14	14	.500
Lynn......	17	12	.586	Lawrence..	14	14	.500
Worcester.	16	12	.571	Haverhill..	11	19	.367
Lowell....	15	14	.517	Brockton..	10	18	.357

TO-DAY'S GAMES.

Lynn at Lawrence.
Fall River at Brockton.
New Bedford at Haverhill.

YESTERDAY'S GAMES.

		R.	H.	E.
Worcester......	0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0	1	5	2
Lowell..........	0 1 0 0 0 1 2 1 x	5	10	1

Batteries—Duffy and Rondeau; Tyler and Huston.

		R.	H.	E.
Fall [illegible]er	1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0	1	3	2
Brock[illegible].......	1 0 0 1 1 0 0 0 x	3	6	4

Batteries—Wormwood and Perkins; Pape and Lavigne.

		R.	H.	E.
New Bedford....	0 2 1 0 0 1 0 0 1	5	8	2
Haverhill.......	0 1 0 0 0 0 3 0 0	4	12	2

Batteries—Wilson and Pratt; Freil and Sebastian.

		R.	H.	E.
Lawrence.......	0 0 1 0 4 0 1 0 0	6	13	1
Lynn...........	1 0 0 0 2 1 0 0 3	7	11	2

Batteries—Grant and Ainsmith; Gerard and Daum.

EASTERN LEAGUE.

HOW THE CLUBS STAND.

	W.	L.	P.C.		W.	L.	P.C.
Toronto...	23	15	.605	Buffalo....	17	18	.486
Newark...	24	16	.600	Baltimore..	17	19	.472
Providence	16	15	.516	Montreal...	13	19	.406
Rochester.	18	17	.514	Jersey City.	12	22	.353

TO-DAY'S GAMES.

Baltimore at Newark.
Jersey City at Providence.
Montreal at Rochester.
Toronto at Buffalo.

YESTERDAY'S GAMES.

		R.	H.	E.
Baltimore.......	0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0	1	5	0
Newark.........	0 0 0 0 0 2 0 0 x	2	5	1

Batteries—Adams and Egan; Lee and Crisp.

		R.	H.	E.
Jersey City.....	0 1 1 0 0 1 1 0 0	4	7	0
Providence.....	0 0 0 0 0 0.0 1 2	3	7	2

Batteries—Merritt and Butler; Lavender and Fitzgerald.

		R.	H.	E.
Toronto.........	0 1 1 0 3 1 0 0 0	6	10	1
Buffalo.........	0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0	0	9	2

Batteries—Rudolph and Slattery; Spear and Williams.

		R.	H.	E.
Montreal.......	0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0	1	6	4
Rochester......	2 0 0 2 3 0 1 0 x	8	10	2

Batteries—Wiggs and Kitchell; McConnell and Blair.

DEXTERS WANT GAME.

The Dexter A. C. of Malden are without a game for June 4 and would like to hear from some strong nineteen and twenty-year-old team away from home. Telephone 3962 Main or James W. Dunn, No. 313 Highland avenue, Malden.

Before and After the Game

By DYKE CLARK.

A simple little error cut a big figure in that 2 to 1 measly victory the Cubs won over the Doves in the second meeting and Dave Shean, that brilliant young player from Arlington gets the black mark. The score was even up to the ninth when Dave made a miscue on the easiest kind of a force out at second. Then came Kling's safe bingle which put the runner across with the run that decided the game. It certainly was a tough game to lose as the ex-champions were outplayed right from the start and were even outhit. With the game practically in their hands it was tossed in the discard when the sound of the final bell could almost be heard.

Just where the Cubs will land in the race is easy to pick if they can't hit our pitchers any better. Sam Frock with his smooth delivery held the Cubs to one hit up to the seventh inning. Then there was a little flurry and three bingles in a row spelled one run for the visitors which put them on even terms. McIntire, the old Brooklyn player was nothing of a puzzle to the Doves, as they got on the bases in every inning. He did a rare bit of work in fanning two when the bases were filled and shut off the runs. That's the time the old stager usually shows up better than the youngster.

The way Husk Chance switched his team around when a left handed pitcher is put in keeps one busy on the score card. In the eighth he sent two new batters in. Shulte being replaced at the bat after he had something called on him. Old Tom Needham was sent up as a pinch hitter but fell down, for he went out on strikes. When the team went on the field there was another shuffle and Ginger Beaumont went to Hofman's place at centre as Artie swung over to the first bag and little Kane wandered out to the sun field where Shulte had been.

How to bring the man home seems to be one big difficulty the Doves labor under. They only had seven left on the bases yesterday when runs were needed badly. A team must work like a clock to get that point down fine.

That Cub infield is just the same fast aggregation, the only gap being at first base as Luderus is no Chance. If the old leader persists in sticking to the bench it will make a lot of difference in the number of games won before the season is over. Good first sackers are as scarce as sunshiny days just now and Chance's value to his team to win the pennant is beyond estimate.

OLD COLONY HAVE ELEVEN RACES ON

Following are the entries for the Old Colony Driving Club's matinee at the South Weymouth race track Saturday afternoon:

Class B, trot and pace, Young Bayard, Budweiser, Altro L.; Class C, trot and pace, Kent, Willie J., Ben F.; Class D, trot, King Bruce, Roy K.; Class E, trot and pace, Tony Ford, Duffy's Malt, Becky Thisbe, Firebug; Class F, trot, Tommy G., Vic's Sister, Lyndhurst, Coney Elcho; Class G, trot, Helen Dore, Starli[illegible], Lady Sampson, Captain Jack; Class H, trot and pace, Ada Smith, Campwood, Mollie C.; class I, trot and pace, Judge Sheldon Wilkes, Dolly Lincoln; Class J, trot and pace, Queen Lil, Billie S., Frank D., Joe Mack; Class K, trot and pace, Karlan, Stella, Bersa.

Get "COBS" if You Pay for "COBS"
Be SURE that you GET COBS.

"Nine for fifteen cents" is not the name of Cobs. It is only the price for which they are sold. Ask for Cobs—Cobs in the green package. Get Cobs or get angry. Cobs are imitated, but if you smoke the imitation you'll lose faith in every rough cigar at 9 for 15 Cents

Every Cob wrapped separately which means that each cigar is as clean, wholesome and fragrant as when it was made.

The JOHN RUSKIN (Five Cents) is a Kid Glove Brother of Cobs.

FOR SALE EVERYWHERE

I. LEWIS & CO., Mfrs., Newark, N. J.
The Largest Independent Cigar Factory in the World

EVERY WHOLESALER A DISTRIBUTOR OF COBS

JACK MAY BE IN FRAME UP; JEFF IS NOT

By EDWARD W. SMITH.

Sporting Editor Chicago American and Noted Western Authority.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 3.—When Governor Gillett of California said at Chicago last night that he thought—or was it more positive statement?—that the big battle between Jeffries and Johnson on July 4 was a frameup and a fake and it was on the card that the "white would be returned the winner," he voiced the feeling of a lot of supposedly wise fish in California. As a matter of cold fact a majority of people here are looking for some sort of a deal betwen the fighters that will reflect upon the honesty of the battle

The Governor's statement in Chicago that the big fight is to be frameup is going to make it mighty hard for the unfortunate promoters of the affair to square themselves with a lot of people.

If there is such a deal it is a matter of grave doubt if either Jack Gleason or Tex Rickard has been taken into anybody's confidence. Therefore all they can do is to enter the most vigorous sort of a denial.

Johnson's Past Is Shady.

It is an unfortunate thing, too, that Johnson's reputation is against him. He has been accused several times of entering into shady deals for the purpose of getting the money in easy ways. Whether there was truth in these reports or not was never shown. Johnson, of course, puts in the most strenuous denials that he "cooked up" anything at any time, and cites that his losing fights were on the square because it would have paid him much better in the end to have won them.

His defeat at the hands of Joe Choynski was legitimate enough and that by Marvin Hart was always claimed by Johnson as a bare-faced robbery, framed up by certain Californians for the purpose of removing him from the path of James J. Jeffries.

But just the same, these things are going to be rehheársed now and at great length and the Governor's words are going to breed suspicion and distrust in the minds of lots of people who had intended to enrich the coffers of the promoters and help them pay that purse of $101,000 July fourth. The Governor says the only way for the fighters to get the money is for the white man to win, and that is the way it will fall.

That is a plausible argument, but on the other hand, what inducements have the Jeffries people to offer the black for foregoing all the joys and the riches that will follow in the path of victory. It has been pointed out that the Jeffries people could well afford to give over the entire purse to Johnson to insure the victory, as it is shown that Jeffries would be a big card on the road after whipping the big negro.

Jeff Not in It.

One thing stands out pretty well. If there is, or has been any deal along these lines, it is unlikely that Jeffries is in with it. The big fellow is sincere if ever a man was in getting into shape for this encounter, and there isn't a thing about him or his training that smacks of the presence of dishonesty.

Johnson like the spotlight so well that it is hard to figure how he is going to give it al up and allow himself to be whipped tamely and without a fierce struggle. The Governor may be right in his surmise, but it will take a lot of evidence to prove it. The unfortunate part of the whole thing is that the honesty of so many Frisco fights has been attacked, and apparently with good reason.

MILL LEAGUE PLAY SNAPPY, LIVE BALL

Down in Little Rhody the Mill League playing Saturday and Sunday ball, show class. Lowell of the New England League got bumped 4 to 0 by Berkeley the other day, the mill boys batting in a way to beat even a "Big League" bunch, their friends affirm.

Young "Dick" Howard of Boston, a speedy [illegible] had in the pitching brigade of the Mill League, [illegible] club, Heela, 4 to 2 Memorial Day.

The Draper Manufacturing Company team of Hopedale are a top club in this fine little "Bush League." In last Sunday's game they showed live play against their closest rivals before a big, orderly crowd.

"Jack" Chesboro, $75 per, and old Fred Tenney, $60 a game, were the highest priced players in the Mill League for Whitinsville.

TAD GIVES HIS VIEWS OF JEFF-JOHNSON FIGHT

By TAD.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 3.—'Frisco is pne. When I left New York I thought it ias the buggiest place in the world on the ight, but it has not even started when pu compare this burg with it. Almost ery store in 'Frisco has some sort of an it in the window on the big fight.

Some stores have statuettes of Jeffries nd Johnson in the ring; others have phos of Jeff when he fought Corbett, and longside of that Jeff as he appears toay. The cafes have phony fight tickets inted as ads, and cigar stores have hances from one cent to seventy-five cents, winner to receive a ringside ticket to e big bout. Every place you go, every llow you see, everything you hear is on e big quarrel.

Betting on the go in this village is adually switching. At first it looked as ough Jeff would be a 10 to 6 favorite, t now when you go along the line and k the wise Ikes who they like and what e odds will be they tell you that it will a even money shot or that Johnson will the favorite.

Pick Jack to Win.

The majority of course would rather e Jeffries win, but on form they think at the big black outshines his chalky ponent and will win with youth and ed to burn. Johnson gives a show at Dreamland to-night and the timers and clockers will be there on the rail get him right.

The colored bear didn't do a tap yesday except a few miles on the road. weighs 216 pounds and fears that he too fine already so he took his new ed burner over to Oakland on the boulevard and tried it out. Over the phone he ared that every blade of grass for rty miles along the boulevard was ed and that the road was as dry as a e.

"I started to work too early for this said Johnson when the writer quizzed as to condition. "You see when I s East I was nice and round and fought rien way up near 230. I took on fman here a bit later and hit the beam 22. I think it was, and when I fought chel I went way down the scale to 196. as too fine altogether for that go. I good and all that but was not what all exactly right. Here I am to-day 216 and have a month yet.

Knows Jeff is Strong.

I have a big husky gentleman to push haul around, and believe me I needed the weight I can pack on. They tell that Jeff is great and as strong as a . If he can shove Big Armstrong those boys around he must be right. ad Armstrong with me in the Ketchel you know, and I'm Jerry to what that can stand.

If Jeff wasn't there he would not be wing Bob around. I don't want into that ring under 200 not for a ment. Jeff will weigh near 230, I think if he has thirty pounds on me it's going urt in the clinches.

I'm strong and right just now, but a le hardening won't hurt me. I'll box urday and Sunday good and hard, but ink that I should ease up just a bit that I'll be at 225 when that big bell ngs."

oming down Powell street later on I Sam Fitzpatrick, who was with Johnson when the latter beat Burns in Australia. When asked what he thought of the coming go, Sam said:

"You're going to see a black Monroe on July 4th, paste it in your hat and show it to me on July 5.

Jack Will Fade Away.

"Jeff will tear after that fellow so fast that he won't have a chance to think of blocking," continued Sam, "and he'll fold up like a hat rack and fade way with the count. I was with him a couple of years. He met a lot of 'Joe' fighters and showed up like the sun over an oil lamp, but with Jeff you'll see him pitted against the best in the business and a fellow who never will stop.

"Jeff was never hurt by a punch, you know. He took his beating like a man until he was steady and then tore loose. Johnson will have to do that back flop so fast after the bell rings that he won't have time to think, even. Oh, all right, let these guys think what they want. I know, and I'll be there to see it."

Sam blew along, and then I met Tex Rickard. You'd think, talking to Tex, that the whole world declared him to be the bunk so far as refereeing a fight is concerned. He actually is sore to think that they even hinted about another fellow taking his place. He is reading the rules like a lad with a catechism and has five of them by heart now.

"I'll referee the fight unless there's a flood," declared Tex, "and that goes. No one is going to chase me out of this job unless it's with a gatling gun, and I'll be there with an iron myself if it comes to that. They decided upon me, and I am going through with it.

Tex Will Referee Fight.

"All this talk about Eddie Smith and Eddie Graney is the bull. Don't fall for that for a second. Tex Rickard will referee that fight and do the job up to the queen's taste. Neither man will be favored by me. The moving pictures will show that. I'll not touch one any more than the other, and I'll only put my hands on them when it's absolutely necessary. Just tell them East to bet what they want. The fight will be on the square, and I'll be the third man in the ring."

Going down the line a bit further I met Jim Coffroth, the gold-headed promoter.

"Great card I have in Attell and Driscoll, but I wish I could draw half the gate that the big fight will pull," he said. "I never dreamed that the people would fall for it the way they have. Why, everywhere you go there's talk about it. Why, I even had a dressmaker out at my mother's house and actually when I came into the parlor suddenly I found them discussing the merits of the fighters. I think now that I could have bid $150,000 for that go and come out a terrible winner."

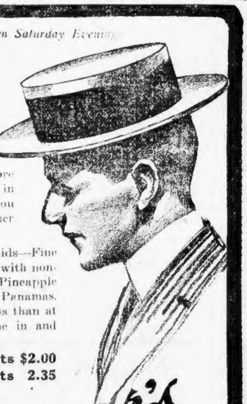
You should hear the people around the State, too. Why there's a special train from this place and that place and the other place. Fellows down the line who are getting $30 a week are putting away $3 a slam to get down to the fight, they seem to figure that a man who isn't there in the arena that day is a dead one and not to be counted among those missing.

Mr. Samuel Berger, the photographer kid, landed in town last evening full of smiles, swagger and business. He says that Jeff will be away fishing until Saturday afternoon, but that the rest will do him good.

"Jim is satisfied with himself now," said the camera kid. "He feels that the hard work is over and all that he needs now is a little fast boxing, a bit of that speed stuff on the road and good care.

Open Saturday Evenings

Straw Hats



There are more good looking hats in this store than you will see in any other two stores.

English Split Braids—Fine and coarse Sennits with nonbreakable edges—Pineapple Grass Hats and Panamas. Each hat priced less than at other stores. Come in and we'll prove it.

$2.50 Straw Hats $2.00
3.00 Straw Hats 2.35

Posner's
23-25-27-29 School St.

I CURE MEN

SPECIALIST
Diseases and Weaknesses YOUNG, MIDDLE AGE & OLD. Reliable Expert Methods. No Cutting, no pain, no loss of time. I cure to stay cured in shortest time possible and furnish all treatment. Ordinary case $2. A written guarantee given to permanently cure curable cases. Hrs. 9-8. Sun. 10-1.

ADVICE FREE
BLOOD POISON cured in the quickest possible time. Ulcers, recent or old, healed. NERVOUS and PHYSICAL DEBILITY. Urinary, Kidney, Bladder and Skin Diseases.

DR. KILLORY 91a COURT ST., Near Crawford House

DR. ROTHFUCHS
Graduate Harvard Med. School
SPECIALIST
I give a guarantee in all cases. Acute and chronic diseases and weaknesses from any cause can positively be cured. I cure blood poison, kidney and urinary complaints. 17 years' experience. No pain, no loss of time, quick results. Advice Free. Pay me as able. Hrs. 10-8. Sun. 10-1. 7 PARK SQUARE.

Medical and Surgical SPECIALIST ADVICE FREE
814 Columbus av., long experience; all diseases of Men and Women. Terms low. Hours 10-8.

Dr. Hallock's

Remedies Cure to Stay Cured
Men's Diseases and Weaknesses

Nervous Debility, Urinary Diseases, Blood Poison, Chronic Diseases, Kidney and Bladder Complaints. Advice free. Our medical book should be read by every man. Sent sealed by mail free, with question sheet. Hours: Daily 9 to 9; Sundays, 10 to 1.

DR. HALLOCK CO.
114 Court St., Boston, Mass.
Office located 62 years at the same old stand, corner Court and Stoddard streets, one minute's walk from Scollay square toward Bowdoin square. The oldest, most modern and most reliable in the country, as city papers show and all residents know.

PHYSICIAN SPECIALIST ADVICE FREE SURGEON
28 years' experience. Most reliable in Boston. 88 Boylston st., suite 19-20, near Tremont st., opposite the Common. Expert treatment, speedy results, all diseases of men and women. Cure guaranteed. Terms low. Hours 10 to 5, Eve. 7 to 8, Sun. by Appt.
Cut this out.

RAWSON WINS FAST
BOUT WITH MURRAY
AT AMERICAN A. C.

BOSTON AMERICAN SPORTS

RIVAL FIGHTERS AND PROMOTER SAY BIG
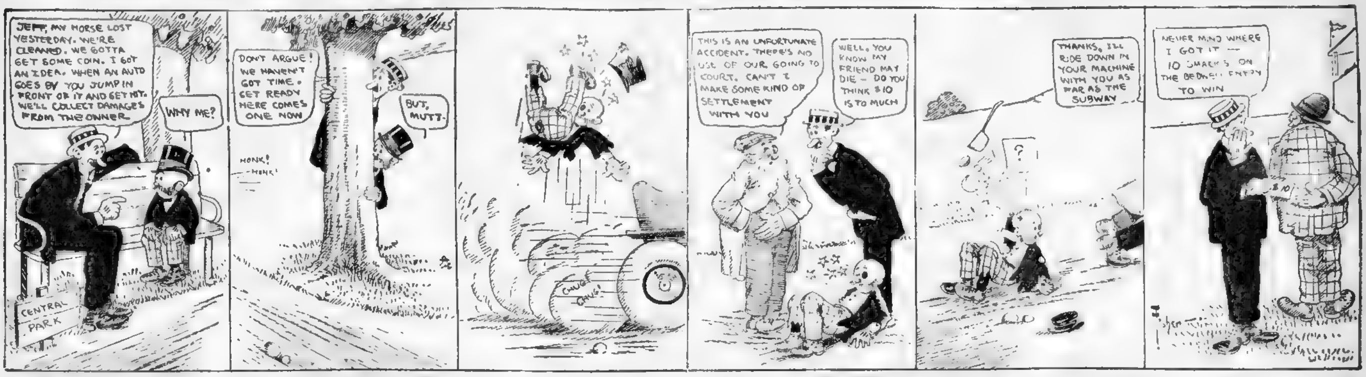
BOUT TO BE SQUARE

Mutt May Be Short on Coin, but He's Long on Resources---By "Bud" Fisher



JEFF, MY HORSE LOST YESTERDAY. WE'RE CLEANED. WE GOTTA GET SOME COIN. I GOT AN IDEA. WHEN AN AUTO GOES BY YOU JUMP IN FRONT OF IT AND GET HIT. WE'LL COLLECT DAMAGES FROM THE OWNER
WHY ME?
CENTRAL PARK
DON'T ARGUE! WE HAVEN'T GOT TIME. GET READY HERE COMES ONE NOW
BUT, MUTT.
HONK! HONK!
CHUG CHUG!
THIS IS AN UNFORTUNATE ACCIDENT. THERE'S NO USE OF OUR GOING TO COURT. CAN'T I MAKE SOME KIND OF SETTLEMENT WITH YOU
WELL, YOU KNOW MY FRIEND MAY DIE — DO YOU THINK $10 IS TO MUCH
THANKS, I'LL RIDE DOWN IN YOUR MACHINE WITH YOU AS FAR AS THE SUBWAY
?
NEVER MIND WHERE I GOT IT — 10 SMACKS ON THE BEDWELL ENTRY TO WIN $10

Mutt and Jeff Play Golf in the Sunday American. Don't Miss It!

OARSMEN PLAN BIG FOURTH OF JULY REGATTA

Plans for the annual regatta of the New England Amateur Rowing Association, to be held on the Charles River on the morning of July 4, were outlined at a meeting of the executive committee at the Union boat house. It is planned to make the regatta the most notable in the history of the city, and to bring to Boston some of the best crews and most [illegible]. [illegible] Fourth of July regatta is in line with the plan to boom [illegible] on the basin.

In order to stimulate interest in the [illegible] Greater New York [illegible] compete with the [illegible]. Several entries for the various events have been promised from the clubs in the Metropolitan district, and it is probable that [illegible] from Halifax. Plans are [illegible] to [illegible] Jack O'Neil of Halifax, national amateur single sculler, to row in the regatta.

The proposition to send either the winning junior four-oared crew or the winner of the race for senior fours to Halifax was discussed.

In addition to the regular program [illegible] junior, intermediate and senior singles, [illegible] doubles [illegible] war canoes and [illegible], there will be a special eight-oar [illegible] race between the [illegible] of Worcester and a crew of Boston [illegible].

It was announced at the meeting an appropriation of $500 [illegible] by the city of Boston. In addition announcement was made of an offer of $250 by the [illegible] committee of the 1915 [illegible].

The regatta committee is as follows: James T. [illegible]; J. W. Cross, B. A. R.; J. H. Pierce, Bradford; H. H. [illegible], B. I. R. A.; Joseph Green, C. [illegible]; J. J. Corrigan, E. B. B. C.; D. F. Rowan, Jeffries Point; J. S. Brassill, [illegible]; T. W. Heeley, Shawmut; A. J. [illegible] Jr., St. Joseph's A. C.; Dr. J. B. Hawes, Union, and G. J. Weiss, West End.

MELLODY LOSES TO JIMMY MORIARITY

LOWELL, June 3.—Jimmy Moriarty of Lowell won a decision over Honey Melody of Boston at the Gladstone A. C. The decision was a popular one with the spectators. During the first few rounds Moriarty had a slight lead, but in the fifth, sixth and seventh, especially in the latter round, the Boston man evened matters up. During the last two rounds Melody stalled and prevented a knockout by hanging on.

CORNELL NINE ON WAY HERE

ITHACA, N. Y., June 3.—The Cornell baseball players leave here to-night for Boston, where they will play Harvard on Saturday, beginning the series of three [illegible] games. The team will arrive with Coach Daniel Coogan at 8 o'clock to-morrow morning and will have quarters at the Hotel [illegible].

The Red and White team is playing great ball at present and hopes to defeat Harvard, Yale the following Saturday and Penn on the 17th. If it can capture these games Coach Coogan says it should be given the championship.

The team is tied with Penn, each [illegible]. Coach Coogan will probably use his Mexican pitcher, Carvajal, in Saturday's game, although Goodwillie may go in.

The line-up will be: Owen, l. f.; Matchneer, [illegible]; Magner, s. s.; Rutherford, r. f.; Williams, [illegible]; Thompson, c. f.; Howard, 3b.; Watson, 1b.; Carvajal or Goodwillie, p.

MATCH FRED C. WITH HAWKINS

Another big card of races is offered by the Fellsway Driving Club for Saturday at Combination Park. Fred C. and Hawkins clash in the fast trot, while in the leading event for pacers are entered Decima Deane, Bonnie Belle and Outcast. These are sure to be hot battles, while the sport will be furious in the other class. Horses entered are as follows:

Class A, pace, Ida G., Attorney, Irene. Class B, trot, Peacemaker, Alice F., Maricos Peter, Labelle, Flirtez. Class C, pace, Esperans, Margaret C., Filter, Max C. Class D, trot, May Baines, May [illegible], Amy, Doctor, Kitty Gatner. Class E, [illegible] pace, Towerman, [illegible], Tiny Wilkes, Mamie H. Class F, trot, Fred C., Hawkins. Class G, pace, Kattie S., Waterman, [illegible], Captain Hal. Class H, trot, Kate McGregor, Ora Todd, Major Greer, Belle J. Class I, pace, Independence, Laddie M., Alhambra, Ben Agan. Class J, pace, Barker, Alberta G., Venture. Class K, pace, Bonnie Belle, Decima Deane, Outcast. Class L, trot, Tower Boy, [illegible]. Class M, trot and pace, Dixie Beast, Lady Almont, Geo. V., Sweet Primrose, Earl W., Mark, Charles H.

STRAIGHT TIPS FOR SPORT FANS

TAD HAS TAKEN BUNK, FEDINCK, Silk Hat Harry, Curlock Holmes and the rest of the family to 'Frisco to see the big fight. They're due on the Coast now, and there ought to be something doing in a day or two. Alfred Henry Lewis, W. W. Naughton, Ed W. Smith, C. E. Van Loan and others will be there to help out for the AMERICAN, and Jim Jeffries himself will have something to say in print.

STANLEY KETCHEL AND SAILOR Burke expect to pull off a bout at the Fairmont Club, New York, before Ketchel and Manager Mizner pull out for the Coast. [illegible] take in the "big fight"; besides looking for some business on the Coast with Billy Papke and others in Stanley's class.

ABE ATTELL IS TRAINING AT 'FRISco for his coming contest with Jim Driscoll. The battle will be staged the Saturday before the "big go," and is billed as for the featherweight championship of the world, despite the fact that the weight will be 126 pounds. This is the new English standard, and is insisted upon by Driscoll. But if Driscoll should trim Attell—which doesn't seem likely—wouldn't Pal Moore and Freddie Walsh have something to say about the championship at that weight, or thereabouts. Moore has it on Driscoll, and Walsh has it on Moore.

THE CUBS ARE DOING AS WELL ON the road as they did in the home series, when they surprised Chicago fans by winning eight straight, with eleven won and three lost in the whole series. In years past Chance's men were considered more formidable on the road than at home, so look out for that pennant.

SAILOR BURKE EXPECTS A MATCH with the Dixie Kid and Willie Lewis if Ketchel lets him escape alive.

Straight Tips—Did Matty Baldwin ever fight a draw with Ad Wolgast? C. D. C. Wollaston.

Baldwin fought a twelve-round draw with Wolgast last September at the Armory A. A.

Straight Tips—Can you tell me how many wins and loses Frank Gotch has on his record? H. L. M.

Gotch has about 100 wins and ten defeats to his credit.

Straight Tips—Will you kindly [illegible] the record of Curtis, pitcher on the Boston National team? Yours truly, [illegible]

Curtis has won five and lost four games this season.

Straight Tips—In a baseball pool A bets B 10 to 1 that he will not win one of the prizes. B is tied with four others for the [illegible]. [illegible] for not winning one of the prizes, does A lose or does A only pay one-fifth of the bet? Thanking you in advance.
Pawtucket, R. I. P. HEALY.

—Let the bet go the way the stake goes—Divide it the way the pool money is divided.

Straight Tips—Will you kindly state in your column the total attendance in the last world series, the players' share and the clubs' share.
Arlington. J. J. McGUIRE.

The total attendance was 145,295, with a total receipts of $188,302.50, of which the players received $66,924.90 and the clubs received $102,547.35. The other $18,830.25 went to the National Commission.

JENNINGS ADMITS HE IS TO MARRY

DETROIT, June 3.—Manager Hughie Jennings of the Detroit Tigers finally admitted to-day that the report that he is engaged to be married to Miss O'Boyle of Scranton, Penn., is true.

Apparently his reason for heretofore persistently refusing to affirm or deny the report was due to a slight pique at the manner in which the story first became public.

WELCOME TO PIRATE.

Jack Flynn, [illegible] of the Pittsburg team, will be awarded a reception Monday when the Pirates open their series with the Doves. Flynn's home is at Providence and his admirers will make a presentation to the player.

STEIN OUTPOINTS WILSON.

NEW YORK, June 3.—Joe Stein outpointed Bobby Wilson, the Canadian lightweight, [illegible] in ten fast rounds at the Brooklyn Beach A. C.

HOW TO LIVE CHEAPLY—

After practical experience in reducing [illegible] expenses without impairing health or strength, experts will tell you just how to do it. Read it in the

Saundy American

LYNN PACER IS SOLD TO RACE IN MATINEES

BROCKTON, June 3. The committee from the Brockton Driving Club having charge of the Merchants' Week horse parade have asked Thomas Green of [illegible] and Henry Murphy of Stoughton and Edward Belcher of South Easton to be judges of the horses in the parade and they have agreed to serve. These three are undoubtedly the best [illegible] of horse flesh in this vicinity and the participants are assured of fair play at their hands.

Joseph J. Papineau, one of the most prominent members of the driving club, has purchased Lady Nance, a [illegible] pacer with a mark of 2.18¼. The mare was brought to this city [illegible], the purchase being made through a [illegible] party. The former owner was ill last Winter and this Spring, consequently the mare is [illegible] of condition [illegible] the speedway [illegible] but little work. Mr. Papineau will [illegible] the lady [illegible] the circuit races.

[illegible] streets and [illegible] of East B[illegible] [illegible] well known as a horse fancier, has bought the trotter Judge Green, 2.0[illegible]. In 1913 the Judge was the [illegible] trotter of the year, winning the $10,000 stake at Brighton.

The great unknown [illegible] horsemen are [illegible] up [illegible] five-year-old chestnut pacer known sometimes as Nate A. He is a son of J. J. Audubon and was brought here from Illinois by Norman Tallman. He is entered in the 2.25 class at the next Brockton Fair.

Lon Johnson of this city has bought the four-year-old bay [illegible] by Bingen, [illegible] 2.17¼. This horse was formerly owned by J. F. Gleason, superintendent of the Quincy Water Department. Mr. Johnson saw the colt trot in 2.22 as a two-year-old. Millard Drinkwater of Braintree has been looking after the horse during Mr. Gleason's absence in the West. Lon has also purchased the three-year-old bay filly, Bononia, by Bingara. This filly is a good trotter.

George F. Atwood recently sold to John Myrl[illegible] the pacer [illegible] 2.13¼. Mr. Atwood bought this pacer last Labor Day [illegible]. Mr. Atwood also sold his [illegible] Dorothy Dodd to John R[illegible] of Mitfield.

[illegible] has bought back his famous [illegible] to send [illegible] O'Leary, with [illegible] Mr. McLa[illegible] retains [illegible] will race with [illegible] matinees of the local club.

[illegible] has bought the pacer Frank A. [illegible] Peterson of West Bridgewater.

FOUGHT GAME BATTLE.

NEW YORK, June 3. Nathan Ehrlich, of Philadelphia, outfought Kid [illegible], a local boxer, in a [illegible] ten-round contest at the [illegible] A. C. Ehrlich was the more scientific [illegible] Tuths was game.

MIGHTY POLE HERE TONIGHT

Zbyszko, the mighty Pole, who failed in his efforts to beat Gotch for the world's championship at Chicago, [illegible] tackles Ali Mehmout, a gigantic Turk, in a wrestling contest in Mechanics Hall to-night. This match will be to a finish, and will be Zbyszko's last public appearance in this country, as he sails to-morrow for [illegible]. A pretty feature of the event will be the crowning of Zbyszko by [illegible] of the Polish leaders of Boston.

The program is as follows: Joe [illegible] of the South End vs. Tony Merino of the North End; Cyclone Burns vs. John Perelli, thirty minutes limit, and Zbyszko vs. Mehmout.

YALE OARS TRY OUT NEW SHELL

NEW LONDON, June 3.—Yale's rowing squad practiced to-day in the new [illegible] and four-oar cedar shells built by Davy of Cambridge. All hands [illegible] the boats to be first class in every detail.

There is considerable anxiety shown over Wallis, who is trying hard to round into shape and take his regular position as stroke of the varsity shell. He pulls a clean, strong oar, but it is a question whether he will be able to have fully recovered from the injury to his right shoulder on the 20th, the date set for the big race.

BIG SPRINTERS TO BE SEEN AT BEACH TRACK

There will be a great field of professional sprinters compete in the bike meet at the Revere track on Saturday night. The best men in the country are in the lists, including Al Goullett, champion of Australia, who makes his initial appearance in this country in the five mile professional and will be pitted against such riders as Kramer, Bardgett, Al Krebs, Jumbo Wells, Eddie Root, Jo Folger, Lawrence, Wiley, Paddy Hehir and several others.

Alfred Halsted, the former amateur crack, will make his first appearance here as a pace follower when he [illegible] with John Bedell and Fred [illegible] Watertown rider. Halsted, although a newcomer among the pace followers, is regarded as a coming wonder.

Harvard Athletic News

By W. E. BURTON

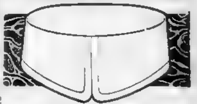
Harvard has indirectly lost a good man in "Bill" O'Leary, coach of the Tech [illegible], who last year had charge of the school [illegible] crews. O'Leary was an invaluable man to Harvard in his old position and was responsible for the training of several men who later became varsity oarsmen. Newton, of the Harvard varsity, was a pupil of O'Leary, who started him for [illegible] one of the prep school crews. There is probably no other man in the country who so intimately knows Coach Wray's methods as O'Leary, and a close sympathy exists between the two veteran [illegible]. O'Leary [illegible] often be found on the Harvard float watching the work of the Crimson crews during [illegible] forms is food and [illegible].

It would have been a [illegible] idea if someone could [illegible] O'Leary to stay with the [illegible] and [illegible], for the Harvard varsity is beginning to depend more and more each year on the timber developed among the school eights which take their spins in the lower basin. O'Leary taught his men the Harvard stroke and prepared them thoroughly for the finishing touches of the master hand.

The excellent [illegible] system that Harvard has built up among the school boy crews is beginning to count more and [illegible] the Crimson's success. The plan [illegible] new one and has been in operation [illegible] over a year. There is no attempt made by the Harvard rowing authorities to induce [illegible] school oarsmen to enter the Crimson university, but this is not needed, for the [illegible] of schoolboys who have been brought up under the Harvard system is necessarily the [illegible] college across the Charles.

Time goes on and so does "Pooch" Donovan. No idleness for Pooch. He isn't that kind. His team may get beaten or it may win, but Pooch keeps plugging on. Yesterday he had several of the high jumpers and runners out and he was as attentive to their [illegible] and worked as hard as before a big meet. From Pooch's [illegible] smile a stranger would conclude [illegible] gods had been handing him prize packages instead of [illegible] knocks.

[illegible] Young, who [illegible] the willow on the Crimson team, has one of the lightest throws that any mit manager among the "Arterials" has ever possessed. Young's relay is as quick as thought, and the runner who tries to beat his wing must have plenty of horse power in his amble. Young has learned how to avoid the mud [illegible] so common among many [illegible] of the [illegible] and he fairly [illegible] the hands of the [illegible].



Frisbie Collars

The Frisco

Made in 3 heights and ¼ sizes for particular men. Sits equally well on soft or stiff bosom shirts.

FRISBIE, COON & Co.
TROY-NY

AT MOST GOOD SHOPS
25 cents for Two

TODAY AT 96 COURT

The first day of June opened big at our shop. To-day will probably be another big day at 96 Court Street. All this is of interest to you if you decide to have us build your next suit, and is of no interest unless you do decide in our favor.

The price will be $15 to $25—the goods are the very finest we can buy in the entire woolen market. Everything guaranteed. Open this evening, if you can't call to-day.

GALE & KENT

Boston's Busiest Tailors

96 Court Street Open Evenings

Spending Money Pays for Sport
Ask For BASE BALL COUPONS
They're Free
A Premium Offer for Base Ball Fans
WHEREVER, WHENEVER YOU SPEND MONEY

Have You Seen the Bamber Panama?

It's time [illegible] and they certainly are [illegible] comfortable. [illegible] already bought them. They are the lowest price genuine Panamas [illegible] in this city.

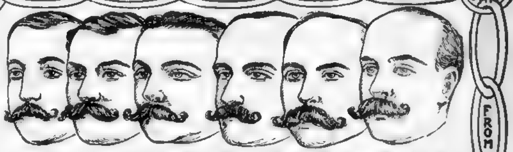
$3.75 Upwards

Straw Hats

All Styles $2.00

Best $1.00 Shirt

Bamber's Corner
SCOLLAY SQ., Cor. CORNHILL



SIX BROTHERS — GREATEST TAILORING CONCERN ON EARTH. — SIX BROTHERS

FROM OCEAN TO OCEAN — FROM LAKES TO GULF

30TH ANNIVERSARY SALE

TREMENDOUS PRICE REDUCTIONS

For value giving all previous sales conducted by this house sink into insignificance, compared with that which started June 1st.

A clean sweep is our intention. Our object is twofold. We wish not only to fittingly celebrate our 30th birthday but to offer such unheard of bargains that [illegible] will remain permanent customers and influence their friends to trade here also.

The entire stock without reservation—some of the imported fabrics worth $5 to $10 a yard—is offered in this unparalleled price sacrifice. Several hundred medium weights suitable for fall wear included.

Come early and avoid the crush.

SPECIAL—A number of uncalled for suits from our out-of-town stores will be sold for less the amount of deposit on each order.

9.75 To Order

Owing to special lighting effects, night purchasing at our store is as safe regarding color selections as in the sunlight.

SIX LITTLE TAILORS

Open Evenings 177-179 Washington Street Next to Ames Bldg.

ESTAB 1880 — A CHAIN OF 109 STORES — ESTAB 1880

THE · AMERICAN'S · MAGAZINE · PAGE

Mirandy on the Anti-Kissing Crusade

By Dorothy Dix

"D[illegible] Mi[illegible] me in de paper about dem women out in Cincinnati what has done org[illegible] an' what [illegible] kiss [illegible] [illegible] what go[illegible] onsan[illegible] charged [illegible] tery [illegible] 'but whe[illegible] better [illegible] kiss [illegible] my [illegible] adv[illegible] Mi[illegible] [illegible] kissin' [illegible] says Mi[illegible]

"W[illegible] a man into kissin' her she's got him, des de same as you can catch a bird when you puts salt on hits tail."

[illegible] a seceress [illegible] been kissed [illegible] shets [illegible] kissed [illegible] erous Christian [illegible] n' what does she do it sue him in de courts for hit, an' de Jidge fined him $10.

An' [illegible] de worst of hit, one kiss kind [illegible] leads to a [illegible] kiss an' befo' you knows hit you has done kissed yo'self in ter matermoney. You don't hear of none of dem great unkissed gittin' married. Naw, sir; dey stays single, on de safe side of de fold [illegible] en a woman [illegible] a man into kissin' [illegible] as you can catch a bird when you puts salt on hits tail. Dat's de reason dat a gal's [illegible] whilst [illegible] is single.

"Now [illegible] de members [illegible] Anti-Kissin' Society [illegible] hit, but [illegible] fool [illegible] out wants [illegible] kiss [illegible]

"M[illegible] went [illegible] has [illegible]

[illegible] woman whose [illegible] he starts [illegible] sort of [illegible] and on de [illegible] of her year, [illegible] back hair as anywhar else.

Such a Kiss Like a Cold Flapjack

"'Hit's a kind of a ham an' eggs flavored kiss, dat seems to say, "Thank Gord I has done my duty," an' has got des about as much thrill to hit an' feelin' in hit, as a cold flap-jack.

"'But [illegible] days when [illegible] home from wuk, he sidles up to his wife an' puts his arm around her, an' takes her hand an' he says,

"'"Ole lady, I declares to goodness dat you don't look one day older dan you did when I fust come a-courtin' you, 'cep'n maybe you is a little plumper, an' I never did [illegible] fo' dem [illegible] pullets' nohow."

"'An' de woman she's tickled most half to death, but she says, "Go 'long wid yo foolishness!"

"'An' de man say, "Des give me a kiss fust," an' he plants one far an squar on her lips, dat sets her thinkin' about de time when she was a gal an' set her cap at de likliest young buck in de neighborhood, an' den, whilst she is sorter doped up on dat kiss, an' her mind is a wool gatherin', he borrows fo' dollars from her an' lights out for de crap game, a-well knowin' dat she is down on both of dem practises.

"An' de funny part of hit all is dat dough dat man has wukked dat kissin' racket on dat woman for thutty years he can still take her in on hit.'

"I [illegible] dat de kiss, rightly wukked wid jedgment an' science, warn't a handy thing to have around de house,' [illegible]

"'As for women kissin' each odder—[illegible]

"'Hit's [illegible] widout salt. Hit [illegible] like breaks in.

"'[illegible] women kissin' each odder,' I [illegible] I sho'ly does [illegible] Crusade, an', [illegible] a general thing [illegible] a charter member of dat [illegible] Society an' wear a bashel of dem [illegible] won't kiss me on em.

"'For dese head lady kissin' bugs is dangerous, an' whenever I meets up wid a woman what calls me "dear," an' kisses me ev'ry time we meet, I begins to think over my past record an' thank Gord dat I'se got a clean slate. Yes, sir, a lady kisser is a snake in de grass. Yes, sir, I'm down on kissin', whedder hit is done [illegible] males or females.'

"'[illegible] I don't know [illegible] says like, 'ef you put de kibosh on kissin', you'll do way [illegible] of [illegible].'

"An' [illegible] 'for, in de way a husband kissed her befo' marriage, an' de way he kisses her after marriage is de thermometer wid which a woman tells how his love is done cooled off.'"

"Whilst she is sorter doped up on dat kiss, an' her mind is wool gatherin', he lights out for de crap game at de corner."

Cast Out All Fear to Win Success

By ELLA WHEELER WILCOX

Copy[illegible] [illegible] nal Examiner

H[illegible] is a little allegory worth reading. It [illegible]

Once upon a time a mouse in the house of a magician lived in such constant fear of a cat that the magician, through pity, turned it into a cat.

At once it began to suffer through fear of a dog, so the magician turned it into a dog.

Then it began to suffer again through fear of a tiger, and the magician turned it into a tiger.

It was then in terror of the huntsmen, and the magician, in disgust, said: "Be a mouse again. As you have only the nerve of a mouse it is impossible to help you by giving you the body of a nobler animal."

It is the same with a mouse-nerved man.

He may be clothed with power, but he will always act like the mouse.

Many of us imagine that our troubles and our sorrows are the result of the environment which fate has forced upon us.

If you were as fortunate as Mr. Smith or Mr. Jones we would not complain or feel that life was hard, but, being who and what you are, we are justified in our attitude.

Blame Yourself, Not Fate

That is the way we reason, but if we were touched by the magician's wand and turned into Mr. Smith or Mr. Jones we would be exactly the same creature.

If you were full of fear you must not blame fate for it. Blame no one and nothing but yourself, and, having blamed yourself, try a mind-to-mind contest, the mortal mind with the divine, and cast out fear.

Perhaps you are afraid of sickness. Your family inheritance may be one which has led you to this state of dread, or your own follies and mistakes have destroyed your belief in good health.

Correct your mistakes and follies and forget you had any family but God.

Think of the vast reservoir of energy, vitality and health in the great source from which you came, and go about your way sure you will be well. Finding the magician has changed you from a mouse to a cat, be a brave cat.

Then perhaps you fear failure in your undertaking. You have never succeeded and you are sure you have passed the time of your life when success is possible. Somewhere you read that a man who had not succeeded at thirty never would succeed.

Disproving an Adage

Set yourself to work to find out the utter fallacy of that idea. Thousands of men have succeeded after forty who were failures at that age.

Milton wrote "Paradise Lost" at fifty.

Gibbon wrote his "Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire" after fifty.

Haydn and Handel composed their masterpieces after fifty-five.

Michelangelo did his greatest work after sixty.

Victor Hugo wrote some of his best works after sixty.

Many successful business men have risen from their own ashes after half a century of failures and left splendid records on the world's history. Think over these facts and, finding the magician has changed you from a cat to a dog, be a dog of courage.

Perhaps you fear poverty, and so are afraid to enjoy what you earn or to give a helping hand to any one in need.

Stop and realize how opulent is your Father, God.

Think how generous He is, year after year, to His world, and how the vast sum of wealth of all kinds never grows less.

Believe yourself an heir to that opulence.

Act Your Part Bravely

Never for an instant imagine you can know poverty or want.

Cultivate the impulse of generosity and benevolence; give where you know giving will relieve suffering or increase courage.

Such impulses indulged never left any man poorer, but invariably enriched the giver in all ways eventually.

"For God has not given us the spirit of fear, but of power and of love and of a sound mind."

As you give, so shall you receive.

The magician having made you a lion, be a brave lion.

Perhaps you fear some vindictive enemy. But remember no man can harm you save yourself.

If you keep your mind fearless, your heart full of love, your life clean and your thoughts free from envy, jealousy and revenge; if you wish every soul on God's earth happiness and peace and light, if you love God and humanity and show it in your face and deeds, you cannot be harmed or hindered on your journey towards the final goal.

And now the magician has made you a man—be a brave one, and cast our all fear.

Julia Ward Howe Says:

Real success for a girl is to be of service to her day and generation. It may be of vital importance to her family to have her follow one specialty, such as housekeeping and domestic economy.

Read Mrs. Howe's message to American women, written expressly for the BOSTON SUNDAY AMERICAN on her 91st birthday. You will find it only in next Sunday's BOSTON SUNDAY AMERICAN.

LITTLE MARRIED LIFE STORIES

His Father's Birthday Present

By MABEL HERBERT URNER

"WHAT is it, Kitten? What makes you look so serious?"

"Oh, I was just thinking."

"Well, is it as difficult for you as that?" But she did not deign to answer.

He laughed and blew some cigar smoke in her face. "Grumpy little thing!" And then returned to his paper.

After about ten minutes:

"John, what do you think I ought to give your father for his birthday?"

"Oh, that's what you're troubling your little head over!"

"Well, what do you think would be nice?"

"Anything you'd give him."

"Now, John, I'm asking your advice!"

"But since you never take my advice—what's the use of giving it?"

"Well, I'll take it this time—I simply don't know what to get for him."

"A box of cigars."

"Why, he never smokes."

He Attempts a Witticism

"Well, if he did—he wouldn't smoke the cigars you'd give. So what's the difference?"

"Oh!" angrily. "When you try to be clever——"

"What did you give him last year?" conciliatorily.

"A dozen silk handkerchiefs."

"And the year before that?"

"A dozen silk handkerchiefs. Ever since we married I've given him that—I've never been able to think of anything else."

"And yet each year you worry about it—make me suggest everything under the sun—and end in getting the handkerchiefs!"

"I know," ruefully.

"Then this time why not get the handkerchiefs without the preliminary worry?"

"Because I really must get something different. I vowed last year I'd never send handkerchiefs again. Now, do try to help me think of something."

Vetoes a Dressing Gown

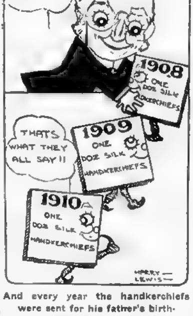
"Well, how would a dressing gown do?"

"Oh, he has a dozen; Belle gives him one every Christmas. That's the trouble—he has everything."

"How about slippers?"

"Oh!" she groaned. "And every grandchild sends him a pair. If you'd only think of something original!"

"A hand organ!" suggested by the strains of one which had started with sudden energy somewhere down the street.



MY! THIS IS A SURPRISE!!
1908 ONE DOZ SILK KERCHIEFS
THAT'S WHAT THEY ALL SAY!!
1909 ONE DOZ SILK HANDKERCHIEFS
1910 ONE DOZ SILK HANDKERCHIEFS
HARRY — LEWIS —

And every year the handkerchiefs were sent for his father's birthday present.

"Well, isn't that original?" as she maintained an angry silence. "Oh, I say, Winifred—a phonograph! With a lot of good records that would be fine! Would amuse on days he can't get down to the office."

"But that would cost too much. I wouldn't give a cheap one, and a good one is so expensive."

"Well, we could afford to go a little more than usual for a thing like that. You ought to be able to get a pretty good phonograph for $50."

"Oh, that's too much! Why we could get a new dining room rug for that—and you know we need one. Oh, I tell you," her face brightening, "we'll both give that for Christmas—you know we always give more then. That will be a lovely Christmas gift—I'm so glad you thought of it. It'll save us worrying then. Now think of something else—something not so expensive for his birthday."

Encouraged he thought industriously for several moments.

"A paper knife?" hopefully.

"Oh, that isn't enough!"

"But you can get paper knives up to any price."

"Yes, I know, but somehow it looks so little. No, I wouldn't be satisfied to give that."

She Decides on Handkerchiefs

"It seems to me you're rather hard to please."

"No—no, I only want to get something that will be just right."

"Well, I can't think of anything else now. Perhaps I may later." He lit a fresh cigar and took up the magazine article on "The Tariff" that he had begun the evening before.

"But I ought to decide it soon," she murmured thoughtfully. "His birthday is the 26th—and that's Monday."

"Oh," comfortably. "You'll think of something before then."

She got out her fancy work and sewed steadily for a long time. Then she came over and sat down on the arm of his chair. He put his arm about her without looking up from the magazine.

"John, I think after all I will give the handkerchiefs—just this last time. Next year I positively will get something else. But you see if we get the phonograph for Christmas, the handkerchiefs will do very well for now, don't you think they will?"

"Splendidly!" with enthusiasm.

"Oh," with a sigh of relief, "I'm so glad that's settled. It's always so hard to decide just what to give your father on his birthday."

Did You Get Mother a New Hat?

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX

I SUPPOSE every girl who reads these words has bought her Summer hat and worn it with satisfaction and distinction. How many of you have seen to it that your mother, also, had a new hat?

The daughter thinks it a crime if she has to wear a hat two seasons, but mother may wear hers five, and no one seems to worry much about it. Don't imagine that because she is old she has entirely outgrown her love of pretty things.

She likes a new hat, just as much as you do, but she is too unselfish to spend the money on herself.

The children and house come first, then, if there is enough left, she may think of herself.

"It's mother's pleasure to do for others," you may say, in self-justification. It is her pleasure, bless her dear heart, but shouldn't it be someone's pleasure to do for mother?

No Greater Selfishness

There is no greater selfishness in the world than that which most children display in ignoring their mothers.

They will let them slave until they drop, taking it all quite for granted. They are not conscious of their selfishness, but they have grown so accustomed to self-sacrifice on their mother's part, that they look on it almost as her duty.

Do you ever think of bringing your mother something pretty to wear? Just try it, and see how prettily her cheeks will flush and how eager and delighted she will be.

Maybe you are not aware of the fact, young men, but the best way to judge of a girl's character is by observing her treatment of her mother.

You call on Miss Kitty in the evening, and you find her in the parlor; fresh and dainty and sweet.

That's very nice; but I wonder if Kitty's mother is washing dishes in the kitchen, putting the children to bed, mending the clothes, doing a dozen things at the end of her hard day's work?

Doesn't Look Well for Kitty

If that's the case, it does not look very well for Kitty to be in the parlor playing the piano, does it?

The girls who are good to their mothers make the good wives; don't forget that, young men.

A selfish daughter is apt to develop into a selfish, peevish wife.

Many girls are selfish merely because they are young and thoughtless; but that's not much of an excuse, girlies, dear.

Try to have more thought for your mothers; return some of the love and care that have been lavished on you.

Some day, when you have daughters of your own, you will realize just how much a girl can do for her mother.

Make her your friend and confidante; no one else will give you such ready interest and sympathy.

Take her advice and judgment when it comes to questions of men. She knows more about men than you do, and her interest is absolutely your welfare.

When girls write to me, complaining of their mothers, I know that, in nine cases out of ten, the girl is in the wrong.

I cannot step in between mother and daughter; that is holy ground, and no outsider has the right to interfere with advice, which, though well meant, may be contrary to the mother's wishes.

The Snobbery of Daughters

Often a girl's mental attitude toward her mother is, "Oh, mother, you mean well, but you don't know; you are old fashioned and fogyish. In other words, the daughter is ashamed of her plain old mother.

That, my dear, is the worst, most offensive kind of snobbery in existence.

It is yourself you should be ashamed of; not your mother, and perhaps you would be quite surprised to learn that outsiders admire her honest simplicity far more than your pretentiousness.

We seem to have grown away from the topic of mother's new hat, don't we?

But the next time you go out, in all your Summer bravery, just give a thought to mother's scanty wardrobe, and see if you can't devise some way of improving it.

The Voiceless

By OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES

WE count the broken lyres that rest
Where the sweet wailing singers slumber,
But o'er their silent sister's breast
The wild flowers who will stoop to number?
A few can touch the magic string,
And noisy Fame is proud to win them—
Alas for those that never sing,
But die with all their music in them!

Nay, grieve not for the dead alone
Whose song has told their hearts' sad story—
Weep for the voiceless, who have known
The cross without the crown of glory!
Not where Leucadian breezes sweep
O'er Sapho's memory-haunted billow,
But where the glistening night-dews weep
On nameless sorrow's churchyard pillow
O hearts that break and give no sign
Save whitening lip and fading tresses,
Till Death pours out his longed-for wine
Slow-dropped from Misery's crushing presses—
If singing breath or echoing chord
To every hidden pang were given,
What endless melodies were poured,
As sad as earth, as sweet as heaven!

THE AGE LIMIT

Quick Lunch Waitress—How do you like your eggs, sir?
Hardened Patron—In their teens.

Just a Little Girl

By GENE LEWIS

SHE was only a little girl,
And I was six feet three
And her pretty gold-crowned head
Just reached the heart of me.

Her hands were small and white,
While mine were large and brown;
And I was her proud protector
All through the lighted town.

I [illegible] not whence she came,
B[illegible] thought it a pity
That this little helpless thing
Was alone in the great city.

Her eyes had a wistful look—
H[illegible] I think they call it;
I spoke a kindly word to her
[illegible] sought my wallet.

[illegible] to speak
[illegible] world to the pretty creature,
[illegible] and then I knew
That was no place for the son of a preacher

HE JOLLIED THE PRETTY COOK

BUT THE GROCERY BOY WASN'T VANQUISHED

By KENNETT HARRIS

THE pretty cook opened the brown paper package, containing the beefsteak, and uttered a scornful, "Huh!"

"What's the trouble, Evelina?" inquired the grocery boy. "Ain't it what the specifications and plans called for? Don't tell me that you ordered lamb chops, or I'll have to burst into tears."

"It's me that ought to do the weeping," said the pretty cook. "Sixty-five cents for that! By the time I get it off the broiler there won't be enough of it to fill a holler tooth."

"A person wouldn't want to fill a holler tooth with real sirloin steak when gold and platinum is as cheap as they are," retorted the grocery boy. "It certainly is fierce, though."

"I asked him to put in a good lump of fat with it," complained the pretty cook. "He might have done that, anyway."

He Had Thoughts of Marriage

"Well, he did," said the grocery boy. "There's a piece of fat there. You look carefully and you can see it with the naked eye."

"Huh!" grunted the pretty cook again.

"Just think if you had to pay for it yourself!" said the grocery boy. "How'd you like that? I'm mighty thankful that I'm boarding. I was thinking of getting married and keeping house. I had a girl in mind that I thought would just about suit me. She's a looker, and, as far as I known, she's a good cook; but I guess I'll have to pass her up, poor thing!"

"There's a good side to most everything," observed the pretty cook. "I don't feel so bad about the steak now. Still, she may have had her own ideas about marrying you."

"She may have, but I doubt it," said the grocery boy. "I think the best she ever hoped for was a sour, cross-eyed milkman."

"If he ever gave you a good poke you'd wish [illegible] tongue in your head," said the pretty cook, indignantly.

"If he hit where he looked he'd never get within four feet of me," retorted the grocery boy. "If he blindfolded himself before he started to do me up I might be scared of him, but not otherwise. Did [illegible] things with the slip? I'd be tickled to death if there was a mistake and I had to make another trip for you, but it might put you out and I always [illegible]."

"Who ordered macaroni?" asked the pretty cook, severely, consulting the slip.

Only a Band to Drown It

"I did once," replied the grocery boy, "but never no more. Not in a restaurant. If I can get it in some place alone where I can use both hands and make all the disturbance [illegible], I might enjoy it, but not where the rules keep you to a fork, and there's nothing but a Hungarian band to drown the noise."

"There's a [illegible] down here," said the pretty cook, "and here's Japanese persimmons and [illegible] ham. This ain't my order."

"Let's see," said the grocery boy. "That's so. I [illegible] go to Mrs. Reynolds, next door [illegible] one. Did you hear that she and Richards were going to separate?"

"No!" exclaimed the pretty cook. "Honest?"

"Search me," answered the grocery boy. "I never did, but I thought you might have. A person can hear most anything these days. Here's your slip. Steak, olive oil, nutmeg, parrafin candles, butter, grape fruit, bananas and shelled pecans. One dozen eggs—say, of course it ain't none of my business, and I suppose the old man would give me hail Columbia if he knew I put you next, but why don't you order your eggs by the quarter-dozen as you need 'em. They're up now about as high as they're likely to get, and if the market breaks you can't unload without a big loss. You take my tip and keep your holdings down and you may get a chance to save something worth while."

A Weight on His Mind

"Thank you kindly," said the pretty cook. "How about my lard?"

"Now, ain't that the limit!" exclaimed the grocery boy. "To think I'd forget that! I never could keep lard on my mind without letting it slip through. If it was a ton of coal or something like that it would be different."

"Quite a weigh on it, I suppose," said the pretty cook.

"That's the idea," said the grocery boy.

"But there's nothing for you to wait for here," suggested the pretty cook.

The grocery boy groaned heavily, and taking up his basket tottered to the door.

HOW TO DEVELOP THE BUST

Wonderf[illegible] we are fou[illegible] [illegible] mail postpaid, [illegible] P[illegible] N. Y.

FELIX KORNFELD
SPECIALS FOR FRIDAY AND SATURDAY
Trimmed White Hats, new models, very stylish, usually sold for $8.00, at 5.00
Women's Trimmed Hats—Stylish shapes, trimmed with flowers and ribbons. Equal to $4.00 values offered elsewhere at 1.98
Women's Trimmed Hats, like cut, burnt top and faced with black, and navy quills and rosettes trimming. $3.00 value 1.45
Children's Tuscan Hats, three different shapes, trimmed with ribbons. $2.50 value 1.25
Trimmed Sailor Hats, rough Jumbo straws, straight and rolling brims, black and colors. 1.50 value 50c
Children's Rough Straw Sailor Hats with ribbon bands. Black and natural, 50c and 75c values 25c
Tel. Oxford 1222
69 SUMMER ST.
NO C. O. D.

CUT GLASS
Rich, heavy cutting of finest quality. Best values and assortment in New England.
SMITH PATTERSON CO
Wholesale and Retail, 52 Summer St., Boston.

Freckles
Are in Full Bloom Now—But You Needn't Tolerate Them at All—How to Remove Quickly.
They are hideous things, those freckles, but easy to remove with the Kintho freckle treatment. It's astonishing how thoroughly this treatment does the work. It makes people write such letters as this from Miss May L——— of Jamaica Plain, Mass.: "I thought it would be a failure, like all the rest I've tried, but no indeed! I had not used the whole jar when you could see the change. Now my face is free from freckles, which I could never say before."
Get a two-ounce package of Kintho (K-i-n-t-h-o) at Houghton & Dutton Co. or Jordan Marsh Co. and see how quickly it will remove even the worst freckles.

Pot and Pan Philosophy
All the soap and muscle in the world won't clean your pots and pans as they should be cleaned.
Ordinary washing of cooking utensils passes over whole hidden nests of little wrigglers—commonly called germs.
Gold Dust is an antiseptic washing powder that not only removes the visible dirt and grease, but goes deep after every trace of germ life—sterilizes pots, pans, pails and kettles—leaving them clean, wholesome and safe.
Just shake a little Gold Dust in your dish-water and it will make your pots spick and span as when new and your tins shine like silver.

"Love's Labor Lost" Given In Open Air For Society

By ELIZABETH ELLIOTT.

Society dramatics have been given such an impulse during the season that has just passed that the Vincent Club devotees, who are extremely jealous of their yearly triumphs in the amateur stage world, will turn out in good numbers this evening for the Radcliffe open air play, "Love's Labor Lost," and those, like Mrs. Thaddeus Defries, who write society dramas and aspire to leadership in this popular form of entertainment, are planning to view the production, not so much with the eye of the critic as with that discernment which is ready to take a new "cue" and perhaps turn it to account for next year's Vincent Club show.

This popular Shakespearian drama will be given in the small bit of woodland in the rear of Bertram Hall on Shepard street, Cambridge, and the stage will be under some of the large oaks with the "natural green" for a setting.

The cast of characters for the play includes the following college girls: Miss Margery Smith, '11; Miss Marion Gragg and Miss Alma Gray, '12; Miss Inez McCaffrey and Miss Erica Thorp, '13; Miss Louise Hodge, '11; Miss Eleanor Danforth, '13; Miss Louise Burleigh, '12; Miss Caroline Solis, '11; Miss Corlyn Buley, '13; Miss Gladys Wells, '11; Miss Dorothy Streeter, '13; Miss Ruth Holden, '11; Miss Virginia Tanner, Miss Anna Burke and Miss Ruth McIntyre, '12, and Miss Pauline Sawyer, '10.

* * *

The date of the wedding of Alexander Forbes of Milton, to Miss Charlotte I. Grinnell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan E. Grinnell of New York, is Thursday, June 9, instead of next Saturday as was announced from New York recently. The ceremony will be performed at the home of the bride's parents, No. 56 East Fifteenth street, New York City. Mr. Forbes is the son of Mrs. William Hathaway Forbes of Milton, and a brother of William Cameron Forbes, Governor-General of the Philippines. His brother, Waldo Forebs, was married to his cousin, Miss Ellen Forbes, in January. Mrs. Forbes is a daughter of the late Ralph Waldo Emerson.

* * *

Mrs. George von L. Meyer has decided to defer her departure for her country home in Hamilton until warm weather, and she and her daughters, the Misses Alice and Julia Meyer, will leave Washington with the first evidence that real Summer has come. They will be joined a little later in the season by George von L. Meyer, Jr., and later still by the Secretary of the Navy, when his duties permit of his leaving.

* * *

Mrs. Charles Kidder, Mrs. Paul Revere Frothingham and Mrs. William G. Weld have gone to the Berkshires for the remainder of the season. They are at present stopping at the Maplewood Hotel in Pittsfield.

* * *

Mrs. Oscar Iasigi, who has been at Clovercroft, her Berkshire home for some weeks and has had her daughter, Miss Nora Iasigi and her brother, Joseph Iasigi, with her, has gone to New Canaan, Ct., where she will be the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Arthur E. Grannis. Miss Iasigi is in Cincinnati for a short visit with friends.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Morss of Commonwealth avenue, are soon to close their town house, as they have leased Red Rock, one of the attractive country places at Marion. They will spend the remainder of the season there.

* * *

Recent additions to the North Shore Summer colony at Marblehead Neck are Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Shuman, who have recently closed their town house on Beacon street. They are not returning to town before the Autumn.

* * *

Mrs. Henry W. Chapin of Newbury street, is visiting with friends in New York. She is stopping at the Waldorf-Astoria.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Norman and their daughter, Miss Hope Norman, have returned from their trip abroad and are at Newport, where they will spend the remainder of the Summer.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fairchild of Cambridge, has been joined at their Newport villa by their daughter, Miss Fairchild. They will spend the remainder of the season at Newport.

* * *

Bishop and Mrs. John W. Hamilton and their daughter, Miss Heloise Hamilton, are sailing from New York tomorrow. They leave on the Caledonia for Glasgow. Bishop Hamilton, like Bishop William Lawrence, will attend the world missionary conference in Edinburgh. The Hamiltons will be abroad about two months, returning to this country in August.

* * *

F. S. Arnold and Miss Gladys Arnold of this city, are spending some time at Hot Springs, Va., where there is a large Boston colony at this time each year.

* * *

Mrs. M. W. Dennett, who recently went to New York to live, was in town yesterday and was entertained by a group of her friends here.

* * *

Miss Anna Howard Shaw of New York, who is well known here, and Miss Rachel Costelloe of London, who was recently the guest of Mrs. Wirt Dexter of Commonwealth avenue, are sailing from New York tomorrow for a Summer in England and Scotland.

* * *

Dr. and Mrs. Francis L. Babcock of Dedham, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mildred Babcock, to Dr. Harold Lester Babcock. Dr. Babcock is a member of this year's graduating class of Boston University. Miss Babcock is also a physician.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Bagley of Winchester, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Bertha A. Bagley, to George H. Henry of Lincoln, N. H.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Alanson Bigelow, Philip S. Sears and his family, Frank H. Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Allen and Mrs. A. E. Austen and her family returned on the Ivernia from abroad.

A MISTAKE

"Miss Prettyface, who married the old millionaire, simply sold herself."

"She didn't do anything of the kind."

"I know she did."

"I know she didn't. I was at the wedding and saw her given away."

THE SHOCKING

"What did you find particularly shocking at that play?"

"The people I saw in the audience whom I had hitherto regarded as sedate and conservative people."

THE FORTUNE HUNTER

How a Business Failure Wins Success Through Love and Stick-to-itiveness

By JOSEPH LOUIS VANCE

Copyright, 1910, by Winchell Smith and Joseph Louis Vance.

Synopsis of Previous Instalments

NATHANIEL DUNCAN has lost his job with Atwater & Spaulding, importers, after confessing to the firm that he is "a failure in life."

It is the last of a long series of failure "to hold down" good jobs, which his friend, Harry Kellogg, a rising Wall Street man, has secured for him.

Kellogg and Duncan were chums together when Kellogg was making his way through college, and when Duncan, the pampered son of a rich father, aided him financially and in other ways to complete his course.

Duncan led a life of regal ease until he was five years out of college, when a financial crash wiped out his father's fortune and killed the old man. Duncan, penniless, was forced to shift for himself. Pride kept him from communicating with any of his old time acquaintances, and it was not until he had sunk to the lowest dregs that Kellogg, who had not seen him since college days, found his once affluent chum, a derelict on one of the benches in Washington Square. He took Duncan to his richly furnished bachelor quarters, near Fifth avenue, rehabilitated and introduced him to his Wall Street friends and secured for him job after job.

A life of idleness and richness, however, told heavily against the young man, and he lost every job as soon as he got it.

Now he was on his way to see Kellogg, determined no longer to impose on his friend, and, if need be, to go back to the life from which Kellogg had rescued him.

At Kellogg's room he hears great news. Kellogg has been taken into the powerful Wall Street form of L. J. Bartlett & Co., as the junior member. Kellogg refuses to let him go, and demands that he remain for dinner and celebrate the event. Over the coffee and cigars Duncan unbosoms himself. "Once and for all," he tells Kellogg, "I am through imposing on you. I won't take any more favors at your hands. I can't go on living on you."

Kellogg is stumped, but only for a moment. A brilliant idea comes to him. Duncan has hinted at the river and suicide. He is willing to do anything to make money, but will not accept charity.

"I know a way," said Kellogg, his face all animation, "by which, if you'll discard a scruple or two, you can be worth a million dollars—or thereabouts—in a year."

Duncan sits agape, believing his friend had suddenly gone mad. He makes Kellogg repeat it over and over again to make sure that his ears were not playing him some fanciful trick.

But Kellogg is deadly serious, and, while Duncan sits spellbound, he outlines, in all its details, an amazing plan, in which Duncan is to play the role of a fortune hunter, and to seek an heiress in some inland town, away from the influence of large cities, and where the marriageable female population is to male population in the ratio of 4 to 1.

"I can't pick out the exact locality," says Kellogg, "or name the exact size of her pile, but it will be anywhere from several hundred thousand to a million or more."

Kellogg paints the prospects in such glowing colors to Duncan that he determines to try his luck. His mentor lays down rules, principal among which are that Nat must not smoke, take any intoxicating drink, swear or use slang, and, above all, he must join a church. He is to pick out a garrulous old maid as a boarding mistress, who will gossip about his quiet, studious ways, and he is to seek a job in a dry goods store, "because the ribbon counter clerk is looked upon by the heiress as her social equal." He is not to make the fatal error of working in a grocery or a hardware store.

In church he is not to sing too loudly, but only be "just natural;" and he is to be sure to shake hands with the deacons after service.

"By that time," says Kellogg, "all the girls in town will be falling all over themselves to get to you first, and their fond parents will be egging you on."

"But don't get excited," warns Kellogg; "all you have to do is wait, pick out the one with the biggest bundle and the game is yours."

"Above all," he adds, "don't make a play for her; she will do all the courting."

CHAPTER III.—(Continued.)

DUNCAN laughed shortly and tilted back in his chair, selecting another cigarette. "And you're the chap who wanted me to go to some bromidic old show to-night! Harry, you're immense. Why didn't you ever let me suspect you had all this romantic imagination in your system?"

"Imagination be blowed, son. This is business." Kellogg removed the stopper from the decanter and filled both glasses again. "Well, what do you say?"

"I've just said my say, Harry. It's amazing; I'm proud of you."

"But will you do it?"

"Everything else aside, how can I? I've got to live, you know."

"But I propose to stake you."

Duncan came down to earth. "No, you won't; not a cent. I'm in earnest about this thing; no more sponging on you, Harry. Besides——"

"No, seriously, Nat; I mean this, every word of it. I want you to do it—to please me, if you like. I've a notion something will come of it. And I believe from the bottom of my heart there's not the slightest risk if you'll play the cards as they fall, according to Hoyle."

On a Business Basis.

"Harry, I believe you do."

"I do, firmly. And I'll put the proposition on a business basis, if you like."

"Go on; there's no holding you."

"You start out to-morrow and order your war kit. Get everything you need, and plenty of it, and have the bills sent to me. You can be ready inside of a fortnight. The day you start I'll advance you $500. When you're married you can repay me the amount of the advance with interest at ten per cent, and I'll consider it a mighty god deal for myself. Now, will you?"

"You mean it?"

"Every word of it. Well?"

For a moment longer Duncan hesitated; then the vision of what he must return to, otherwise, decided him. In desperation he accepted. "It's a drowning man's straw," he said, a little breathlessly. "I'm sure I shouldn't. But I will."

Kellogg flung a hand across the table, palm uppermost.

"Word of honor, Nat"

The Bargain Is Sealed.

Duncan let his hand fall into it. "Word of honor! I'll see it through."

"Good! It's a bargain." Kellogg lifted his glass high in the air. "To the fortune hunter!" he cried half laughing.

Duncan nervously fingered the stem of his glass.

"God help the future Mrs. Duncan!" he said, and drank.

CHAPTER IV.

Triumph of Mr. Homer Littlejohn.

THE twenty-first of June was a memorable day of triumph to me, a day of memorable events for Radville.

Only the evening previous Will Bigelow and I had indulged in acrimonious argument in the office of the Bigelow House, the subject of contention being the importance of the work to which I am devoting my declining years, to-wit, the recording of "The History of Radville Township, Westerly County, Pennsylvania"; Will maintaining with that obstinacy for which he is famous that nothing ever had happened, does happen, can or will happen in our community, I insisting gently but firmly that it knows no day unmarked by importance occurrence (for it would ill become me, as the only literary man in Radville, to yield a point in dispute with the proprietor of the town tavern).

Besides, he was wrong, even as I was indisputably right—only he had not the grace to admit it. We ended vulgarly with a bet, Will wagering me the best five-cent clear Havana in the Bigelow House sample room that nothing worth mentioning would take place in Radville before sundown of the following day.

The Bigelow House's Owner.

I left him, returning to my room at Miss Carpenter's.

He's an adventurer at heart, Will Bigelow, a romantic soul crusted heavily with character, like a volcano smouldering beneath its lava. For many years he has managed the Bigelow House, with his thoughts apart from it, his eyes ever seeking the horizon that recedes beyond the soaring rim of our encircling cup of his, his heart forever yearning forth to the outer world; which he erroneously conceives to be a theatre of events—as if outside of Radville only could there be things worth seeing, considering, or doing, or matters of any sort that move momentously!

As long as I've known the man (and we played truant together fifty years ago—hookey, we called it then) he's had his heart set on going forth from Radville, "for to admire and for to see, for to view this wide world o'er"; always he has presented himself to me as one poised on the pinacle of purpose, ready the next instant to dive and strike out into the teeming unknown beyond the barrier hills.

But this promise he has never fulfilled. He still maintains that he will surely go—next week—after the hayin's over—as soon as the ice is in—the minute Mary graduates from high school. * * * But I know he never will.

So to Will, Radville is as dull as ditchwater to a teamster; to me it's as fascinating as that same ditchwater to a biologist with a telescope. I see nothing going on in the world outside of Radville more important than our daily life.

Too long I have lived away from it, a stranger in strange lands, not to appreciate its relative significance and the scheme of things. It makes all the difference—the viewpoint: Will sees Radville from its homely heart outward. I stand on its boundaries, a native but yet, somehow in the local esteem, by reason of my long residence in the East, an outlander. Thus I get a perspective upon the place, to Will and his ilk denied.

It seems curious that things should have fallen out thus for the two of us; that Will Bigelow, all afire with the lust for travel, should have been mustered up enterprise enough to break his home ties, while I, whose dearest desire had always been to live no day of my allotted span away from Radville, should have been, in a manner which I'm bound presently to betray, forced out into the world; that he, the rebellious stay-at-home, cursing the destiny which chained him, should have prospered and become the man of substance he is, while I, mutinously venturing, should have returned only to watch my sands run out in poverty—what's little better.

A Contented Little Town

Not that I would have you think me whining. I have enough, little but ample for my simple needs, if inadequate for my ambitions or my neighbors' necessities. My editorial work for the Radville Citizen is quite remunerative, while my weekly column of local gossip for the Westerly Gazette brings me in a little, and I've one or two other modest sources of still more modest income.

But Radville folks are poor, many of them, many who are very dear to me for old sake's sake. There's Sam Graham. * * * Though I wouldn't have you understand tahat as a community we are not moderately prosperous and contented, comfortable if not energetic and advanced.

This is not a pushing town; it has never known a boom. That I'm sure will some day come, but I hope not in my time. I have faith in the mountains that fold us roundabout; they are rich with the possibilities of coal and iron, and year by year are being more and more widely opened up and developed; year by year the ranks of flaming, reeking coke ovens push farther on beside the railway that penetrates our valley. But as yet their smoke does not foul our skies, nor does their refuse pollute our river, nor their soot tarnish our vegetation. And, as I say, I hope this is not to be while I live, though sometimes I have fears. Blinky Lockwood made a fortune selling the coal that was discovered beneath his father's old farm over Westerly way, and ever since that there's been more or less quiet prospecting going on in our vicinity.

I shall be sorry to see the day when Radville is other than as it is—the quiet, peaceful, sleepy little town, nestling in the bosom of the hills, clean, sweet and wholesome * * *

But this is rambling far from the momentous twenty-first of June, my day of triumph.

I shall try to set down connectedly and coherently the events which culminated in the humbling of Will Bigelow to the dust.

(To Be Continued To-morrow).

I'll Own Right Up

By KENNETT HARRIS.

I'LL own right up to what I can't conceal,
And I'm famed for candor, more or less.
Anticipating some one else's squeal
I've saved myself from many an ugly mess.

If I've bestowed a fatherly caress
Upon a damsel who declares that she'll
Inform my wife, I hasten to confess.
I'll own right up to what I can't conceal.

I'm strictly honest, but if I should steal,
And was convinced that folks could only guess,
I'd shut my mouth at once, close up, congeal—
And I'm famed for candor, more or less.

If I indulged, some evening, to excess,
And found I couldn't keep an even keel,
I would admit it, though with much distress,
Anticipating some one else's squeal.

I use this method in a business deal,
In which I pride myself on my address;
By owning flaws that time would soon reveal,
I've saved myself from many an ugly mess.

Ask me if black is black, I'll answer yes,
Decidedly; and you, of course, will feel
That I am frank almost to foolishness.
Thus, when the need is urgent, plain and real,
I'll own right up.

NERVOUS FEMININE FEET

"MANY women have nervous feet," said a dealer in women's shoes in a large department store recently. "I have been selling shoes for the greater part of my life and I have made a study of how the shoes affect the mind and the body. I have studied the structure of the foot. My experiences have convinced me that many women have unusually sensitive feet. I call them nervous feet. If they do not get a shoe that fits them properly, their entire system is affected."

A SPLENDID MATCH.

Archie—Miss Smartun has brains enough for two, by Jove!

Edie—Then why don't you marry her Archie?

"The Busiest Corner on Boston's Busiest Street"

James A. Houston Company

P. H. MAGRANE, Pres. P. B. MAGRANE, Treas.

As comparative prices are generally exaggerated in Boston today, they are entirely omitted from this store's advertising. Merchandise of this store's standard needs no exaggeration or misrepresentation.

Misses' and Girls' Summer Dresses

SPECIAL

Misses' Batiste White Dresses 9.75

Two insertions of embroidery in front and cross insertions of lace; yoke, sleeves and flounce trimmed with lace—a dainty yet serviceable gown for class day or confirmation. Sizes 14 to 18 .... $9.75

SILK DRESSES
Foulard, Taffeta, Pongee 12.75 to 25.00

TUB DRESSES
Gingham, Percale, Muslin, Dimity, Linen 95c to 10.00

WHITE DRESSES
Graduation, Confirmation, First Communion 7.50 to 29.50

At $7.50 the assortment includes: Allover embroideries, lace trimmed organdie, lace trimmed net, dainty lingerie, open English eyelet work, lawns.

Princess Dresses for Girls, 6 to 14. From $7.50 to $16.50

SPECIAL

Girls' Flouncing White Dresses 5.00

Made allover with two deep flounces. Waist also of allover English embroidery, lace yoke and cuffs. A dress that is at once dressy and practical, being easily laundered. Also organdie and net dresses, made with inserts of lace, over lawn slip. Sizes 6 to 14 years... $5.00

Extraordinary Sale Misses' and Junior Tub Dresses — 2.50
Chambray and percale dresses, button side effect with detachable yoke for warm weather. Full plaited skirt with stitched plaits. Colors: tan, pink and blue. Sizes 14-16-18, 13-15-17 year sizes.

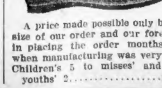
Sale of Girls' Gingham and Percale Dresses — 1.39
Large plaid gingham or percale dresses, trimmed with embroidery, full waists; deep plaited skirts with 4-inch hem, medium, light and dark shades, 6 to 14.

The New Idea Shoes for Children

Little Wonder Shoes
Same Prices as Last Year
Even though the cost of high class stock and skilled labor has advanced. Besides we have added the "Even-Tred" feature (the idea of a foot specialist) without extra charge.
35 New Dressy Models
1.00 to 3.00, according to size.

Jack and Jill Shoes
With Elk Soles
One pair will outwear two pairs of any other make of children's shoes. The strongest and most comfortable summer shoes ever made. All Goodyear welt.
Sizes 6 to 8, oxfords.......... 1.50
Sizes 8½ to 11, oxfords.......... 1.75
Sizes 11½ to 2, oxfords.......... 2.00
Boots.......... 1.50 to 2.50

Barefoot Sandals
Not a Single Nail or Tack 85c



A price made possible only by the size of our order and our foresight in placing the order months ago when manufacturing was very dull. Children's 5 to misses' and youths' 2.................. 85¢

DOUBLE LEGAL STAMPS FORENOONS

GILCHRIST Co

WASHINGTON AND WINTER STS.

Our June White Sale continues with unabated selling. New bargain groups continually replace depleted lines, and each day brings greater throngs. Every hour has a new interest for persons blessed with the spirit of thrift.

Sale of Low-Cut Tan Shoes for Girls

1.95

300 pairs of tan Russia calf blucher Oxfords (Goodyear welt), sewed, in misses' and growing girls' sizes up to 5, B, C and E widths, New England made. Regular $3.00 quality. Friday and Saturday Sale Price, 1.95

Dressy Oxford Ties for Boys

Models for "dress up" or vacation wear, patent, gunmetal and tan calf Oxfords, dressy, mannish styles, correctly shaped on natural fitting last.

Sizes 10 to 13½ at.......... 2.25
Sizes 1 to 7 at... 2.50 to 3.00

Men's Summer Wear

Athletic Underwear Lisle Union Suits for men, as illustrated, made sleeveless and knee length, also shown with short sleeves and ankle length, made full and roomy, a most comfortable and serviceable summer garment. Regular $1.75 values. Friday and Saturday Sale Price, suit 1.00

Men's Athletic Underwear
Sleeveless shirts and knee drawers, made in pure white, cool, summer fabrics, well finished, all sizes... 19c

Men's Outing Shirts
Cream color, made with soft collar attached, material is reliable soft soisette. Regular $1.00 values. On Sale Friday and Saturday at 79c

Men's Negligee Shirts
Attached and detached cuffs, in splendid assortment of new up-to-date patterns, plain or coat style and positively worth $1.00. Friday and Saturday Sale Price... 79c

Five Big Specials in Boys' Clothing

Wash Suits in Russian and sailor blouse styles, ages 3 to 10 years, made from galatea, duck, chambray and linens, in plain colors or fancy designs; regular $1.50 value. Saturday Sale Price 98c

Wash Suits, ages 3 to 10 years, in sailor blouse and Russian styles, made from fancy galatea, linens and chambrays; regular price $2.00. Friday and Saturday Sale Price...... 1.50

Wash and Wool Suits. Wash Suits in all styles and colors, ages 3 to 10 years. WOOL SUITS in plain blue, fancy worsteds and cheviots, ages 8 to 16 years; regular price $3.00. Saturday Sale Price.. 1.95

Suits and Reefers
Suits in ages from 3 to 10 years, in blue and fancy cassimeres and worsteds, in every style. Reefers in ages from 3 to 10 years, fancy coverts and shepherd plaids, suits and coats; regularly priced at $4. Friday and Sat. Price 2.95

Boys' Confirmation Suits
In strictly all wool blue and black serges, with and without knickerbocker pants; made in best possible manner; perfect fit warranted; regular $6.50 value. Friday and Saturday Sale Price 4.95

Children's Apparel (at Saving Prices)

Girls' Guimpes
Large assortment, of fine lawn, beautifully trimmed, with insertion or lace, sizes 4 to 14. Regulariy priced from 75c to 98c. Sale Price 50c

Children's Hats
Fine Quality Straw Hats, prettily trimmed with ribbon, splendid assortment to choose from. These sell regularly at 98c. We'll sell them Friday and Saturday at 50c

98c 98c 1.98

Children's Coats
New Spring Styles for little children, illustration shows one of these stylish, correct-fitting models, made from fine grade fancy mixtures, ages from 2 to 6 years. Regular value $1.98. Fraiday and Saturday ... 98c

Wash Dresses
Our entire stock of Children's Colored Dresses go on Sale Saturday at about half price. Made from the finest materials in French and princess styles (one style illustrated) ages 2 to 6 years, $1.98 to $2.50 values. Friday and Saturday.... 98c

Children's Coats
Newest styles, made from fancy mixtures, pongees, golf cloth and piques, neatly trimmed with velvet collar and cuffs, some with self or fancy braid trimming, ages 2 to 6 years. Regular price $3.98. Sale 1.98

Dresses for Graduation and Confirmation

We will make a special showing of this class of apparel today and tomorrow at prices ranging from

5.00 to 15.00

Made in many charming styles from finest lawns and nets, handsomely designed and beautifully elaborated with hamburg flouncings, lace and medallion insertion. Among them will be found many exclusive and distinctive models suitable for girls between the ages of 6 to 20 yrs. Priced from .... 5.00 to 15.00

3d Floor Specials

Hand Embroidered $3.00 Lingerie Waists for...... 1.69
This is a remarkable lot — sheer Batiste Waists, open back, long sleeves, collar and cuffs trimmed with dainty insertion—front, neat clusters of tucks from shoulder, graduated, from ample fullness—the hand embroidery work extends across the upper front. We only have six dozens to offer at this price, so come early Saturday.

Hemstitched Tucked $1.50 Long Muslin Skirts for.... 79c
They will not last long at this price—there are only ten dozen in the lot, the quality and workmanship are very superior. We only have them in lengths 38, 40 and 42.

Allover Combinations $2 Muslin Undergarments at 1.23
There are several styles, every one a beauty, either drawer or skirt style, in sizes 34 to 44 bust measure.

Dutch Collars of Venise lace as pictured
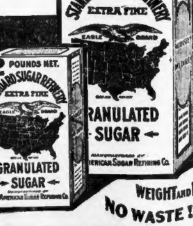
Very Special Value 25c

Embroidered Stiff Collars, high, low and medium styles, sizes 12 to 14½, all new patterns, perfectly shaped. A regular 25c collar, at... 14c

Dutch Collars—New assortment of stylish effects in embroidery and lace trimmed models. Embroidered linen lacet sets with new long collar. Net and lace trimmed jabots. In the cascade and side plaited styles. Val. lace and muslin chemisettes. Exceptional values, at.......... 50c

EAGLE BRAND

GRANULATED SUGAR



IN 2 lb AND 5 lb SEALED BOXES!

WEIGHT AND PURITY GUARANTEED!
NO WASTE! NO DIRT!

This sealed package insures "SANITARY CLEANLINESS." Not a hand touches its contents from the time it leaves the refineries until it is opened in your kitchen.

ASK YOUR GROCER FOR IT!

ROOSEVELT'S SPEECH AT GUILDHALL CALLS FOR SHAW'S RIDICULE

By GEORGE BERNARD SHAW.

Special Cable to Boston American.

LONDON, June 3.—Your Mr. Roosevelt's speech at the Guildhall was certainly one of his most remarkable performances in his new character of the Innocent Abroad. It raises very seriously the question of England's duty to America.

America broke loose from us at the end of the eighteenth century and undertook to govern herself. Ever since that it has been proving its utter unfitness to govern itself. The revelations of San Francisco were the last straw. Nothing that has ever happened in Egypt can touch them.

If it is our duty, as Mr. Roosevelt says, to govern Egypt for its own good without consulting its inhabitants, it is many times more important that we should take America in hand in the same way.

I quite admit that the condition of our own great cities leaves us open to the retort that we had better learn to govern ourselves before we pretend to govern other people, but the Egyptians may make that retort just as pointedly as the Americans, and Mr. Roosevelt expressly tells us that we must do our duty without attending to what the Egyptians say.

"IT IS CERTAINLY VERY CURIOUS."

It is certainly very curious that Mr. Roosevelt, whom we have come to regard as an American of the Americans, should thus deliberately stir us up to reconquer his country. He even urges us to do it by violence and injustice if necessary.

On this point I would like to explain a little English peculiarity, if it is a peculiarity, that Mr. Roosevelt evidently had not observed. He tells us that violence and injustice are better than sentimentality. When he has been with us a little longer on this side he will discover that the only people who advocate violence and injustice among us are the sentimental people. Consequently his alternative is not a practical one. He is a sentimental man himself, and you will observe that it is as a sentimental man that he made the Guildhall speech.

Also, like all sentimental people, he is so credulous that even his double term of Presidency has not shaken his faith in official rose-color. One would have imagined that the history of Lord Cromer in Egypt would have been sufficient to warn any man with the smallest caution not to commit himself to the official versions of the Egyptian question.

Let me mention to you just one fact. Until the Denshawai horror occurred, we were stuffed with all the wonderful accounts that Mr. Roosevelt has been swallowing about the magical disappearance of crime under our beneficent sway in Egypt.

"LORD CROMER UNDECEIVED US."

The moment we turned round to ask why the hideous orgy of flogging and hanging of peasants, even if they had been guilty—which would have been doing nothing but taking a leaf out of Mr. Roosevelt's book—was needed to intimidate a happy and contented people, Lord Cromer deliberately told us that the happiness and contentment and freedom from crime under English rule, as proved by the records of the courts we had set up, were wholly imaginary, as the real work was done by the so-called commissions, which were nothing but lynching raids of the worst description, obtaining evidence by torture and the most ruthless use of it.

That finished Lord Cromer in England. Nobody but your evergreen Rough Riders would have been so innocent as to quote him. He has done more than any other living man to create Egyptian nationalism and to make it impossible for any self-respecting Egyptian to accept English rule voluntarily or to cease struggling for independence, exactly as the Americans did.

It is true that the Americans have abused their independence and made their initial government odious throughout Europe for its corruption and tyranny, but there are two ways of remedying this. One is for Americans to reform themselves, and the other is to trust England for paternal government. Mr. Roosevelt advocates the latter plan. I prefer the former. America can take its choice.

BLOW TO IRELAND'S CAUSE, SAYS STEAD

By WILLIAM T. STEAD.

Special Cable to Boston American.

LONDON, June 3.—"Rough Riders in Excelsis."

The political sensations of the week have been Colonel Roosevelt's characteristic outbursts and Mr. Hearst's scathing rejoinder. But the real reply to Colonel Roosevelt's discourse about Egypt was supplied by Roosevelt himself when, the day after his denunciation of the Nationalists in Egypt, he was entertained at a luncheon by the Nationalists of Ireland.

Every charge which he brought against the Egyptian agitators has been made times out of mind by the Irish landlords against the men to whom he paid homage Wednesday.

The whole of Colonel Roosevelt's invective against the British Government in Egypt, and their refusal to trample down agitators in Egypt, might have been plagiarized from the London Times' article on Parnellism and crime.

Queerly Misplaced Words.

Yet Colonel Roosevelt had nothing but smooth words and elaborate compliments for the men who were accused of stalking through rapine to revolution.

It would be unkind to suggest that the fact that there are millions of Irish electors in America and that there are no Egyptians may explain so extraordinary a difference in Colonel Roosevelt's view of the two situations. Such a thing couldn't weigh anything with so uncompromising a preacher of righteousness as Colonel Roosevelt.

But why he should regard the Nationalist agitation in Egypt as an unpardoned sin, while he regards the far more truculent agitation in Ireland as a legitimate resource of people rightly struggling to be free, remains unexplained.

'Twould Be Unkind to Suggest.

The Tory press, which shrieks with delight over Roosevelt's demand for despot methods in Egypt, now demands that he should insist upon applying the same medicine to Ireland.

"Colonel Roosevelt's speech," said a well-known Liberal, "makes me despair. It is the heaviest blow the Liberal principle have received in our time. Every coercionist, every hereditary old Tory, will quote it as the verdict of a Daniel come to judgment to condemn the wicked ministers who have dared to try to fulfil say ten per cent. of the pledges which we gave the Egyptians.

"There are only two ways of governing men—by consent or coercion. What chance have we of ever establishing a government by consent if the moment any outbreak, or crime, or violence occurs in a country we are ordered to fall back upon coercion?

Heavy Blow to Ireland.

"Colonel Roosevelt, perhaps without intending, has dealt the Liberals and the Irish the worst blow they've received for many a long day," said another prominent official.

"I agree with every word that Colonel Roosevelt says, and for that reason wish he had not made the speech. We know that Sir Eldon Gorst was, to put it mildly, not a success. We were looking about for a convenient opportunity of replacing him by a more capable administrator. But now, of course, we've got to make the best of him. Whatever Colonel Roosevelt may say of our weaknesses, we are not so weak as to recall our representative at the dictation of a Roosevelt. If a man ever defeated his own ends, that man is Colonel Roosevelt. The only person who has any cause to be grateful to him is Sir Eldon Gorst.

Slump in Roosevelt Stock.

The members of the Indian colony of London are furious at what they regard as a betrayal of American principles by the most conspicuous living American. I must confess a deep feeling of gratitude that our distinguished guest did not come home by way of Calcutta and Bombay. The task of governing some hundreds of millions of men whose ancestors were highly civilized when Colonel Roosevelt's ancestors were barbarians by the methods of the Rough Rider might commend itself to the former President, but it would be fatal to an empire in India.

There has been a great slump in Roosevelt stock this week. It has caused many of those who were warm partisans of the third term for Colonel Roosevelt to pause. They are beginning to think that after all the prejudice of Americans against a third term is based on sound instinct. Certainly, if democracy is played out in the United States, there is now no longer any need to advertise for a Caesar to cut its throat.

But still a Caesar in his heart, he sails for your shores on June 10. If you want to found an imperial throne on the ruins of a republic, a third term for Colonel Roosevelt would seem to be the most obvious of stepping stones to that consummation.

JUNE BUG'S HERE

ROOSEVELT, SERENE, TAKES TO COUNTRY FOR SHORT HOLIDAY

LONDON, June 3.—Apparently oblivious of the storm which he has raised or the disregard with which he is looked upon by England, as the result of his Guildhall speech on Egypt, Theodore Roosevelt today quit London for the week-end, going to the Buckinghamshire country place, "Chequers Court," of Arthur Lee, where the ex-President spent a part of the last week-end.

Mr. Roosevelt, speaking as an American citizen, gave the well-wishes of his compatriots to Captain Robert F. Scott, leader of the British Antarctic expedition about to leave England. Captain Scott was one of the guests at Chequers Court, the others including John Burns, the Labor Cabinet member, and Sir Harry Johnston, the African authority.

This morning Mr. Roosevelt called upon Joseph Chamberlain and the two engaged in a prolonged conversation. The veteran statesman recently returned from the Riviera.

England appears to-day to have got her second wind after Mr. Roosevelt made the country gasp with his criticism of British rule in Egypt and imperialistic strictures at Guildhall. The criticism of Kier Hardie's paper, the Labor Leader, and the comments of Bernard Shaw, the writer, are regarded as the most significant, expressing the attitude of British radicals toward the former President of the greatest republic.

A Want Advt. is often the road to fortune.

TODAY'S STOCK MARKETS; FINANCIAL NEWS

STATE ST. NEWS FOR INVESTORS

Plainly the investor is not dismayed. He is "sticking" despite the bitter expressions that come to him from the railroad world. He has the traditional faith of the American that it will all come out right in the end, if not logically, then somehow. He has witnessed the interplay of politics and business so often that its danger no longer frightens him.

$ $ $

Whether further severe liquidation in the stock market will result immediately is very largely a matter of guesswork. At first thought, a sharp decline of the market seems inevitable. Those that think the market will have a sustained rally depend largely on the fact that the public will not realize the gravity of the situation until the leading financiers have put themselves in position to let the market down easy.

$ $ $

State street is prepared for anything that may happen as a result of President Taft's move against the railroads. But the general public does not seem to realize what has been done. In jubilation over the fact that railroad rates are not to be advanced people lose sight of the fact that millions of dollars' worth of business that was planned will not be done.

$ $ $

Standard Oil selling of general stocks that has been a feature of the market the last week continues. In Amalgamated Standard Oil brokers are careful to sell just as much as the street will stand, for the dividend on Anaconda is to be reduced and it will not do to let too many people know about it. One report had it that Amalgamated's dividend would be reduced also.

$ $ $

Based on returns for the first ten months of the fiscal year 1910, the Boston & Maine will show for the full fiscal period about 10.70 per cent. for the common, as compared with 77 per cent. last year.

$ $ $

It is understood that one reason for the action of the New York Central management in postponing improvements and the purchase of new equipment was the action of the Public Service Commission in fixing a price on the bonds to be sold at a higher rate than could be secured.

$ $ $

Pennsylvania has not been holding so steadily as had been predicted, but it is probable some of the selling indulged in was for those who do not see any prospect for a dividend raise for some time to come. As long as the freight rate controversy is on it is not at all probable the directors will pay out any more money than is absolutely necessary.

$ $ $

Record crops can prevent a commercial disaster in the United States this year. Early reports indicate a large acreage and the fertilizer companies report heavy sales. The Harvester Trust is also reporting record sales. This indicates unusual care in cultivation, and the yield per acre should be the greatest ever known in the country, provided the weather is good. Business is at the mercy of the weather.

$ $ $

It has been the ambition of large financial and industrial interests to see all stocks selling upon a 4 per cent. basis. This would bring them down to the level of the average bond and slightly above what they consider the average money rate ought to be. Bond people are not so much worried over the situation as they were, because they think there will be an increased demand for these securities, now that stocks have been given such a shock. Bonds do not depend upon large earnings, as is the case with stocks paying high dividends, and are safer in every way. Investors are making more inquiries than before.

$ $ $

Somerville, Mass., has awarded $30,000 4 per cent. sewer bonds, and $130,000 4 per cent. city bonds, to N. W. Harris & Co. at 100.317.

$ $ $

The treasurer of Manchester, Mass., will receive bids until noon June 7 for a temporary loan of $40,000, maturing November 9, 1910.

$ $ $

Watertown, Mass., will receive bids until 3:30 p. m. June 9 for a temporary loan of $60,000, maturing April 2, 1911.

BOSTON CURB.

QUALIFIED LIST.

Stocks.	High.	Low.	Last.
Bay State Gas	27c	27c	27c
Boston Ely	2¼	2 1-16	2¼
Calaveras	5 11-16	5 11-16	5 11-16
Con. Arizona	2	2	2
Corbin Copper	7½	7½	7½
Davis-Daly	1¾	1¾	1¾
Dom. Syndicate	11¾	11¼	11¼
First National	3 11-16	3 11-16	3 11-16
La Rose	4½	4½	4½
Live Oak	20½	20½	20½
Majestic	85c	85c	85c
Mass. Coal	71c	71c	71c
Nevada Douglas	2½	2½	2½
Ohio Copper	2 7-16	2 7-16	2 7-16
R. I. Coal	7½	7½	7½
South Lake	5¼	4⅝	4⅝
Vulture Mines	9½	9½	9½
UNQUALIFIED LIST.
Arizpe	45c	45c	45c
Cactus Devel.	3	2⅞	2⅞
Champion	6c	6c	6c
Chino	11⅝	11⅝	11⅝
Cortez	2 11-16	2 11-16	2 11-16
Eagle & Blue B.	90c	90c	90c
Ely Cen.	76c	75c	75c
Geyser	1½c	1½c	1½c
Gila Copper	6⅞	6⅞	6⅞
Kruger	40c	24c	40c
Maritime	85c	85c	85c
Oneco	3	3	3
Rawhide Mining	9½	9	9½
Superior & Globe	41c	41c	41c

GOVERNMENT BONDS.

2s, reg.	100¾	101¼
2s, coupon	100¾	...
3s, reg.	102	103
3s, coupon	102	103
4s, reg.	114¾	115
4s, coupon	114½	115¼
Pan. 2s, reg.	100¾	101
Pan. 2s, 1938	100¾	101
Phil. Isle	100½	...

COPPER SHARES STRONG TO-DAY

After an irregular opening the local market became quiet, while New York sold off. When support was offered the New York list local prices were quick to respond, and the coppers became strong on good buying. It is the opinion of well informed brokers that copper shares are pretty well on the bottom, and, therefore, do not respond to selling pressure, as all news which might affect the industry has been well discounted.

Cobalt properties were strong under the leadership of Nipissing, which was the most active feature on the list, and during the first hour scored a gain of half a point. Amongst the miscellaneous stocks United Fruit was again the feature of strength, going three points above last night's close on very small trading.

NEW YORK STOCKS.

Following is the range of prices to noon for leading New York stocks:

RAILROADS.

	High.	Low.	Noon.
Atch., T. & S. F.	104⅞	104⅛	104⅛
At., T. & S. F. pf	101	101	101
Balt. & Ohio	112	111⅝	111⅝
Brooklyn Rap. Tr.	78⅝	78¼	78¾
Canadian Pac.	196	195½	196
Ches. & Ohio	83⅝	82¾	83¼
Chic., M. & St. P.	130	129⅝	129¾
*Chic. & N. W.	146	146	146
Denver & Rio G.	37½	36⅞	37⅜
Erie	26⅞	26¾	26⅞
Erie 1st pf.	45	45	45
Gt. North'n pf	131⅛	131	131¼
Illinois Central	131⅝	131⅛	131⅝
Int.-Metropol	19½	19	19⅛
Int.-Met. pf	52½	52⅛	52½
Ks. City So.	33½	32½	32½
Louis. & Nash	143½	143½	143½
Mo., Ks. & Tex	40⅛	39⅝	40⅛
Missouri Pac	116½	115⅞	115½
N. Y. C. & Hud	116½	115⅞	115½
N. Y., Ont. & W.	45	44¾	45
Norfolk & West	100⅜	100¼	100⅜
Northern Pac	126½	125¾	126
Pennsylvania	132	131⅛	131½
Reading	155¾	154⅝	155⅛
Rock Island	41⅝	41	41½
Rock Island pf	86½	86	86½
Southern Pac	121⅛	120⅞	121
Southern Ry	26	26	26
*Union Pacific	175	173⅝	173¾
Wabash	19⅝	19⅝	19⅝
Wabash pfd	43	42½	42½
INDUSTRIALS AND MISCELLANEOUS.
Amal. Copper	67¼	66¼	66¼
Am. Car & Fdy	57⅝	56⅝	56⅝
Amer Loco.	45⅛	45	45
Amer. Sm. & R.	76⅛	75¼	75½
Am. Beet Sugar	35½	35½	35½
Anaconda Copper	42	42	42
Col. Fuel & Iron	35⅝	35½	35½
Con Gas (N. Y.)	136¼	136⅛	136¼
Distill Secur	29⅝	29⅝	29⅝
Gen. Electric	144¾	144⅜	144⅜
National Lead	74¾	74⅛	74⅛
Northern Ore	61½	61	61
Pacific Mail	24½	24¼	24¼
Press Steel Car	36	35⅝	35⅝
Pullman Co.	161⅝	161⅝	161⅝
People's Gas	106	105⅝	105⅝
Rep. I. & Steel	31½	31¼	31¼
U. S. Rubber	38⅞	38½	38⅝
U. S. Steel	79⅞	78⅜	78⅜
U. S. Steel pf	116½	116¼	116¼
Utah Copper	44	43⅞	43⅞
Va. Car. Chem Co	60	59½	59½
West. El. & Mfg.	62	61½	62

*Ex-dividends.

BOSTON STOCKS.

Following is the range of prices to noon for leading Boston stocks:

RAILROADS.

	High	Low	Noon
Boston Elevated	128	128	128
N. Y., N. H. & H.	153½	153	153
MINING STOCKS.
Adventure	5⅝	5¾	5¾
Arizona Commercial	16	16	16
Butte Coalition	19	19	19
La Salle Copper	12	12	12
Osceola	135	135	135
Quincy	75	75	75
MISCELLANEOUS.
Am. Pneumatic pf	17¼	17⅛	17¼
United Fruit	193¼	192	193¼
UNLISTED SECURITIES.
Amalgamated	67⅛	66⅝	66⅝
Atl. Gulf & W. I.	10¾	10¾	10¾
Am. Woolen pf	99	99	99
Balaklava	15¾	15⅜	15⅜
East Butte	8½	8½	8½
Giroux	7⅛	7⅛	7⅛
Isle Royale	20½	20½	20½
Lake Copper	52	51½	51½
Miami Copper	21	21	21
Nipissing	11⅝	11⅝	11⅝
North Lake	8½	8⅜	8⅜
Superior & Pitts	11½	11½	11½
Swift & Co.	105	104¾	105
U. S. Coal & Oil	34⅞	34⅞	34⅞
U. S. Smelting	41¼	41	41

MARRYING A MILLIONAIRE—

Just what it cost in money, time and effort. The interesting disclosure of what one woman did. Curiosities of society life. Don't miss this feature of the Sunday American Jonahs!

You'll Find One, if You Read These Live Stories.

Hen Lays "Comet Eggs."

ATLANTIC CITY, June 3.—A hen that lays eggs with "tails" is reported by Mrs. K. Shoales, of No. 1706 Arctic avenue, and neighbors blame the freak on Halley's Comet and have named the hen product "comet eggs." The eggs are of the normal size, but there is an extension on the pointed end, which is round and a half inch long.

Girls Egg Police Captain.

NEW YORK, June 3.—The union shirtwaist girls on strike at the shops of Greenberg, Werner & Co., at No. 40 Wooster street, fired rocks at the strikebreakers. Captain Matty Robinson came in plain clothes with the reserves and was promptly egged. The first egg landed on his coat and trousers.

Will Wed Only if Healthy.

PITTSBURG, June 3.—"I promise, God helping me, to lead a pure life and be prepared when I make a marriage proposal to furnish a health certificate." This pledge is being widely circulated among Epworth League members since its adoption by the Pittsburg society.

Boy of Three Crosses Ocean.

NEW YORK, June 3.—George Wallenstein, three years old, who has not seen his mother since he was too young to remember her, returned yesterday on board the President Lincoln from Germany, where he has been living with relatives. George was accompanied by his aunt.

Trout Catches "Jonah" Eel.

WINSTED, Ct., June 3.—Harry Hall of Newington had an unusual experience on a trout fishing expedition to Talcott Mountain. A "Jonah" eel had partly swallowed a large trout which, when it realized its danger, grabbed Hall's hook. Hall got both.

115,527 BOSTON SCHOOL CHILDREN

According to the annual report of the School Committee of the city of Boston, issued to-day, the number of children in Boston between the ages of five and fifteen, on September 1, 1909, was 115,527.

Peterman's DISCOVERY KILLS BED BUGS

Peterman's Discovery kills bed bugs and their eggs. A sure preventative.

Peterman's Roach Food kills roaches, water bugs and beetles. Standard for 24 years.

Peterman's Ant Food kills ants and fleas.

Peterman's Moth Food — Odorless — Kills moths. A sure preventative.

At all dealers. Insist on Peterman's.

PETERMAN'S DID IT

If It's at Morse's, It's Correct
If It's Correct, It's at Morse's

Are You a Judge of Values?

If so, then you'll appreciate these all worsted fast color blue serge suits that we are offering at

$12 ACTUAL VALUE $15

They're brand new suits just received from our wholesale department, cut in the latest fashion, in regulars, stouts, longs and shorts. Compare them with others sold about town at $18.

Hats, Shoes and Toggery Leopold Morse Co. ADAMS SQUARE

WHAT IS IT YOU WANT?

Can't you sell that property?
Can't you get the right sort of help?
Can't you make the trade?
Can't you find what you've lost?

An American Want Ad Will Help You Out Quickly!

Dr. Estabrooks' 'Alveolar' Method OF REPLACING LOST TEETH

Without the Use of Old Style Crowns and Bridges

Popular Prices It is not necessary to pay high rates for this kind of work. If you have a few solid teeth or roots left the missing teeth can be restored without recourse to the old style crowns or bridges. Dr. Estabrooks' improved "ALVEOLAR" Method is absolutely painless and there is not the slightest appearance of artificiality in the mouth when the Dr. Estabrooks System is used.

ANCHOR DENTURE PLATE -NO- ROOF

$8.00 Full Set This celebrated Anchor Denture plate is the finest thing of its kind in existence. No roof to prevent the perfect taste. The wearer can talk better than with old-style plate—comfortable, cool and clean and fits better, it never drops, shifts or displaces to cause the wearer embarrassment.

Dr. Estabrooks makes the best set of teeth that dental science can produce for $8, that is all that it will be necessary for any one to pay in his establishment unless a gold or special plate is ordered. A $5 set, the best for the price, will be made if necessary.

Dr. Thomas T. Estabrooks
POPULAR PRICED DENTIST ☛ 597 WASHINGTON ST. Over Jaynes New Drug Store
Hours 9 A. M. to 6 P. M. Sundays 10 to 2. Tel. Oxford 3755. OPP. SIEGEL'S.

CLOTHING ON CREDIT AT WASHBURN'S

NO MONEY DOWN — A DOLLAR A WEEK

We have studied the art of selling clothing and our success proves it. We are not content to give just good clothes and a perfect fit, but we also give "clever" style—style, when reinforced by wear and good fitting, means perfect satisfaction.

We make clothes for men as well as young men. Here is a model which will attract the conservative dresser, but you will admit that this suit possesses good character. It is one of the new conceptions for summer wear. Prices $15.00 to $30.00

WASHBURN DEPARTMENT STORE
630 WASHINGTON ST.---OPEN EVENINGS

Theatres.

KEITH'S
Positively Last Times of
WM. H. THOMPSON & CO.
ROMAN SPORTS and PASTIMES
STUART BARNES
FARREL-TAYLOR TRIO
Montrell, Reidy and Currier, Mullen and Corelli, Ray Montgomery and the Healy Sisters, Barnes and King
FIRST MOTION PICTURES OF KING EDWARD'S FUNERAL
Overture at 1:50 and 7:35
Next Week—Madam Chung in "The Dragons of Wrath"

THE COOL TREMONT
TONIGHT AT 8. MAT. TOMORROW
THE GIRL IN THE TAXI
A Screaming Sensation. Exceeding the Speed Limit.
With CARTER DE HAVEN | AND AN ALL STAR CAST
SEATS TWO WEEKS IN ADVANCE.

MAJESTIC Evening Prices 25c, 50c, 75c
MATINEE EVERY DAY 25c
CHARLOTTE HUNT Stock Company.
A SPLENDID PRODUCTION OF CAMILLE
Next Week—CASTE

BOSTON OPERA HOUSE
ABORN COMIC OPERA CO.
THIS WEEK—"ROBIN HOOD"
NEXT WEEK—THE MIKADO
Wed. Mat. 25 and 50c. Evenings and Sat. Mat., 25, 50 and 75c. Good Orchestra Seats at 50c.

COLUMBIA THREE SHOWS 2:30, 7 and 9
Vaudeville and Pictures

AUSTIN & STONE'S MUSEUM
20 Performing Poodles. A Star Act. Three sensational shows combined. 10 a. m. to 10:30 p. m. Only 10 cents.

WALDRON'S CASINO Hanover Street Near Tremont Row
SPORTY WIDOWS BURLESQUERS

BOWDOIN SQ. THEATRE
10c TEN VAUDEVILLE ACTS And Flickerless Pictures
Continuous from 1 till 10:30. 900 Seats Free

Theatres.

PARK Charles Frohman, Rich & Harris, Lessees & Mgrs.
22d Week! Evenings 8 Sharp Mats. Wed. & Sat. 2
WM. HODGE
In the Success of the Century
The Man From Home
Mail Orders Given Prompt Attention. Seats 2 Weeks in Advance

Castle Sq. Daily at 2 & 8 Tel. Tremont 5
The John Craig Stock Company in Last 4 Performances of CHARLEY'S AUNT
Prices 15c, 25c, 50c, 75c. Down Town Ticket Office, 15 Winter St.
Next Week—THE RIVALS

HOLLIS ST. THEATRE
Last 2 Nights at 8. Last Mat. Tomorrow at 2
A Vital Play of City Life,
THE PROSECUTOR
Orrin Johnson—Emmett Corrigan And a Splendid Metropolitan Cast

SHUBERT THEATRE Tonight at 8:15
LAST 3 TIMES — Mat. Sat. 25c 50c
JOS. E. HOWARD IN THE MUSICAL GODDESS of LIBERTY With STELLA TRACEY

AMERICAN MUSIC HALL
SUMMER VAUDEVILLE AT SUMMER PRICES
10—ALL STAR ACTS—10
1200 SEATS 10c | Daily 1 to 10:30 P. M. Come Early, Stay Late

HOWARD
Pat White's Kippy Kidders. Johnson-Ketchel Fight Pictures. Always something doing from 1 till 11. Smoking Allowed.

GLOBE PICTURES VAUDEVILLE 12 M TO 11 PM 10¢

Amusements.

FOR THE FISHING GROUNDS
$400.00 IN GOLD PRIZES
STEAMER KING PHILIP
Leaves Commercial Wharf Daily and Sunday at 10 o'clock. Lines, bait and chowder free. Fare $1.00.

Amusements.

Columbus Ave. and Park Sq. LAST 2 DAYS
This Afternoon at 2. Tonight at 8
BARNUM AND BAILEY CIRCUS
THE GREATEST SHOW ON EARTH
Under the Biggest Tent Ever Constructed. 400 Artists from Abroad. 700 Horses. 40 Elephants. 100 Cages. Baby Giraffe. 125 Circus Acts, with Jupiter, the Balloon Horse, and Desperado's Terrible Leap.
One 50-Cent Ticket Admits to Everything. Children Under 12 Half Price.
Admission tickets and reserved seats now on sale at Klein's Drug Store, Washington and Essex streets, at exactly the same prices charged at the regular circus ticket wagons.

BASE BALL
TO-DAY at 3:15
NATIONAL LEAGUE COLUMBUS AVE. GROUNDS
CHICAGO
THURS., FRI. & SAT.—CUBS ALSO
Tickets on sale at Wright & Ditson's, 344 Washington st.; Connelly & Burke's, Adams House; Cashin's, Young's and Parker's.

FOLLOW THE FLAG
NORUMBEGA PARK
OPENS Daily 10 A. M. NEW COVERED OPEN-AIR THEATRE
VAUDEVILLE 3:30 AND 8:05.
Zoological Garden. Canoeing. Etc.

JOY LINE $2.40 BOSTON TO NEW YORK
Via Rail and Boat. Daily except Sunday.
Ticket Office, 214 Washington St., Boston.

Wonderland
Opens June 17—Admission Free

BASS POINT AND NAHANT
Steamers leave Otis Wharf, 409 Atlantic Av, 9.30 AM, 2.20, 5.10, 8 PM, Fare 25c

NEARLY A MILLION PEOPLE SEE THIS PAGE DAILY

FIREBUG GIVES TERROR THRILL TO CHELSEA

May 23—Two stables and two wagon sheds of A. G. Crosby, teamster for the New England Gas and Coke Company on Beecham street, Everett, destroyed. Loss $7,000.

May 23—Newhall & Walker factory on Nichols street, Everett, discovered burning at the same time. Loss $200.

May 24—Doble-decked three-story dwelling and an adjoining one-and-a-half story wooden cottage on Auburn street, Chelsea, destroyed.

June 2—Hay and grain sheds of Woodlock & Brennan, Sixth street, Chelsea, destroyed. Loss $5,000.

June 2—Walls of the stable of the Chelsea Coal and Iron Company, West Third street, Chelsea, saturated with kerosene, discovered burning at the same time.

The discovery of two fires burning at the same time, one in the hay and grain sheds of Woodlock & Brennan on Sixth street and the other in the stable of the Chelsea Iron and Coal Company on Third street, Chelsea, is to-day thought by the police to have been a renewal of the attempts of the mysterious incendiary to burn down that section of Chelsea bordering the Everett line. This makes the firebug's fifth attempt at destruction in two weeks.

People living in the firebug zone on both sides of the border line are in a state of terror, and the police of both cities, with the State police, are bending every effort to catch the incendiary.

Each of the three previous fires endangered the lives of scores of people and caused damage of several thousand dollars. Despite every precaution taken by the police and fire authorities, the torch plyer has successfully eluded capture. The police are handicapped by the fact that no one can be found who has seen the firebug at work or who is able to give an accurate description of him.

Used Kerosene on Stable.

The hay sheds of Woodlock & Brennan were destroyed at a loss estimated at $5,000. The cause of this fire is unknown, but several suspicious circumstances surrounding it's origin leads Fire Chief Spencer to believe that the sheds were set on fire. The firemen were obliged to battle with the blaze for more than an hour before it was brought under control.

While they were at work on the fire in the hay sheds the stable of the Chelsea Iron & Coal Company, more than three-quarters of a mile away, was found to be on fire. The walls of the stable had been saturated with kerosene.

Arthur A. Edminster, who lives at No. 84 Third street, Everett, just across the line from Chelsea, discovered this fire before it had a chance to gain much headway. He organized a bucket brigade and succeeded in extinguishing the fire before any serious damage had been done. An empty gallon jug was found near the building that smelled strongly of kerosene.

State Police Called.

The police were immediately notified and a search was started for the firebug. Chief Spencer, after inspecting the premises, notified the State fire marshal of both the incendiary fires.

This was the fifth incendiary fire within a radius of two square miles in two weeks. The big stable of the New England Gas & Coke Company in Everett was fired by an incendiary and destroyed. While this fire was in progress the firebug started a blaze that damaged a manufacturing establishment some distance away. A few days later he set fire to a big six-family tenement house in Chelsea

Deaths.

WALSH—In Charlestown, June 2, Ellen (nee Coughlin), beloved wife of Cornelius F. Walsh. Funeral from her late residence, 5 Main street, Saturday, June 4, at 8:30. Solemn requiem high mass at St. Mary's Church, Warren street, at 9 o'clock. Relatives and friends kindly invited to attend.

WELLS—In Charlestown, June 1, Eliza J., widow of Henry C. Wells, and mother of Nellie McDonough. Funeral from her late residence, 6 Hanly street, Sunday, June 5, at 2 p. m. Relatives and friends invited to attend. Portsmouth, N. H., papers please copy.

ESTABLISHED 1859.

J. S. WATERMAN & SONS

Incorporated

UNDERTAKERS

2326 & 2328 Washington Street

Adjoining Dudley Street Terminal Station. Personal attention given to Funeral, Cemetery, Cremation, and Transfer arrangements.

Established prices for furnishings and services.

Advice and information given.

Complete equipment for City and Out of Town services.

Chapel, for services, without charge.

FRANK S. WATERMAN, Pres. and Manager

GEORGE H. WATERMAN, Treasurer

TELEPHONE ROXBURY 72

Marconi, Telegraph, and Cable address "Undertaker, Boston."

Special Announcements.

HAND PAINTED CHINA.

MOST BEAUTIFULLY executed work; free hand painted china cider, chocolate and claret pitchers and tea set and tray; your inspection invited; prices most reasonable. LANDLADY, 132 West Concord st., Boston.

BOARD AND ROOM before and during confinement, 838 East Fifth st., South Boston; MATRON BROWN.

1,000 CARDS, $1; job printing half price. BRIEF PRESS, 81 Leverett st., Boston. Tel. 2492-3 Haymarket.

THOSE WISHING homes for children, any age, write 183 Chestnut st., Nashua, N. H.

Clothing.

MARKS & CHESTER,

89 and 91 Dudley St.

DON'T BE MISLED BY ANY OTHER Name but Look for Marks & Chester. 35 YEARS OF HONEST DEALINGS.

LARGEST variety in New England; slightly worn students' clothing made by leading tailors; suits from $1.50; overcoats and raincoats from $1.50; coats or pants from 75c; coats and vests from $1.25; highest grade dress suits for sale or to let. Alongside American Ex. Office, near Dudley st. station. Open evenings till 9; Saturday till 11.

TERMINAL CLOTHING CO.

LARGEST SUPPLY of slightly worn students' clothing. Suits, from $1.50; coats and vests, from $1.50; coats and pants, from 75c.; overcoats and raincoats from $1.50; dress suits for sale and to let. By being 25 years in the jobbing business, supplying goods in all the first-class stores in New England, therefore we are sure no store in New England can compare with our goods, also with our prices. To prove this, give us a trial. Two stores, 100 Dudley st., opp. Am. Ex.; 15 Roxbury st., cor. Washington st. Look for the blue sign from Dudley st. terminal. Open evenings till 9; Saturday till 11.

MAX KEEZER, 3 AND 5 BOW ST. HARVARD STUDENTS' MISFIT CLOTHING. GET OFF AT DE WOLF ST., CAMB.

SLIGHTLY worn street, stage, and party dresses; Spring, Summer dress, opera coats for sale, to let, $5 up. MME. DE GROOT, 195 Pleasant st.

TEDSKINNER, 59 BOYLSTON ST., CAMBRIDGE—All Harvard sq. cars pass the door; Harvard students' misfit cast-off clothing.

LOST AND FOUND

Gloves and little dress accessories fairly slip away. They get "lost" so easily. Don't give 'em up. A little inexpensive ad in this column will get "lost" articles returned in the great majority of instances.

LOST—In the market district, Tuesday, May 31, lady's gold hunting case watch, date July 29, 1902 in case, fob attached. Reward if returned to 217 Pearl st., Somerville, Mass., or 33 Commercial st., city.

LOST—Ladies' pin, on south side of Boylston st., between Berkeley st. and Boylston place, between 11 and 12 a. m. Thursday, June 2, gold pin with diamonds set in form of spray; reward. Address N. P. W., room 58, 166 Devonshire st.

LOST—Lady's small gold watch and fob either on Washington st., subway or in Cambridge car; reward if returned to GRACE ELLIOT HALL, Shepherd st., Cambridge.

LOST—Saturday evening on the 9:27 train from Boston to Brockton, a green suit box containing a lady's suit and pair of shoes; $5 reward if returned to F. E. A., 25 Hollis av., Atlantic.

LOST—Box containing white dress in Fellsway car at Sullivan sq. terminal. Deliver to address on box; reward.

For Adoption.

THOSE wishing homes for infants or children, write Box 277, Nashua, N. H.

A 6-MONTHS-OLD baby girl. L 528, Boston American.

Business Chances.

LODGING HOUSE, one of best, 16 rooms, 2 baths, hot water heat, richly furnished, only $900. PROCTOR.

LODGING HOUSE, Chandler st.—Here is an exceptionally good house, same owner for 20 years; plenty of money; your price. PROCTOR.

NEAR STATE HOUSE, 16-room lodging house; best on Beacon Hill for the money; $350. PROCTOR.

CANDY MFG. BUSINESS, doing $400 week, $100 clear profit; stay week, see; want man take ½ interest, $650, no experience needed. PROCTOR.

VARIETY STORE, 3 connecting rooms, rent $25; $250 week cash; business must be seen to be appreciated; your price. PROCTOR, 35 Court st.

$250—CIGAR STORE, candy, etc.; never saw such a good store for price; only $125 down. E. H. BISHOP CO., 279 Washington st.

$500—DAIRY LUNCH, a beauty, worth $1,000, only $250 down; chance of a lifetime. BISHOP.

$200—LIGHT GROCERY, variety store, 4 nice living rooms connected; here is a real good store at a bargain, good as gold. BISHOP.

$500—BUTTER and egg store, $200 weekly business; fortune here. BISHOP, 279 Washington st.

HERE IS YOUR CHANCE to get mining stock at 10c per share on the instalment plan, in an Arizona Mining Company that owns two large mining properties that are to become big dividend producers. For information, write JAMES SUPPLE, 80 Ninth st., San Francisco.

$250—$85 DOWN buys old est. lunch room; can clear $35 weekly; owner in hospital and must be sacrificed. ROGERS, 244 Washington st., Globe bldg.

BOARDING, lodging, 16 rooms, $45 rent, very profitable, illness, unusual opportunity; sacrifice; $1,000, easy terms; examine. SHOREY, notary, 795 Washington st.

LUNCH—$100 cash, balance weekly; 12 stools, low rent, fine location, unusual chance; examine. SHOREY, notary, 795 Washington st.

IF SOLD at once, as owner is called away, will sacrifice a grocery and provision store at 1576 Tremont st.

$300 BUYS HUNTER'S stove store and jobbing tin shop; est. over 30 years. J. H., 398 Mass. av., Cambridge, Mass.

$500—FINE corner periodical, soda, ice cream, candy, cigars, newspapers; only $200 down. C. V. RYAN & CO., 28 School st., room 62.

BAKERY and delicatessen; $300, worth $600; must be sold at once. HOLLAND, 170 Bowdoin st., Dorchester.

LODGING HOUSE, 18 rooms, bath, full, steady lodgers; owner going away; reasonable. 14 Boylston pl.

BEST BARGAIN SOUTH END — 12-room lodging house, rent $50, doing a good business, quick sale sell cheap. 50 Appleton st.

BAKERY $250; chance for groceries; $15 rent; 1 room; examine. SHOREY, 795 Washington.

FOR SALE—Cash grocery with 2 furnished rooms at 151 Northampton st.; profits $20 week.

$500—15-ROOM lodging house, h. and c. water, central; bargain if sold at once. 31 Clarendon.

WELL FUR. lodging house; rooms full; doubles rent and expense. 1 Hollis place, off Hollis st.

FOR SALE—Lunch cart all connected; good business. J. H. DERVIN, 14 James st., Malden.

Legal and Public Notices.

NOTICE OF HEARING—To the Board of Street Commissioners of the City of Boston—The West End Street Railway Company, by the Boston Elevated Railway Company, its Attorney, respectfully petitions for leave to construct, maintain and use an alteration of its existing locations, as follows: on Beverly street from north of Causeway street and on Causeway street from east of Beverly street and at the junction of the aforesaid streets, an alteration, as shown by red lines, of the existing tracks and curves, indicated by dotted black lines, on plan of A. L. Plimpton, Civil Engineer, dated May 23, 1910, filed herewith; together with all necessary curves, cross-overs, switches and connections. Also that permission be given said Company to establish and maintain the overhead single trolley electric system of motive power in the operation of its cars on said new tracks, and to erect, maintain and use the necessary poles, wires, appliances and electrical appliances and apparatus and to make the underground and surface alterations of the streets necessary for that purpose. WEST END STREET RAILWAY COMPANY, by BOSTON ELEVATED RAILWAY COMPANY, its Attorney, by WILLIAM A. BANCROFT, President.

CITY OF BOSTON—In Board of Street Commissioners, May 31, 1910.—Upon the foregoing petition, it is hereby Ordered, that fourteen days' notice be given by the petitioner to all parties interested that this Board will, on Tuesday, the 21st day of June, at 11 o'clock A. M., take into consideration the expediency of granting the prayer of the above petition, when any parties who object thereto may appear and be heard. Said notice is to be given by publication of a copy of said petition and this order thereon in the Boston Journal and Boston American. Passed. J. J. O'CALLAGHAN, Secretary. A true copy: Attest: J. J. O'CALLAGHAN, Secretary.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS—Suffolk, ss. Superior Court, April sitting, A. D. 1910, to wit: May 17, 1910. Lazarus S. Kallajian of Boston, in said County of Suffolk, plaintiff, vs. Josephene C. Herrick of said Boston, defendant. This is an action of tort to recover six thousand dollars, alleged to be due to the Plaintiff from the Defendant on the twenty-fourth day of August, A. D. 1909, as set forth in the Plaintiff's writ of that date. And it appearing to the Court by the suggestion of the Plaintiff and on inspection of the officer's return on the Plaintiff's writ, that no personal service of said writ has been made upon the Defendant,—It is ordered by the Court that the Plaintiff give notice to the Defendant of the pendency of this action, and to appear before said Court to be held at Boston, within and for said County of Suffolk, on the first Monday of July next, to answer to the same, by causing an attested copy of this order to be published in the Boston American, a newspaper printed in Boston, once in a week, three weeks successively, the last publication to be at least fourteen days before the said first Monday of July; and that this action be continued to the next sitting of this Court, and so from sitting to sitting, until notice shall be given to the Defendant, agreeably to this order. FRANCIS A. CAMPBELL, Clerk. A true copy: Attest, EDMUND S. PHINNEY, Assistant Clerk.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS—OFFICE OF THE STATE BOARD OF HEALTH—State House, Boston, Mass., June 2, 1910—In accordance with the provisions of the resolve which provides for an investigation and report upon a system of caring for tubercular patients by State and local authorities (Chapter 76, Resolves of 1910) the commission appointed under said resolve hereby give notice that the first public hearing will be held on Monday, June 6, at 2:30 p. m., in Room 143, State House, Boston. By order of the Commission, HENRY P. WALCOTT, Chairman.

Furniture.

HIGHEST CASH PRICES paid for all kinds of furniture and merchandise. Call on J. SWEET, 51 N. Washington st.; tel. 1862-2 Richmond.

OLD FEATHERS BOUGHT—Highest cash paid. AMERICAN FEATHER CO., 226 Dover st., Boston.

SECOND-HAND FURNITURE for sale cheap: 1 large oak buffet, 2 iron double beds and springs. 83 Stedman st., Brookline.

Cash Registers.

WALTON SELLS FOR LESS.

SECOND-HAND. Registers bought and repaired. 22 Devonshire st.; tel. Main 1685-3.

WE WANT TO BUY National and Hallwood registers; state style and number. T. E. WALTON & CO., 22 Devonshire st.

Home for Invalids.

WANTED, in a pleasant country home, a mildly insane lady to care for; can give reliable satisfied customer as reference; for further particulars address R. D., Box 75A, Oxford, Mass.

Male Help Wanted.

R. H. WHITE CO.

—Require—

Men's Clothing and Hat Salesmen

Must be experienced. Apply 8:30 to Supt.

CLERK—Man wanted, under 30 years of age, experienced in employment business; apply stating experience. L 529, Boston American.

FOREMAN—Wanted, a man to take charge of mill room in rubber factory who has had experience. Address N 556, Boston American.

JOB PRESS FEEDERS wanted in private printery. B. F. STURTEVANT CO., Readville, Mass.

JOB PRESSMEN wanted. 30 Oliver st.

MONUMENTAL marble cutters wanted; must be first-class workmen. Apply at 19 Thacher st., Boston, or of VERMONT MARBLE CO., Proctor, Vermont.

MACHINISTS WANTED—Capable all-round machinists, 54 hours weekly; no trouble. Apply at office foot of Webster av., Chelsea. REVERE RUBBER CO.

PAPER BOX STAYERS wanted on Knowlton & Beach machines; good wages and steady work, in western part of State. Address A 517, Boston American.

PORTER WANTED—Young man for porter work, light cooking; chance for advancement. L 527, Boston American.

PIANO POLISHERS WANTED, good pay and steady work to experienced men in old established Boston factory. P. O. Box 1, Essex st. station.

SPINNERS and weavers wanted at once. Telephone, our expense. SOMERSET WOOLEN CO., Meeson, Mass.

STAIRBUILDERS wanted. Apply at 320 Main st., Cambridge, Mass. MR. HIGGINS.

SPINNERS wanted on Johnson & Bassett Mules, at the BALTIC MILLS, Enfield, N. H.

WANTED—Able-bodied men for the U. S. Marine Corps, between the ages of 19 and 35; must be native born or have first papers; monthly pay $15 to $69; additional compensation possible; food, clothing, quarters and medical attendance free; after 30 years' service can retire with 75 per cent. of pay and allowances; service on board ship and ashore in all parts of the world. Apply at 98 Court st., Boston, Mass.

WAITERS WANTED—A few colored waiters for Summer resort; apply early Saturday morning. LEROY WYLIE, 25 Spring Garden st., Dorchester.

WEAVERS wanted—A few good weavers on fancy woolens, Knowles looms. Apply to OUNEGAN MILLS, Oldtown, Me.

Male Miscellaneous.

BROWN'S GOODYEAR SHOE SCHOOL, 486 Chestnut st., Lynn—Plenty practice, modern lasts, all parts taught reasonable; Goodyear machines a specialty.

ENGINEERS, FIREMEN—Get higher license, individual instruction by Thos. Hawley, many years Mass. State examiner of engineers; practical course, low cost, instalments, satisfaction guaranteed; complete practical electricity course; prospectus free. HAWLEY SCHOOL, 113 Huntington av., Boston.

ENGINEERS AND FIREMEN instructed for licenses, according to the State law, the recognized school, James Coyne, M. E., instructor. STATE STEAM ENGINEERING SCHOOL, 121 Haverhill st., Boston; free catalog; (always open).

INSTRUCTION in moving picture operating; call or write. EASTERN THEATRICAL AGENCY, 18 Boylston st., room 6.

I MADE $50,000 in five years with a small mail order business; began with $5; send for free booklet, tells how. HEACOCK, 5102, Lockport, N. Y.

LEARN automobile business in our repair shop; we teach repairing and driving; look us up. G. C. BONNEY, 45 Stanhope st.

MEN WANTED to learn to drive and repair automobiles in our repair shop; day and evening instruction; call or send stamp for particulars. NEW ENGLAND AUTO CO., 809 Tremont st., Boston.

MEN—We teach men to repair or drive automobile for $15; day or evenings; call at our garage, 42 Warren av., Boston, Mass.

MOVING PICTURE OPERATOR taught; Edison and Powers machines; special course. HAWLEY ELECTRIC SCHOOL, 113 Huntington av., Boston.

POSTOFFICE EXAMINATIONS soon—Prepare now. BOSTON INSTITUTE OF CIVIL SERVICE, Beacon bldg., 6 Beacon st., Boston.

SPECIAL 3 weeks' course, driving and repairing autos, $15. COLUMBUS GARAGE, 1,480 Tremont st., Roxbury.

WANTED—Railway mail clerks, city carriers, clerks; Boston examinations announced July 15; preparation free. FRANKLIN INSTITUTE, Dept. 114P, Rochester, N. Y.

Agents and Canvassers.

WANTED—Agents for Brighton, wagon and goods furnished. GRAND UNION TEA CO., Waltham.

Accountants

PUBLIC EXPERT—Corporation auditor, audits; "Established 1880"; go anywhere. Address P. O. Box 2694.

Male Situations Wanted.

AUDITOR, public accountant, corporation expert, systematizer, audit; bookkeeping taught; perfect systems installed; highest credentials, go anywhere United States; professional expert accountant. Address Postoffice, Box 2,694.

AUTO REPAIR MAN, 10 yrs. experience, first-class mechanic, will accept permanent position in repair shop. Y 526, Boston American.

BOOKKEEPING—Private instruction, day or evening; adults thoroughly qualified within three weeks keep any books expertly, unusual ability; business methods; "not school"; "nonsense"; "professional;" expert accountant; auditor. Address P. O. Box 2694.

BELL BOY of 16 would like position in summer hotel for July and August to help pay for education; Maine preferred. Address H. W. RIEKER, 322 Clifton av., Newark, N. J.

CARETAKER—Man wishes position as caretaker of elderly people or companion of invalid; country preferred for the Summer; terms reasonable. Address A. B., Box 47, Kingston, Mass.

CLERK—A middle-aged Swede (40) wants work in store; speaks German and English, but no experience; knows some about bookkeeping, and willing. N 118, Boston American.

CHAUFFEUR would like position with private family; shop experience, strictly temperate, with first-class references. D. McB., 4 Marble st., Roxbury, Mass.

CARPENTER wants work by day or job, good workman, reliable. A., Box 46, South Boston.

GARDENER—Married man wants situation; experienced in lawns, garden, poultry and horses; temperate, good reference. S. F., 221 Lincoln st., Lowell, Mass.

GARDENER—A handy, reliable middle-aged man wants work about houses or lawns, day, week or hour; city or beaches. A. F., 28 Isabella st., suite 2.

GASOLINE MOTOR BOAT—American man wants position, experienced and willing. Address HAFFER, 233 Dodge st., North Beverly, Mass.

GENERAL WORK—A young man, 21 yrs. old, desires employment. P 583, Boston American.

MASON wants work, a man with 20 years' knowledge mason work, stone and brick builder. TILTON POST OFFICE, N. H.

PAINTER wants work for hotel, corporation or real estate; understands all branches of house painting business; whitening and tinting ceilings and hard wood finishing. JOHN R. HOWE, 61 West Millin st., Readville, Mass.

PAINTER—First-class mechanic would like house painting and floor finishing of all kinds, by day or contract. SMITH, 339 Shawmut av.

PRESS FEEDER—Wanted, a situation as job press feeder. Address PRESS FEEDER, 63½ Summer st., Lynn.

PLUMBER—Master's license, wants contracts; jobbing, new or real estate. L 526, Boston American.

STENOGRAPHER—Young man with 2½ years' experience will start for $7 with chance for advancement and steady position; can furnish first-class references. Z 504, Boston American.

STENOGRAPHER—Young man, 19 yrs. of age, desires position; has had 2 yrs.' experience; best of references. Z 527, Boston American.

UPHOLSTERER — Thoroughly understands his business; would like work or give estimates on any repairing you wish to have done; anyone, anywhere, any time. Address L. E. PHINNEY, 132½ Hampshire st., Cambridge, Mass.

WANTED—Young man and wife want charge of a farm in the country, or a small hotel at the beach. L 510, Boston American.

Female Help Wanted.

LAUNDRY HELP WANTED

HEAD MARKER and assorter, starch work. HIGHLAND LAUNDRY, 414 Blue Hill av., Rox.

BAKERY GIRL wanted, one who has some restaurant experience preferred. 727 Huntington av., cor. Francis st., Roxbury.

GENERAL HOUSEWORK GIRL wanted, small family; one willing to go to country for the summer. 122 Huntington av., suite 1, Boston.

GIRL, about 20, fairly tall and strong, willing to work. NEW ENGLAND SUPPLY CO., 7 Sears st., off 68 India.

GIRL—Wanted, young girl as mother's helper, in Dorchester. Address K 519, Boston American.

HOUSEKEEPER WANTED—A Prot. housekeeper in small family; no objection to small child; please call. 294 Athens st., So. Boston.

LAUNDRY help—50 women to do ironing of all kinds, both on plain and fancy garments, plenty of work. Apply at LEWANDOS, laundry dept., Watertown, Mass.

NURSE—Experienced, reliable nurse wanted to take entire charge of 9 months old infant. Address with references, 7 Cummings road, Brookline.

OVERALL MAKERS, experienced, also coat makers wanted, also a button hole maker. Apply at 21-23 Edinboro street, Boston, Mass.

Female Miscellaneous.

IN ANY DEPARTMENT STORE

YOU cannot buy a ready-made suit or skirt fit as made to order by FISHELBERG & KULIS; guaranteed fit and make; for a short time we make ladies' suits to order with our own cloth for $7.50. 755 Washington st., one flight up., Boston.

GIRLS WANTED TO LEARN MILLINERY. ("Cut out this ad.") It is worth $5 cash to you, and if presented any day this week, will be accepted as a $5 cash payment on the full course in "MILLINERY." "INDIVIDUAL INSTRUCTION." "NO CLASS TEACHING." "REGULAR MATERIALS," used in teaching. "DAY" and "EVENING" school. "POSITIONS GUARANTEED." MILLINERY COLLEGE, 241 Tremont st., Boston, Mass.

GIRLS WANTED to learn dressmaking and millinery, position guaranteed. MME. LITCHFIELD, 84½ Berkeley st.

LADIES to bead slippers; home work. 25 Winter st., room 514.

LEARN DRESSMAKING or millinery at McDOWELL'S 25 Winter st.; see our Sunday adv.

THE BROADWAY CO., 96 Broadway, South Boston—Large assortment of street, party and evening dresses, slightly worn, also opera coats, cloaks, skirts, waists, etc., at low prices.

WE CARRY the largest line of high grade slightly worn, custom made, ladies' suits and street dresses in New England, from $3 up; look for the sign. MARKS & CHESTER, 83 Dudley st., Rox.

YOUR old feathers changed into the fashionable willow plume 25c. inch; $3.50 14-inch plume; also millinery. MRS. E. M. SMITH, Room 66, 175 Tremont st.

$2.50 PER DAY paid to one lady in each town to distribute free circulars and take orders for concentrated flavoring in tubes; permanent position. J. S. ZIEGLER CO., Chicago.

Female Situations Wanted.

ATTENDANT to an elderly person, experienced in traveling, would go to mountains or abroad. MISS MARY KELLY, 770 Westminster st., Providence, R. I.

BAKERY STORE—Young lady wishes position; good experience, highest reference. Address Box 122, Hingham, Mass.

CARE-TAKERS—Lady and gentleman wish position as care-takers of elderly people; homelike place, country, preferred; last place 5 years; terms reasonable. S. E. P. Box 47, Kingston, Mass., care GAKINS.

CARETAKER—Lady wishes position as caretaker of elderly people or companion or invalid; country preferred for the Summer; terms reasonable. Address S. E. P., Box 47, Kingston, Mass.

COOK—A good all-round cook, desires position, excellent pastry, good bread maker, meats, soups, entrees; economical and temperate. 58 Warrenton st.; tel. 2635-3 Ox.

COOK—Capable English girl, good cook, laundress; excellent ref. 23A Blue Hill av.; tel 861-1 Rox.

CHAMBERMAID—Neat colored girl wishes position as chambermaid or day work. Address MISS S. S. S., 235 W. Canton st., Boston, Mass.

CLEANER—Situation wanted, cleaning apartment houses. 25 Corey st., Charlestown.

DRESSMAKER—An experienced dressmaker would like your work to do at home; high grade experience in cutting and making of all styles, remodelling a specialty. 47 Appleton st., Boston.

DAY WORK—A neat colored girl would like to have morning work in an office or work by the day or take care of bachelor apartment; you can call on Saturday or by mail. 62 Sawyer st., suite 2. MARGARET BRADLEE, Roxbury, Mass.

DAY WORK—Neat young col. girl would like care of bachelor apartment; no washing. Address J. C., 1 Revere st. pl., city.

DAY WORK—Colored woman wants day's work by the day; price $1.25. Address 196 Northampton st.; A. J.; tel. 1541-1.

DAY WORK—A colored girl wants day's work. M. H., 112 Dartmouth st., city.

DAY WORK—WOMAN wants work day or hour; capable. MRS. L., 88 Warrenton st., suite 3.

DAY WORK—Woman wants work by day or hour; good worker; 15c per hour. 92 Vernon st., Roxbury; tel. 1537-2 Roxbury.

GOVERNESS—Lady would care for children over six years of age at beautiful seashore home; plenty of good food, fresh milk and eggs, sea bathing; prices very reasonable. Address P. O. Box 644, Rockport, Mass.

GENERAL WORK—A capable young woman wants washing Tuesday and Wednesday, and cleaning Friday and Saturday; 15 cents an hour; steady places, with ref. MRS. F. K. O'CONNOR, Postoffice, South Boston.

GENERAL WORK—A young colored woman wants work of any kind, cleaning or washing; will go anywhere, city or country. Call or write. MRS. STEWART, 69 Church st., Boston.

GENERAL HOUSEWORK—Down East girl wants position; good cook and laundress; best ref. 92 Vernon st., Roxbury; 1537-2 Roxbury.

HOUSEKEEPER for widower or good home; any light work; would do chamberwork in hotel; near large city preferred; by Western educated Prot., 39; former teacher; particulars and ref. or not answered; stamp. J 540, Boston American.

HOUSEKEEPER position wanted, middle-aged Protestant woman in widower's family; no small children, am good plain cook without enc., good home, more than high wages; best of character and references. F 543, Boston American.

HOUSEKEEPER'S position in refined and permanent home by young widow with a little girl; honest, conscientious and capable; only respectable parties apply. W., 26 Josephine st., Dorchester, suite 3.

HOUSEKEEPER—Refined housekeeper wants position, summer hotel or commercial home; have owned place and have guests waiting. P 576, Boston American.

HOUSEKEEPER—Wanted by capable woman, position in gentleman's or working man's home or small family of adults, good home rather than high wages; near city. 1 Bond st.

HOUSEKEEPER, in lodging house or widower's small family, city or beach. HOUSEKEEPER, 76 High st., Charlestown.

HOUSEKEEPER OR COOK would like position or would take general work; capable. D. MITCHELL, 579 Mass. av., Cambridge; tel. 2994-2.

HOUSEKEEPER wishes a position in respectable widower's family or business woman. Call or address MRS. L. M. SMITH, 14 Clay av., Everett.

HOUSEKEEPER—Situation as caretaker by middle-aged Prot. woman; neat, good cook, capable, reliable. N 582, Boston American.

HOUSEKEEPER—Wants position as working housekeeper in a respectable widower's small family. Address C., 444 Main st., Haverhill, Mass.

HOUSEKEEPER—American woman, 40, would like place as housekeeper in small family; small wages. F 549, Boston American.

HOUSEKEEPER—Middle-aged woman wants position to take charge of lodging house. 348 Tremont st.

HOUSEWORK—Young colored girl would like light housework in small family or chamber work; good refs.; or care of child. C. N., 33 Winchester st., City.

HOUSEWORK—Capable girl wants position in private family; best of references. Address H. 81, Rox. st; Tel. 357, Rox.

LAUNDRESS—A reliable (col.) woman desires laundry work to do at home; neat work and at reasonable terms; call and deliver. MRS. E. HOULTON, 69 Church st., Boston.

LAUNDRESS—An experienced laundress would like your laundry work to do at home, plain or fancy and family washes; special rates; sunshine dry. 9 Holyoke st., near Plaza Hotel, formerly 289 Columbus av.

LAUNDRESS wants work to do at home; first-class work; reasonable prices. MRS. BAILEY, 366 Shawmut av.

OFFICE WORK—Young girl to do office work or bachelors' apartments. C. LEE, 96 Albion st.

Female Situations Wanted.

LAUNDRESS wants work; a comp. col. woman wants laundry work to do at home. Address E. M., 38 Dover st., suite 3.

LAUNDRESS wants laundry work to take home, 50 cts. doz. Write DETRY, 84 W. Springfield st., city.

NURSE—Middle-aged American woman would like care of a convalescent, incurable or old age; a sunny corner room; terms reasonable. MRS. B. J. APPLETON, 41 Ruggles st., Suite 2, Roxbury.

NURSE would like engagement; can give best of references. Address MRS. N. CHAPIN, Uphams cor. P. O., Dorchester, Mass.

SEWER—All kinds plain sewing, children's work, mending for ladies and gents. MRS. L. WAKEFIELD, 464 Shawmut av.

Furnished Rooms to Let.

VISITORS TO BOSTON.

TAKE ROOMS at Hotel Waterston, cor. Bowdoin st. and Bulfinch pl., over hill from State House, or 3 minutes from Scollay sq.; rooms only; clean, quiet; h. and c. water; baths, elevators; $1 day, double; 50c., 75c., single; $2 to $4.50 weekly.

APPLETON ST., 48—Rooms by day or week; traveling people accom. Tel. 1277-5 Trem.

APPLETON ST., 50—Exceptionally nice rooms, by day or week; tourists accom.; tel. 1328-4 Trem.

APPLETON ST., 52—Traveling people can have well-cared-for rooms by day or week.

BOWDOIN SQ.—Merrill House; furnished rooms, $2 weekly up; 50c daily up; tourists; tel. Haymarket 22895.

CHARLESTOWN, Green st., 38—A large front square and side room on floor with bath, nicely furnished, $1.25 up.

CHARLESTOWN, High st., 23—2 furnished rooms, light housek., mod., $4, near Bunker Hill monument.

CIRCUIT ST., 46, near Dudley L—3 connecting housekeeping furnished rooms, range, sink, bath.

DOR., WASHINGTON ST., 736-738—Nice cool corner, 7 rooms and bath; janitor. MRS. L., or A. E. DUBY.

E. SOMERVILLE, Austin st., 11—Newly fur. rooms, $1.50 upwards. MRS. SWEET, top floor.

FOUNTAIN ST., 20, off Regent, Rox.—2 furnished rooms for housekeeping, range, sink and bath, rent low.

FOREST HILLS, 162 Wachusett st.—Two rooms furnished complete, housek., beautiful location, high land.

HOLLIS PL., 1, off Hollis st.—Large sq. room for two men; also one with light housek. privileges.

HOLYOKE ST., 36—Tel. 1578-1 Tremont—Rooms by day or week; moderate prices.

ISABELLA ST., 28, Suite 2—A lady having pleasant flat rents rooms, day or week.

MASS. AV., 671—Near Northampton st. "L" station, front sq. and side rooms, newly furnished; tel. con.

MASS. AV., 687—Newly fur. rooms for l. h. k., square and side rooms.; tel. con., 1 min. from "L."

MAIN ST., 257, Charlestown—Furnished room, all conveniences, steam heat, $2.50 to $3.50 week, second floor.

SOUTH BOSTON, E. Fourth st., 927, Suite 3—Rooms in private family, best residential part.

TREMONT ST., 735—Rooms for light housekeeping, large closets, h. and c. water, gas range, use of laundry.

UNION PARK, 24—Nicely fur. large dining room, kitchen privilege; also sq. room, impts., housek., tel.

UPTON ST., 10—H. K. front room, bath floor, $3; front parlor $3.50, side $1.50; w. and g.

UPTON ST., 20—Lovely side room, 1 flight front; nicely fur. sq. room, modern impt., tel.

W. SPRINGFIELD ST., 178, cor. Tremont st.—Corner rooms for lodging or can use kitchen to cook in; newly furnished.

W. NEWTON ST., 37—cozy rooms, opposite park, $2, $3, $4; open plumbing in every room, shower bath, continuous hot water, telephone booth.

WEST NEWTON ST., 45—Overlooking park, well fur., pleasant front and back parlor and sq. room; conv., tel.

WELLINGTON ST., 20, suite 2.—You will find newly fur. rooms at $1 per day; tel. 958-4 Tremont.

WARREN AV., 49—Very pleasant back square and two nice side rooms, neatly furnished, home comforts.

WARREN AV., 89—Visitors to Boston will find large pleasant rooms, $1 per day.

WALTHAM ST., 11—Square room furnished for housekeeping, water, gas and closet.

WALTHAM ST., 76—Well furnished sq. rooms, h. and c. water; also side rooms, $1 up.

WASHINGTON ST., 897—Finely furnished front square room, suitable for two gentlemen.

WASHINGTON ST., 1,666—Rooms with board, prices reasonable, salesmen or mechanics preferred.

5 MINUTES to Sullivan sq., light housek. rooms, sq., $2; side, $1, all imp. V 533, Boston American.

Horses and Carriages.

Doctor's Outfit A BARGAIN

THIS OUTFIT belongs to a well-known doctor who has purchased an automobile; the horse weighs about 1,100 lbs., 7 years old, and safe for a lady to drive as well as a man; it can road 10 miles an hour easily and is large enough to pull a ton to a wagon; has long, flowing mane and tail, round turned and shapely built, is absolutely fearless of cars or automobiles, will stand without tying, has good, sound feet and legs; in fact, is sound in every respect; cost the present owner $300 one year ago; also an elegant carriage in perfect condition; nice custom-made harness, robe, blankets, whip, etc.; $100 buys all, and to the purchaser I will allow two weeks to try and test the horse in every particular; this property can be seen by calling at BOARDING STABLE, 1,233 Columbus av., Roxbury, near Roxbury Crossing; will sell the horse separate to have a good home. P. S.—Ask to see the doctor's outfit

HENDERSON BROS., WAGONS

FOR every kind of business, ready for use in all sizes; no one can beat our prices; more in stock than all the other dealers in Massachusetts put together. HENDERSON BROS., 2067 Mass. av., North Cambridge, Mass.

6 POST grocery wagon, in perfect repair, will sell at sacrifice. 429 Neponset av.

Hatters.

PANAMA HATS BLEACHED

AND BLOCKED in style in 3-4 days; our own bleachery; no acid used. WEILHART & RUHMAN, 11 School st., street floor.

PANAMA HATS BLEACHED

AND BLOCKED, up-to-date methods; positively no injurious acids used; try us. Main 3746-3; HARRINGTON HAT CO., 1 short flight, 3 School st.

PANAMA HAT BLEACHERY.

LADIES' AND GENTLEMEN'S Panamas blocked into latest styles; no injurious chemicals used; open Saturday evenings. M. A. GRIFFIN, 17 Tremont st.

PANAMA HATS BLEACHED

AND blocked in latest styles; established 1885. KELLY'S HAT HOSPITAL, 22 Province st., street floor.

Sewing Machines.

GOING WEST, must sell my $60 Singer; good as new, $5. Call 352 Somerville av., Somerville.

DANDY SINGER, $5; all makes repaired. STERN & CO., 15 Essex st.

LADY would like to sell late style Singer, $5. 269 Broadway, Somerville.

Wall Papers.

ROOMS papered, $1.75; painting, $1.25; whitewashing, 30c.; all kinds of painting, reasonable prices; work guaranteed; send postal or call. A. B. KRAMER, 49 Norway st.; tel. 2322-2 B. B.

Divorces.

DIVORCE Specialty—Free advice, quietly promptly, any State, easy terms. ATKINSON Law Office, 1 Beacon st., Boston.

Wines and Liquors.

ABSOLUTELY straight 2-stamp Ky. Whisker, N. E. Rum or Gin, $2 full gallon jug. THOS. SNOW & SON, est. 100 yrs., 59 N. Market st., Boston.

Motorcycles.

R. S. 4 H. P. MAGNETO motorcycle for sale, brand new. Call or write. 110 School st., Roxbury.

Pianos and Musical Instruments.

Piano Sale THIS WEEK

½ ACTUAL VALUE

Read This List—50 Others

MASON & HAMLIN 7 1-3-octave upright, $150, worth $400, perfect in every way; easy terms. CHARLES S. NORRIS, 181 Tremont st.

SOHMER grand upright, cost $450, our price $125, worth at least $250; monthly payments. CHARLES S. NORRIS, 181 Tremont st.

KURTZMAN mahogany cabinet grand upright, a very handsome piano, $137.50, worth $275. CHARLES S. NORRIS, 181 Tremont st.

HENRY F. MILLER 7 1-3-octave upright, splendid condition, $115, worth $225; rare chance. CHARLES S. NORRIS, 181 Tremont st.

MERRILL mahogany upright, used only six months, a tremendous bargain, easy terms, at $200, worth $400; easy terms if wanted. CHARLES S. NORRIS, 181 Tremont st.

HAINES BROS. upright, fancy case, $125, worth $250. CHARLES S. NORRIS, 181 Tremont st.

SUMNER walnut upright, $100, worth $200. CHARLES S. NORRIS, 181 Tremont st.

BYRNE 7 1-3 mahogany upright, small size, only $95, worth $175 at least. CHARLES S. NORRIS, 181 Tremont st.

BEAUTIFUL PLAYER-PIANO for $350, plays all standard music, slightly used for demonstration. CHARLES S. NORRIS, 181 Tremont st.

PIANO BARGAINS

$5 DOWN, $1 A WEEK

Mason & Hamlin Upt.	$107
H. F. Miller Upt.	$74
Huntington Upt.	$69
Kranich & Bach Upt.	$57
Everett Upt.	$89
Webber Upt.	$87
Steinway Upt.	$117
Ivers & Pond Upt.	$119
Knabe Upt.	$79
McPhail Upt.	$67
Emerson Upt.	$60
Chickering Upt.	$81
Schumann & Sons Upt.	$120
Merrill Upt.	$82
Jacob Doll Upt.	$250
Hallet & Davis Upt.	$111
Steinert Upt.	$65
Vose Upt.	$93

Roxbury Storage Salesrooms, Inc.

Open Mon., Thurs. and Sat. till 9 P. M.

2111 Washington St., Corner Williams

BLAKE ESTABLISHED 1869

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.

PIANOS OF ALL MAKES

150 ALWAYS IN STOCK.

New and Second-Hand.

SOLD ON 3 YEARS' APPROVAL.

No Interest if Paid as Agreed.

RENTALS AT SPECIAL RATES.

564 Washington Street. Elevator.

BARNARD'S ...$1.00... PIANO PLAN

We will sell you any make piano $1.00 down and $1.00 a week. Get the other dealer's price first, if you like, then come to us and we will beat it. Send postal and we will give you something free. FRANK L. BARNARD, Piano Mfrs. Agent, 657 Washington st., cor. Boylston st., Boston. Over Continental Clothing Co.

CHICKERING UPRIGHT CHEAP—Two years old; figured mahogany; perfect condition; cost $550; price now $215. LORD & CO., Lawrence, Mass.

IVERS & POND UPRIGHT, $90, right for beginners. LORD & CO., Lawrence.

MAHOGANY UPRIGHT PIANO, $98—Also Player Piano. Auction Rooms, 6 Pemberton sq.

Music.

PIANOS TUNED, $1

A. J. HALL, 193 Huntington av., Boston, tunes Chickering, Steinway, Hallett & Davis; 25 years' experience regulating, repairing. Phone 2867-3 Back Bay.

Apartments to Let.

5-Room Cambridge Apartments

RENT, $4.00 and $4.50 WEEK

NO DARK rooms, bath, gas, set tubs, handy to schools, stores and cars, entirely new; take time Sunday or Monday. 102 Harvard st., Cambridge; see agent No. 2 bell.

SO. BOSTON—$1.50 and $1.75 per week for nice tenements. Apply MRS. MURRAY, 96 Bolton st.

WORTHINGTON ST., 45—Just finished, 5-room suite, up-to-date, h. w., jan., telephone; near art museum.

MASSACHUSETTS AV., 931, Roxbury—$2.25 per week, four rooms and bath, two weeks free.

W. LENOX ST., 73—Tenements of 3 and 4 rooms, stoves, gas, bath, pleasant; rent very reasonable.

BEACON HILL—Flats 3, 4 and 5 rooms to let; reasonable rent, imp. GOODMAN, 39 Revere st.

Summer Resorts.

REVERE—Large furnished rooms $3 and $3.50 a week, in a private house, within 3 minutes of the beach and 1 minute of the electrics; take Beach st. car. Address 78 Highland st., Shirley Park, Revere.

SUMMER COTTAGE to let on banks of Kennebec river at Richmond, Me., delightful situation, price reasonable. Apply 122 Huntington av., suite 1, Boston.

FOR SALE or exchange for Dorchester real estate, new 6-room summer bungalow and auxiliary sloop, 25 ft. o. a. Address F. P. KENNY, Bayside, No. Weymouth.

TO LET at Newton Centre—Furnished house of 7 rooms; $35 mo. CLARK, 43 Kilby st., Boston.

Summer Cottages to Let.

COSY 5-room cottage, fur., complete, 1 acre land, and fruit; rent $12 per month. Address Box 116, South Lancaster, Mass.

Diamonds, Watches and Jewelry.

LENOX JEWELRY CO.

$1 DOWN, $1 WEEK—Diamonds, watches, jewelry; open an account now; we trust you. 373 Washington st., room 75.

CASH paid for gold and diamonds; watches, clocks and jewelry repaired. H. A. BOWDLEAR, 13 Devonshire st.

MAINSPRINGS, 20c., put in while waiting; warranted 2 years; watches cleaned, 30c. ALBERTS, 749 Washington st.

Money to Loan.

MERCHANTS, professional and business men of established position and financial responsibility can obtain financial accommodation upon their paper, as warranted by their responsibility; high-class methods for high-class men; amount, rate, collateral, or loans without collateral, depend on the man; liberality and adherence to contract guaranteed; write for interview. P. O. Box 1118.

QUICK LOANS on furn., pianos, teams, autos, stores, shops, mchy., boats. Collateral loan tickets; lowest rates. H. VAN DAM, 1 Beacon st., Boston.

MONEY LOANED to reliable people, any amount on furniture, pianos, salaries, etc., at low rates. HUB LOAN CO., 43 Tremont st., room 1104.

Barter and Exchange.

WANTED—Piano, auto or furnishings or rugs suitable for beach house; will exchange building lots at West Roxbury. Address K 124, Boston American.

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE—B. bull bitch, B. ears, S. tail, a beauty, 15 months old, due in 2 weeks, will trade for bicycle; house broken and a pet. P. O. Box 71, Groton, Mass.

EXCHANGE—Three lots in Oakland Park, Wilmington, about 7,500 sq. ft. of land, free and clear, exchange for anything. Address OAKLAND, 333 Tremont st., Boston.

Typewriters.

Remington and Franklin Typewriters Rented for Three Months for $3.00. Rebuilt and second-hand machines of all makes for sale at the lowest possible prices. CUTTER TOWER CO., 184 Summer St. Room 401

ALL MAKES, $10 to $60; rented, easy terms. AMER. WR. MACHINE CO., 38 Bromfield st.

For Sale—Miscellaneous.

GARDEN HOSE, 50,000 FT.

AT 4c FT. up; guaranteed. 374 Atlantic av., next Rowes wharf. MILLER & BORNSTEIN.

FOR SALE—4 soda tanks, carbonating outfit, rocker, copper sink, tumbler washer. 13 Devonshire st.

Real Estate for Sale.

LOTS $29 AND UP WATER FRONT LOTS AT TERMS TO SUIT

NUTTINGS LAKE PARK, BILLERICA

Free Excursion Sunday

AUTOMOBILES

From Old South Bldg. at 11 A. M.

We made arrangements for ten extra autos besides our own, so that everybody who may come will find a seat. This is a good opportunity to see the finest property with the greatest ease and comfort. Come as our guest. Boats, fishing lines at your disposal. See this land before you buy elsewhere. Call or write for plans, photos, free tickets, etc., mailed on request. BILLERICA LAND CO., 834 Old South Bldg., tel 6331-1 Main.

WATER FRONT LOTS $50

BUNGALOW LOTS $19

¼ ACRE FARMS $95

$2 DOWN and $1 WEEK

$50 IN GOLD to builders; 12 miles out; large water front, grand lake view, beautiful groves and clear, fertile land; free excursion Saturday and Sunday at 12. G. W. BARTLETT, 89 Court st.

CANTON, MASS.

9 MILES to State st., gentleman's estate, 4 acres, every variety of fruit; great bargain; terms can be arranged. CHARLES A. HALL, 645 Tremont Bldg.; phone 1549 Hay.

BEACON STREET.

FOR SALE—House 14 rooms, location best part of this beautiful street, appointments A1; price at bargain; terms reasonable. CHARLES A. HALL, 645 Tremont Bldg.; phone 1549 Haymarket.

WAREHAM.

ESTATE 12 acres, house 15 rooms, stable, garage, orchard and pine groves, well located; price $8,000. CHARLES A. HALL, 645 Tremont Bldg.

WEYMOUTH ACRES.

1 Acre on a Thoroughfare $125.

1 Acre Connected $75

1 Acre on 40 Foot Street $60.

THIS beautiful tract is only 10 minutes from both steam and electric car stations, bordering Forest st., off Randolph st., So. Weymouth; high and absolutely dry, fertile and healthful, 3 min. to Great Pond, 30 min. run from Boston, 15c fare; ideal for city people; have a bungalow or chicken farm. $10 deposit and small monthly payments; call at office any time and get full description and free tickets to see property; free excursions daily (and Sunday) on 12:43 train, track 18, So. Station. D. ARTHUR BROWN, 1,008 Tremont bldg.

Puritan Realty Co., 47 Court St., Boston. Tel. 2456-1 & 2776-4 Main.

MALDEN—For sale; in fine American neighborhood, 2-fam. house, 11 rooms, gas and gas ranges, storm windows and doors, 4,300 ft. of land; price $2,650, $250 down. PURITAN.

EVERETT—3-fam. house, 15 rooms, all mod., rents $600 yr.; price $4,600, $500 down. PURITAN.

EVERETT—House 9 rooms, 4 rooms and big reception hall on 1st floor, 5 rooms, bath and hall on 2d floor and 3 unfinished attics, with all mod. imp. and best location; house is in best condition; price $3,400, $300 down. PURITAN.

ROXBURY, facing Franklin Field—3-fam. house, 18 rooms, all mod., one yr. built, rents $756 yr.; price $6,000. PURITAN.

FOR SALE—Small farm near Boston; will sell cheap. PURITAN.

ROBBINS HILL, ARLINGTON

NOTED for its beautiful homes, grand view, mineral spring, etc., offers exceptional sites for home seekers, 5c fare; few lots to close at 8c a foot (worth 15c); easy terms, $10 down, $5 monthly; money to build; 5 minutes to electrics and trains; proposed Belmont line through property will increase values 500 p. c.; live up here and cure your catarrh, asthma, etc.; all Arlington cars stop at Robbins road; walk up hill; salesmen on property Saturday afternoon and Sunday. J. S. GERRISH, 124 Kimball bldg., Boston.

DEDHAM.

$20 DOWN, $5 PER MONTH.

$200 for 4,000 ft. of land, cellar all dug, near Endicott station; great bargain. JAMES A. NICKERSON, 420 Tremont bldg.

$700, SUMMER COTTAGE, $700

NEAR BOSTON, at the sea shore, Houghs Neck; $200 down and $10 a month, same as rent; this cottage has open plumbing and is near the water and cars. W. A. DUNHAM, 7 Water st., room 711.

HOME SITES—5c FARE.

MEET me any afternoon at Trapelo Heights Park, Waverley; will show lots $250 upward, cash or $5 monthly; new subway will increase values. J. V. McCARTHY, 1,123 Old South bldg.

THREE-FLAT HOUSE, $3,500.

DORCHESTER—5 rooms and bath each, assessed $4,300, price $3,500. EDWARD T. HARRINGTON CO., 293 Washington st.

FARMS P. F. LELAND, 113 Devonshire st. All prices; circular free. Dept. 4.

SQUANTUM.

FOR SALE—4 very desirable lots cheap if sold quick. I. OSTERWEIL, 2 Bay st., Dorchester.

BRAND NEW single cottages, 6 to 9 rooms, all improvements, furnace or steam heat, gas or electric lights, hardwood floors, open plumbing, very close to electrics, 5c fare from town; for sale on easy terms. G. H. BRUCE, 10 Tremont st., Boston.

SO. BOSTON—$200 down, balance monthly, 3-family, 11-room house, rents $312 year, price $1,500; also house 8 rooms and store, assessed $2,500, price $1,800. Particulars 66 King st., Dorchester.

WANTED TO BUY—A 2-fam. house with imp.; near Everett sq., Everett; will pay $500 down; price of house not over $3,500. K 141, Boston American.

$5 PAYS IN FULL for house lot of 2,500 sq. ft. in Sandwich, Mass. BARNSTABLE COUNTY LAND CO., 201 Old South bldg.

CEDAR ST., ROXBURY—10-room brick, modern, mortgage $3,100, equity $500. A 137, Boston American.

FOR SALE—6½ acres land in Marshfield; near salt water; $275. Box 207, Marshfield, Mass.

Farms.

FLORIDA LANDS CHEAP.

WOULD YOU INVEST in a 5, 10, 20 or 40 acre fruit, vegetable, poultry, pecan or truck farm in Florida's best agricultural district, if you could get it for $7.50 per acre under market price? We are just opening new tract in Columbia County, and while constructing the campaign will sell a few tracts on cash or easy payments of $5.00 per month. We have just issued a beautiful 20-page book, showing pictures of fields and dwellings in our locality, all in artistic colors. We will mail you this book free, and send you such other advertising matter as will give you a good idea of our proposition. Our land is convenient to three railroads, and we have Lake City, a modern county seat of 6,000 people in our midst. People who know Florida consider our tract one of the very best. It is indorsed by bankers, Congressmen, farmers and the Board of Trade. Prices very low; easy buying plan; write for maps and book giving truthful description. COLUMBIA-FLORIDA LAND CO., 418 Times Bldg., St. Louis, Mo.

Farms Wanted.

FARM WANTED for 26-room lodging house, price $1,500, good house, best class. W. GERRISH, 479 Essex st., Lynn, Mass. Good investment.

Real Estate Mortgages.

REAL ESTATE mortgages placed, large or small. E. H. WIGGIN, 60 State st.

Automobiles.

$225 BUYS a Cadillac delivery wagon, engine guaranteed; carry ½ ton. BECKWITH, 809 Tremont st.

CADILLAC with delivery body. Apply W. NOLAN, Tremont Garage, 541 Tremont st.

THE BOSTON AMERICAN

Published Daily and Sunday at 80 and 82 Summer Street, Boston, Mass.

NEW ENGLAND NEWSPAPER PUBLISHING CO.

Entered as second class matter, June 1, 1907, at the postoffice at Boston, Mass.

Entered as second class matter at the Postoffice Department, Canada.

Price: Daily, One Cent; Sunday, Five Cents.

Terms: Postage included for the United States (outside of Boston) and Mexico:

Daily only:

One year .... [illegible]

Six months .... [illegible]

One month .... [illegible]

Sunday only:

One year .... [illegible]

Six months .... [illegible]

Daily and Sunday:

One year .... [illegible]

Six months .... [illegible]

One month .... [illegible]

On foreign subscriptions add postage [illegible] cent per copy daily and [illegible] cents per copy Sunday.

"HELP WANTED" Try that classification on this page when you desire "competent help" quickly.

"SITUATIONS WANTED" When you have a vacancy to fill look thru this classification first—then if you fail to find the parties you're looking for, put a little ad. under "Help Wanted."

Quick Results--Least Cost

EDITORIAL PAGE OF THE BOSTON AMERICAN

BOSTON, JUNE 3, 1910

BOSTON AMERICAN

80 AND 82 SUMMER ST., BOSTON, JUNE 3, 1910

Uniforms for City Minor Employes—to Keep Them Honest

If That Is the Idea, Put Uniforms on THE BIG FELLOWS. Th. Little Fellows Are Honest Enough

Copyright, 1910, by American-Journal-Examiner

Some genius has a plan for putting uniforms on the little employes of the big cities. Says the genius who advances this:

> Many of the employes, protected by civil service, waste the city's time.
>
> They are off duty many hours, they neglect their work. They sit around in saloons. They do not earn the money that the city pays them.
>
> Put uniforms on their backs; write on their caps, in gilt letters, the work that they are supposed to be doing; then the citizens and taxpayers could watch them, and ask them why they don't go to work.

The Boston American does not indorse this suggestion of the brilliant-minded schemer who would put uniforms on small men "to keep them honest."

The dishonesty in the big cities, the stealing and the wasting of the people's time, is not the shortcomings of the LITTLE EMPLOYES.

If you are going to put uniforms on anybody, put the uniforms on the BIG MEN, the commissioners and deputy commissioners, the engineers and the others that get the big salaries—and often don't earn them.

The little man, getting his twelve hundred or fourteen hundred a year, works hard. He is not the man who sits around in the cafes, selling the city's property, adding to his double chin and his thick jowls, robbing the people when he is idle, and robbing them more dangerously when he is busy.

This newspaper seconds the protest of a man employed by a city who says:

> I have worn a uniform, that of the United States army, in which the government's uniform is put on every man, from the highest officer to the lowest enlisted man. And if I am to wear a uniform now, I want the same rule to be carried out. Put that uniform on the man at the top, as well as upon me.

A fair suggestion. And, in addition, this newspaper points out the fact that nobody has the right to hire a man for twelve or fourteen hundred dollars a year, in the big cities where living is so expensive, AND THEN COMPEL HIM AGAINST HIS WILL TO PAY FOR A UNIFORM.

If there is any uniforming to be done by compulsion, put the uniform on everybody. Let the Mayor of any city wear the uniform that his clerks wear under him. Let the Street Cleaning Commissioner wear a uniform; also all the other commissioners. And in the case of the little men who are underpaid, LET THE CITY PAY FOR THOSE UNIFORMS.

Bear in mind that the serious trouble in this country is not time-wasting and stealing, and general dishonesty on the part of small men, but wholesale stealing on the part of the big men.

When any city pays hundreds of thousands of dollars for automobiles, and these automobiles are used for "joy rides," it isn't the little twelve-hundred-dollar man who takes out the automobiles.

Get after the BIG people. Watch THEM, regulate THEM. THE LITTLE MEN ARE DOING WELL ENOUGH.

She Put the Dog in Her Husband's Grave

A Sign of Insanity? Not at All. Simply Going Back to Old Habits

Copyright, 1910, by American-Journal-Examiner

Mrs. Mogg wanted to put the family pet dog in the grave with her husband. Whether the lady would have waited for the dog to die or meant to bury it alive, is not told.

Now she is dead, there is a lawsuit for the possession of her property—$50,000—and the man who thinks the money should go to him, and not to a public hospital, tries to prove that Mrs. Mogg was insane.

The only proof of insanity offered by him is the story of the pet dog and the husband's grave.

A doctor testifies that if the lady really wanted to put the pet dog in her husband's grave, "she was mentally unstable."

We are surprised at that doctor. He must know that what poor Mrs. Mogg tried to do in this semi-civilized period was at one time no sign of insanity at all, but ALL THE FASHION.

For ages human beings have had a craving to put SOMETHING in the grave with SOMEBODY.

For thousands of years before we white folks came to America the Indians buried their chief with his favorite horse, his bows and arrows, tomahawks and other weapons.

The brown gentlemen in India went further. Even in this day the British government finds it difficult to prevent the burning alive of widows when the husbands die.

In Africa, even now, in certain savage places they put the dead chief in a big hole, kill a few wives, and throw them in with him—because they don't want him to be lonesome "on his long journey."

Go back as far as you like, you will find sad events and gay events celebrated with the killing of something—the putting of something dead or alive into a grave.

A primitive people made it a rule always to kill a child or a grown person and bury that person under a house newly built.

Millions of people killed human beings every Spring when they began planting the crops.

It is interesting to know that our present system of manuring the soil probably sprang from this primitive habit of killing things and putting them in the ground for luck.

The old-time farmers noticed that the grass grew thick above the spot where a body had been buried. They knew nothing about the laws of fertilization, and they said to themselves: "It's a good thing for a field, it placates some god or devil when we bury something alive in there." So they always buried something in the field.

Now they buy bone dust and dried blood from the Meat Trust, or they buy guano from South America, or they collect the manure from the stables and put that in the field.

Where once our simple ancestors, hoping to please a god or pacify a devil, buried a human being alive, we now scatter lime or phosphate, and rotate crops—we have progressed from burial alive to scientific fertilization and intensive cultivation.

We really DO progress. But we mustn't be too hard on those who have not progressed evenly with the rest of us.

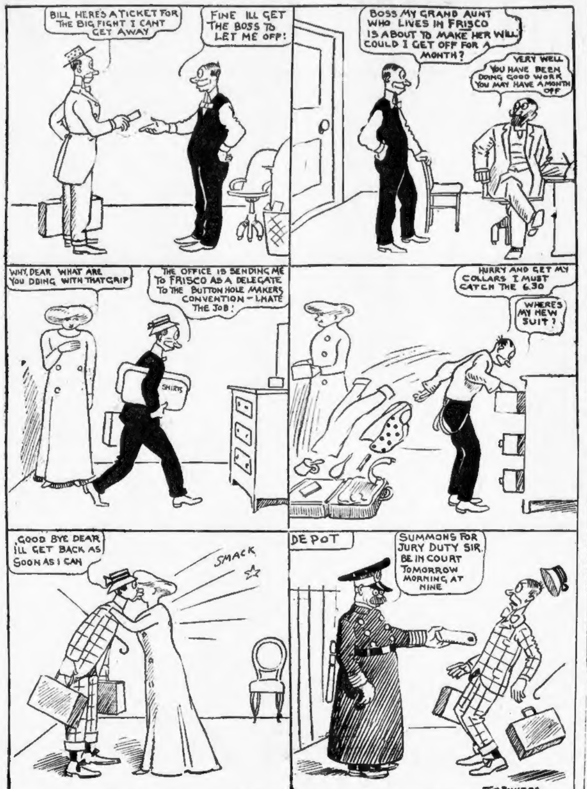
We mustn't in the least assume that poor, devoted Mrs. Mogg was crazy because in her brain the idea of her old ancestors cropped up, and she felt that she really ought to put something in the grave with her husband, if only a pet dog, to keep him company and cheer up his ghost.

And There You Are!

By T. E. POWERS

Copyright, 1910, by American-Journal-Examiner

OH YOU PLANS FOR 'FRISCO!



BILL HERES A TICKET FOR THE BIG FIGHT I CANT GET AWAY
FINE ILL GET THE BOSS TO LET ME OFF!
BOSS MY GRAND AUNT WHO LIVES IN FRISCO IS ABOUT TO MAKE HER WILL COULD I GET OFF FOR A MONTH?
VERY WELL YOU HAVE BEEN DOING GOOD WORK YOU MAY HAVE A MONTH OFF
WHY, DEAR WHAT ARE YOU DOING WITH THAT GRIP
THE OFFICE IS SENDING ME TO FRISCO AS A DELEGATE TO THE BUTTON HOLE MAKERS CONVENTION - I HATE THE JOB!
SHIRTS
HURRY AND GET MY COLLARS I MUST CATCH THE 6.30
WHERE'S MY NEW SUIT?
GOOD BYE DEAR ILL GET BACK AS SOON AS I CAN SMACK
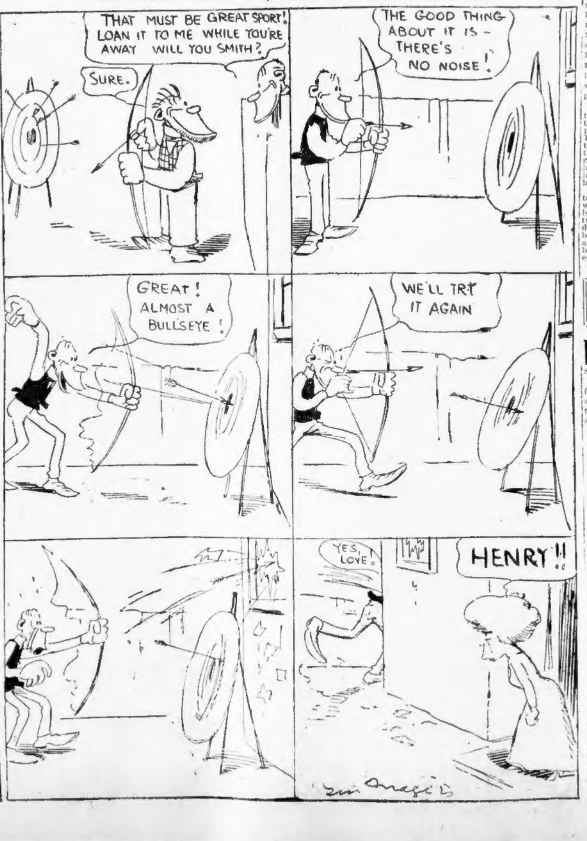
DEPOT
SUMMONS FOR JURY DUTY SIR, BE IN COURT TOMORROW MORNING, AT NINE
T.E. POWERS

Henpecko, the Monk

By GUS MAGER

Copyright, 1910, by American-Journal-Examiner

HE TRIES ARCHERY, AND GETS IN TROUBLE



THAT MUST BE GREAT SPORT! LOAN IT TO ME WHILE YOU'RE AWAY WILL YOU SMITH?
SURE.
THE GOOD THING ABOUT IT IS - THERE'S NO NOISE!
GREAT! ALMOST A BULLSEYE!
WE'LL TRY IT AGAIN
YES, LOVE!
HENRY!!
Gus Mager

ELBERT HUBBARD'S ARTICLE

FRIENDS AND FRIENDSHIP

Written for the Boston American.

By ELBERT HUBBARD

Copyright, 1910, by American-Journal-Examiner

WHEN Charles Kingsley was asked for the secret of his exquisite sympathy and fine imagination, he paused a space, and then answered: "I had a friend."

The desire for friendship is strong in every human heart. We crave the companionship of those who can understand. The nostalgia of life presses, we sigh for "home," and long for the presence of one who sympathizes with our aspirations, comprehends our hopes and is able to partake of our joys.

A thought is not our own until we impart it to another, and the confessional seems a crying need of every human heart.

We reach the divine through some one, and by dividing our joy with this one we double it, and come in touch with the universal. The sky is never so blue, the birds never sing so blithely, our acquaintances are never so gracious as when we are filled with love for some one.

Being in harmony with one, we are in harmony with all. The lover idealizes and clothes the beloved with virtues that only exist in his imagination. The beloved is consciously aware of this and endeavors to fulfill the high ideal; and in the contemplation of the transcendent qualities that his mind has created, the lover is raised to heights otherwise impossible.

Should the beloved pass from earth while this condition of exaltation exists, the ideal is indelibly impressed upon the soul, just as the last earthly view is said to be photographed upon the retina of the dead. The highest earthly relationship is in its very essence fleeting, for men are fallible, and, living in a world where material wants jostle and time and change play their ceaseless parts, gradual obliteration comes and disillusion enters. But the memory of a sweet companionship, once fully possessed and snapped by fate at its supremest moment, can never die from out his heart.

All other troubles are swallowed up in this. And if the individual is of too stern a fiber to be completely crushed into the dust, time will come bearing healing, and the memory of that once ideal condition will chant in the heart a perpetual eucharist.

And I hope the world has passed forever from the nightmare of pity for the dead; they have ceased from their labors and are at rest.

But for the living, when death has entered and removed the best friend, fate has done her worst, the plummet has sounded the depths of grief, and thereafter nothing can inspire terror.

At one fell stroke all petty annoyances and corroding cares are sunk into nothingness. The memory of a great love lives enshrined in undying amber. It affords a ballast 'gainst all storms that blow, and, although it lends an unutterable sadness, it imparts an unspeakable peace.

Where there is this haunting memory of a great love lost, there is always forgiveness, charity and a sympathy that makes the man brother to all who suffer and endure.

The individual himself is nothing; he has nothing to hope for, nothing to lose, nothing to win, and this constant memory of the high and exalted friendship that was once his is a nourishing source of strength. It constantly purifies the mind and inspires the heart to nobler living and diviner thinking. The man is in communication with elemental conditions.

To have known an ideal friendship and have it fade from your grasp and flee as a shadow before it is touched with the sordid breath of selfishness or sullied by misunderstanding is the highest good. And the constant dwelling in sweet, sad recollection on the exalted virtues of the one that has gone tends to crystalize these virtues in the heart of him who meditated them.

The beauty with which love adores its object becomes the possession of the one who loves.

The Consciousness of Love

By DR. MAX NORDAU

HEALTHY and natural love is always clearly conscious of its purpose. It is the longing for the possession, the demand for that union which is able to bring about the origination of posterity. In strong individuals love sets free impulses that are sufficiently powerful to triumph over every opposing wish and overcome every obstacle. In individuals with weak wills it does not have this capacity; the emotion continues to be subjective and does not become converted into actions.

The strength of the love of any being ought, therefore, not to be measured by the exertions which it puts forth in order to acquire the beloved; for the magnitude of these exertions depends upon the strength of his will and not upon the strength of his love. It must nevertheless be added, in limitation, that in the healthy and normal person all the brain centres are developed in pretty much the same proportion, so that individuals who have weak wills will also hardly possess the instinct of love to any marked extent, whereas those individuals who are able to love violently will also, as a rule, possess powerful wills.

The difference in the importance of the two sexes, so far as the maintenance of the race is concerned, also causes corresponding differences in the amatory lives. The part which the woman plays is by far the more important. She has to supply the whole material for the formation of a new being, to elaborate it completely within her own organism, and, above all, to impart to it her own qualities, just as she has inherited them from her forefathers.

Man, again, only supplies the stimulant to this difficult—nay, heroic—work upon which the quality of the work in question is to some degree dependent, just as in truth also. To cite an example, the same dynamite burns harmlessly, or flares up brilliantly, or explodes with terrific force, according as it is respectively set on fire by a live coal, or a lighted match, or an explosive.

Woman possesses a more distinctly developed ideal of the man who is organically necessary for her and will fill up her life, nor does she allow herself to be so readily induced to renounce this ideal and content herself with a substitute of a totally dissimilar character.

Should a woman have once found her ideal, it will be practically an impossibility to get her to renounce it, as her emotion drives from her consciousness every other kind of contents, so that she is henceforth able to do nothing else except love, places her will, her judgment, and her imagination at the disposal of her affection, and utterly refuses to allow any attempt on the part of her judgment to struggle against the emotion by the help of intelligent conceptions.

A woman has an instinctive sensation that she ought not to make any mistake, that an error would have alike for herself and her posterity results that could not be made good, that it would under all circumstances draw along with it the lavish expenditure of a comparatively large amount of organic labor, and she is, therfore, extremly distrustful and careful to avoid the possibility of such an error.

On the other hand, she realizes as certainly that she has not made a mistake when she has found the right man, and in such a case she will be far more ready to give up her own life than that man.

In the case of the man the matter is quite different. He may quite easily make a mistake, because a mistake, so far as he is concerned, has no organic results at all, and can be made good, so to speak, the very next minute—that is, so far as his share in the preservation of the race is affected. For the same reason also his ideal of the woman who will organically complete him is much less plainly typified, and he is therefore apt to fall in love much more quickly and easily with the first nice woman he meets. For the same reason, also, he can love much more easily, forget with much less trouble, and his love can, with comparative ease, be controlled, suppressed, and even completely vanquished by his judgment.

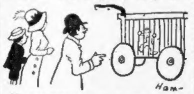
Little Bobbie

He Writes About His Visit to the Circus

By WILLIAM F. KIRK

PA took us both, me & Ma, to the circus We had a awful good time, too. Thare was a man with us naimed Stuffy Davis, he got the tickets for Pa.

Wife, sed Pa, shaik hands with my old frend Mister Stuffy Davis, he was born on a stuffy day in August, hence the Christian naim. I can assure you, by the way, sed Pa, that it is reely a Christian naim.



Ma was very nice to Mister Davis, & then all of us went to look at the animiles beefoar we went in for to see the big show. First we looked at the giraffes, & then we went oaver & beegan to look at the monkeys. Here is whare I am at hoam, sed Pa. I cud stand here & look at them monks all day long. Thay seem to feel the saim way, sed Ma, see the way thay are all looking at you. Thay cant seem to taik thare eyes off of you, Ma sed. I beleeve you interest them, & I am not surprised. You see, sed Ma, thay all have such short noses, & I suppoas thay are wundering at the length of the beezer on yure classic face.

Oaver here, sed Pa, we have the roaring yak. It is no different from any other yak, sed Pa, excep that it roars, whereas moast of them yaks whistles & sings. I guess it is moar grouch than anything else. As the poet sed:

He knows that Rusevelt's coming back,
That's what maiks him the roaring yak.

Then we all went in for to see the big show, we had sum nice seats, neer sum nice girls. First Pa wud look at the show & then he wud look at the girls. Then the girls wud look at him. Ma dident look at the show much, she was watching Pa.

I was the one (I) that looked moast at the show. It was a grate show, thare was one clown thare wich was nine feet tall. Isent he the tall man? sed one of the girls. Only since he has got a divoarce from his wife, sed Pa, wen he was married he was always short. Do you get it? Then all the girls turned thare backs on Pa, & Ma got mad, too, so after that Pa just looked at the show.

A vary pritty gairl calm in & started to swing on a slack wire, she had a naim like Corona, & she swung harder on that slack wire than I can swing in a regular swing. Oh, you Corona, sed Pa, you are the class, all right. Keep on swinging, littel girl, I will be with you presently. Keep still, sed a usher. Yes, sed Ma, keep still or I will leave the arena. You arent beeing funny at all. I know that I am not beeing funny, sed Pa, I was nevver moar in earnest in my life, oh, you Corona, with your fairy-like grace.

See that grate big strong man oaver thaer, sed Ma, lifting the thousand pound weights on his finger tips, well, isent that grand? I wonder who he is. So Pa asked a usher who he was, & the usher sed, Why that is Mister Corona, the husband of the lady that you was jest trying to flirt with. One snap of his finger wud crush in sum man's skull, but not yure skull, no, not yures. So Pa dident holler any moar to the Corona lady, he kep his mouth shut.

Setting here, Pa sed, surrounded by my luving fambly, I offen think of the old charm wich a circus had for me wen I was a boy back hoam in Wisconsin. It is wunderful how the passing yeers change one into a old, wurld-weery man.

I doant know, sed Ma, I am enjoying it. Maybe if you wud look moar at the circus you wud appreshiate it moar. You see, sed Ma, the reeson that you enjoyed the circus moar wen you was a littel boy was beekaus in them days you was looking at the circus all the time, not at a lot of pritty girls setting around us.

I had a fine time, beekaus it was a grate show, & Ma had a fine time, too, at the circus. Pa had his time after we got hoam. Ma layed him out.